THE MARNE

The battle roll of thunder peals across the Marne with lightning flash.

Affairs are all the allied guns as they the stream defenders dash.

In human tides that ebb and flow as waves upon a rock-strewn shore.

Joan of Arc! thy bleeding France Has cast the spider from her door.

Slow winds and peaceful moats Marne

Thou sunny fields of lily bloom!

And yet thy crumbling banks have stood

As iron walls to seal the doom Of Teuton hordes who thought to rob

A nation's land and liberty.

Flow on, flow on! O Marne, No tyrants chain shall shackles thee.

—Promont Pallock Livingston.

months time if all goes well the United States will have that number of soldiers in France. This force plus the French and English should assure a supremacy that means victory. So of the final outcome there can be no doubt. The point is that hard work at home and hard hitting at the front means a speedier end to the war and a speedier return of the brave boys abroad. There is always danger in delay. Delay is also expensive. There is danger in overconfidence. Every lag-gard here makes it that much harder for our men over there. We should not relax because we are winning. It is time to hit the ball.

WOULD IT HURT OR HELP?

AR. FESS, chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee, is very confident that an opposition house and senate will be elected this fall. He may be right; he may be wrong. If there is a chance he may be right is it not time for people to do some hard thinking.

Will it help win the war if the country embarrasses President Wilson by electing an opposition congress? Can we hasten victory by upsetting the notable team work at Washington by virtue of which we now have almost two million soldiers abroad; through which we have food and industrial control and have successfully financed the most colossal job the world has ever known?

Will it add to the morale of our allies if they get news in November that the Wilson administration has been repudiated through the election of an opposition congress? Will it hurt or help Germany if such news is carried by the cables in November?

These are questions deserving of earnest thought by every voter between now and the general election.

THAT LOVE INTEREST

GIVE me a book on how to write letters, demanded a dreamy eyed youth in a war camp library of the American Library Association. Then he added shyly, "I want it half for a lady and half for a gentleman." There was not much trouble in diagnosing his case, which is a common one, the librarians say.

enlisted and are as undisciplined as jack-rabbits." Give them time and they will change their taste in books and say with the average soldier: "Sure I want a love story. Ain't I got a girl?"

In each ward of the city efforts are being made to get good men to run for the city council. The effort is meeting with success. The work should be continued until each ward is assured of having men of the proper calibre to represent it. Right now is the vital time to work for capable government in Pendleton.

One reason that American war work costs so much is that we pay our soldiers more in a month than some countries pay their fighters in a whole year. But our men are worth it.

Pendleton will lose its reputation if it falls down on the fourth liberty loan. So will some of our citizens for the subscription list is going to be closely scrutinized by men who know just what you could do if you wanted to do it.

The war is proving that a man need not be a "high flyer" to make good with an airplane.

The Bulgarians now realize that they placed their money on the wrong horse.

"We are through," said Mayor Baker, "with those who talk patriotism but do not act the part." The fourth liberty loan is one means whereby such people may be recognized.

Take no chances on a yellow card; you will regret it if you do.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the east Oregonian, September 27, 1990.)

Frank Caldwell, a teacher and stenographer of Gilliam county, is in the city today.

Senator Mitchell has secured the establishment of a new post office in Ukiah, Unadilla county, and the appointment of Lewis C. Writing as postmaster.

Henry Frankerton, a substantial Western farmer, was in the city today. He says a number of farmers in that section have not sold their wheat, and are still holding on in the hope that there may be another boom in the market.

H. Kinsey returned today from the Palouse country where his son George is operating his threshing outfit with good success.

Marshall French is making extensive improvements in his residence on Hill street.

SICK WOMAN NOW WELL

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read Her Letter.

Pottersville, Pa.—"For a long time I was bothered with pains in my side, and was so weak from my trouble that I could not do any lifting or hard work of any kind. If I tried to straighten out when lying down it seemed as though something would tear loose. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health and I am quite myself once more."—Miss HAZEL CRIBBICK, Pottersville, Penn.

Thousands of women drag along from day to day in just such a miserable condition as was Mrs. Chubbuck, or suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, nervousness, or "the blues."

Each woman should profit by Mrs. Chubbuck's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find relief from their sufferings as she did.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

Protect and Beautify with LOWE BROTHERS HIGH STANDARD PAINTS

These paints of proven performance show their quality by their looks, life and wear. Results have proved their certain economy.

High Standard saves money because it covers more surface than a gallon of cheaper paint. You will need fewer gallons of High Standard. It spreads easier, making your painter to do a better job in less time.

It saves money "next time" because High Standard is a long-wearing paint. You don't need to paint so often. And when after years of service it has gradually worn away, it leaves a good surface for repainting. This means saving of time and material.

"A teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin each night at bedtime has done me a world of good, as I am 62 years old and was getting badly constipated. I had previously taken a lot of pills and cathartics without real relief." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mr. A. Faester, Princess Anne, Md.)

Constipation is one of the penalties of age that should never be neglected—Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that relieves constipation in an easy, natural manner, without griping or strain, and is as positive in its effect as it is mild and gentle in its action.
