

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

A meeting of the Parish House Guild of the church of the Redeemer will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the rectory and all members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chambers who left yesterday for Kentucky, were complimented before their departure by a 7 o'clock dinner Friday evening for which Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hamley and Mrs. Fred H. Brown were hosts at the Hamley home on West Court street. A great cluster of pink roses left their charm to the handsomely appointed table which was encircled by a group of intimate friends of the honor guests, and the affair was made exceptionally enjoyable by the informal hospitality of the hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Chambers left for Louisville where Mrs. Chambers will remain while her husband is in the officers' training camp for field artillery at Camp Taylor, Ky. The absence of both Mr. and Mrs. Chambers will be a source of regret to Pendleton friends, for during Mr. Chambers' activity in community affairs his wife has been an eager in Honor Guard and Red Cross circles.

A quiet wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. L. Hall, 362 W. Alta St., when Miss Pearl Hicks of Milton became the bride of J. W. Davis of Astoria, with Rev. H. S. Shangle of Milton officiating. The bride wore an attractive gown of Georgette crepe and silver lace and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The house was very attractively decorated with a profusion of beautiful asters. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell and Herbert Newell, Jr., Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Shangle, Milton; Cecil and Edgar Hicks, Milton; F. M. Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hall, E. L. McFroom, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hicks, Effie Hicks, Emily and Elizabeth McFroom. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Milton to visit a few days with friends, after which they will take a wedding trip to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at their home in Astoria after October 1st.

A token of appreciation to Mrs. Harry Chambers for her service in Red Cross activities as well as an expression of friendship was presented to her Saturday evening before her departure for Kentucky by members of her surgical dressings class, the gift chosen being a rose colored nestle. The class which has been conducted by Mrs. Chambers since each Thursday evening and includes Honor Guard girls and a number of additional members.

Following the summer period of vacation, a special meeting of the Business chapter No. 13, Order Eastern Star, is to be held tomorrow evening and the officers of the chapter are to be hostesses for a social to which a welcome is extended to all members with an especially cordial invitation to all those in Pendleton who are not affiliated with this chapter, the meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Prominent Pendleton folk who have concluded their sojourn at the various beaches and after spending a few days in the city are returning home this week are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Adams, Mrs. Wilson McNary and children, Miss Catherine and Wilson, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bishops and children—Portland Oregonian.

The ladies of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. M. L. Stockman Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urgently requested to attend as the business is unusually important. It includes the election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Fred Ebel Saturday afternoon entertained a group of young friends in compliment to her daughter, Miss Mildred Ebel, whose eleventh birthday anniversary it was. Mrs. Ebel was assisted by Mrs. L. McFeeley and Mrs. George Stangler. Mrs. McFeeley presiding at the piano with "Marching Through Jerusalem" as the party, after a number of games, formed a line into the dining room, led by the honoree, Jimmy Stangler. Helen McFeeley and Jack Stangler. Streams of pink crepe paper fluttered from the electrolizer to the table where a prettily appointed cake supported eleven pink and gleaming candles from a bed ferns and pink and white roses and asters. Later assembling on the lawn the friends enjoyed dainty refreshments and showered the honor guest with pretty expressions of congratulations. The guest list included besides Miss Ebel, Misses Margaret Shaver, Helen McFeeley, Daphna Howland, Mary Hampton, Lois McCook, Margaret Hohn, Katherine Huhm, Ruth La Hue, Olga La Hue, Mary Earhart, Francis Ross, Rosemary Whitman, Vada Heaman, Seville Marty, Margaret Jack and Dorothy Dodge and Howard Dunham, Harold Green, Leonard Marty, Freddie Penhler, Don Whitman, Jack Stangler, Jimmy Stangler, Charles Peterson, James Hill, Charles Simis, Fred Griggs, Allan Boyden, Horace Boyden, Don McCook and Alvin Ross.

Purple and white asters, representing the colors of the Christian Women's Board of Missions of the Christian church, mingled with the Stars and Stripes, to deck the parlors of the church Friday evening for the special meeting and social hour for which the organization was responsible. Many members and friends enjoyed the evening, the earlier hours of which were devoted to reports on the aims and programs of work of the society during the past year and a delightful program, a particularly pleasing number of which was a reading by Master Cleo Campbell, "When I'm Grown Up I'll Tell You What I'll Do." Later, a "three course supper was served as announced, and the menu consisted of cold cantaloupe, toothpicks and salt, causing much merriment and forming a clever feature of an altogether delightful evening.

THIS CAMOUFLAGE DIDNT WORK

Henry Power, a young man of Helix, who is serving in the navy, being on a mine sweeper, writes his sister, Mrs. G. W. Johnson of Helix, from the Atlantic coast. He says they recently had a fight with three submarines and think they were successful

In sinking one. The letter follows: August 23, 1918.

Dear Sis and Family: I received your most kind and welcome letter the other day. Was glad to hear from you, and to hear that you are all well. This leaves me, Joe and dandy and I hope you are all the same. You can write as often as you like, for I can read letters at any time, and you don't know how good it will be when I get a letter from home. I don't know where I will be when you hear from me again. Maybe here and maybe in France.

We had a submarine fight August 14. Fought three of them and we think we sunk one. It was hit, but I don't know for sure. You wanted to know if I was on a transport. I am not. I am on a mine sweeper and think we will be spending over in France before very long.

Well, I guess you read in the papers how they are capturing and driving back the Germans. So the war will not last long, I hope not.

Well, write often as I can read long letters. Will close for this time. Your loving brother,

HENRY.

GEORGE SYLVESTER VIERECK

DRY ZONES POWER FAVORED.—WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The house today unanimously adopted the Kellogg resolution empowering the President to establish dry ones around mines, shipyards and ammunition plants.

DAVID ROBERTSON IN CHILE.—David Robertson, well known in Pendleton as a hardware man, is now in Valparaiso, Chile, with the merchant marine. He says he would like to see the Round-Up but that he will have to wait until next year.

WAYNE SHROCK WOUNDED.—Wayne Shrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Shrock, is in a hospital near Vichy, France, as the result of a shrapnel wound in the right wrist, received August 4. Shrock, who is a member of the infantry, has been employed as a runner to take a message from headquarters to the front and it was while thus engaged that he received the wound. He says in a letter received today by his wife that his hand is still stiff but that it is doing very well. Shrock remarks that it is pleasant not to have to dodge bullets for a time or wear a gas mask.

Heavy artillery fire has been one of his experiences, as well as close contact with poisonous gases.

TOM MURPHY GETS REST.—Tom Murphy, who is seeing active service in France as a member of the base hospital corps, has been moved back from the front lines with the rest of his company and is now enjoying a rest after a season of hard work. He says that the entire Rain-wood Division is in the same neighborhood, which is the location they held when first sent to France. It is Tom's opinion that they will remain there until the spring drive opens.

SENDS HOME IRON CROSS CERTIFICATE.—Frank Sheldon Ulrich, Pendleton boy serving in France, in the 8th company, 5th regiment of the infantry, today sent to his brother, Balf Ulrich, a certificate taken from a German prisoner which shows that the German had won the Iron Cross. The certificate is in German and the year in which the cross was won is given as 1917.
