Ed Thrasher Buys
Camas Creek Ranch

(East Oregonian Special)
UKIAH, Oct. 8.—Rain fell all day Saturday, Sunday night and part of Sunday, which insures enough moisture for fall seeding which will begin at once with many of the farmers.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant received another letter a few days ago from their son, Clair, who says, "I am in foreign waters and am well and happy."
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipp moved to town Sunday, and have taken rooms at the Blue Mountain hotel, and Mr. Shipp will work for Mossie Brothers during the fall seeding.
Ed Thrasher of Bridge Creek has purchased from Willis Wilson 290 acres of land which lies near the mouth of Camas creek. The land joins Mr. Thrasher's land and altogether makes him an ideal stock farm. George Anderson who has been in the mountains during the summer with Hynd brothers sheep, registered at the Ukiah hotel Friday night on his way to Sand Hollow.

Edleton Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Kaine Neal, before going on to Coquille station, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Mary, who is teaching there.

Mrs. W. G. Allen came up from La Grande to visit her son Ben Lee and little daughter Hazel for an extended visit, but was called home Wednesday by telegram as her husband, Dr. Allen, had accepted a school at Umatilla.

Henry Dowd left for Whitman college Tuesday, where he enters the boys' training for special courses for Uncle Sam. His brother Ralph, who has been ill in Virginia at his camp was able to leave the hospital and sailed for France September 28. The eldest brother Hugh, has been transferred to the medical corps.

Mrs. M. C. Ferguson and little granddaughter, Hazel Lee, expect to leave for Camp Lewis Thursday to visit her two sons, Elmer and Bert, before they leave for France.

Charley May, shaft Price and Henry Thompson went bear hunting last week and expect to say until they get a bear piece or at least one big bear.

Farmers are very busy hauling wood, gathering beans, digging some early potatoes and since the fine rains several are plowing.

Dick English finished haling his hay Monday and expects to gather his cattle in from the range next week. Mrs. Jake Narkus on Iled and Hawley mountain, while Mr. English and Mr. Narkus are riding.

Mark Henderson came very near being fatally injured while hauling wood from the sawmill and as it is he is badly bruised and confined to his bed. Dr. Thomas of Milton was called. He found no bones broken but the lungs and diaphragm were bruised pretty bad.

John Hyatt and wife went to the mill and left their little daughter Nadine May in the buggy for a moment, when the team became frightened and ran away. The baby was sitting on the seat but rolled off into the bottom of the buggy and was not hurt at all. The team stopped a short distance back of the old barn.

Mrs. Seth Hyatt was taken to St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla Saturday and placed under Dr. Keyler's care.

Shad Price will leave for California soon to spend the winter.

The Ferguson boys are seeding wheat.

Cecil Allen finished seeding wheat Saturday on the Shad Price farm.

Bruce Crawford will move to Walla Walla to send his children to school and to work there this winter.

AN OFFICER OF UNCLE SAM'S ARMY walked into our store this morning and requested us to deliver up all our Men's Raincoats and Slickers to the government. We gladly and cheerfully did so. We only wish we could do more. The boys "Over There" will need them far worse than the web-footed people of Oregon.

This is only one instance of the tremendous shortage of materials throughout the country.

We don't like to scare you but all of us must face the facts.
