

ROUND-UP SOUVENIR EDITION

PENDLETON, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1918

SCENES CAUGHT DURING "THE EPIC DRAMA OF THE WEST"

The top view shows a group of braves from the Umatilla reservation, taking part in the grand mounted parade on the Round-Up track. The long picture below was taken during the maverick race in which event the winner is he who first gets his rope on the steers horns. At the right Jason Stanley, Round-Up star of days gone by is shown in the drunken ride. The center view at the bottom shows a stage coach race; the picture at the left at bottom shows George Wier, world beating steer roper.
