PARIS, Oct. 19.—(By Mail.)—The Red Cross is relieving suffering in the war zone in outlined in the latest report of the civil affairs department of the organization.

During the month of June the department rendered aid to 412,563 civilians, exclusive of the work among allied soldiers. Of this huge army, 231,424 were refugees from the war-torn regions. In the early days of the German offensive, thousands of refugees passed through Paris daily.

most of them practically destitute and suffering from exposure and hardship of the hurried flight. American Red Cross emergency committees met them at the stations and supplied aid. A large percentage of the refugees so assisted were children.

The supplies distributed by all the bureaus during the month include 236,716 garments, 56,647 pairs of shoes, 17,222 articles of bedding and household linen, 648,572 pounds of food, 85,176 yards cloth, and 427 articles of hospital equipment and supplies.

17 Civilian Hospitals.

Some of the other activities in supporting the war-stricken include 17 civilian hospitals with 1454 beds, 430 new hospitals for soldiers who have been injured. Three refugee homes are housing 1500 homeless children from the invaded territory. In Paris alone 37,000 school children are receiving supplementary food for "hunger" tuberculosis from the Red Cross. Many are dispensaries for children or tubercular refugees cared for 45,028 patients and 3 workshops have been completed for reconstruction of war cripples.

Money grants totaling 921,545 francs were given to other organizations for relief work of which more than one-half went for aid of tubercular sufferers and 215,221 francs to war-refugees.

MEN PREFER DRILL BOOKS.

"Infantry Regulations" Best Seller Among Influenza Convalescents.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Eugene, Oct. 19.—"Infantry Drill Book" has proved its popularity as the best seller among the men of the Officers' Training Corps here. When Lieutenant Jacob Kamin, officer of the day, announced that convalescents might have the choice of any work available in the military for reading, old J. D. 12 led all the rest among Colonel Leader's men.

One exception, however, was the case of a grip patient who was about ready to leave. An inspired friend just the convalescent a fine old Will West thriller. The net result was an increase of two degrees in the patient's temperature—which means another half week somewhere in the sick ward.

Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip, is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid, there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands of

HUN PROPAGANDA BEARS NO FRUITS

$75,000,000 AND 40 YEARS SPENT

Boastfulness, Lack of Understanding Responsible for Failure of Huge Efforts.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—(By Mail.)—Boastfulness and lack of understanding are responsible for the failure of Germany's huge propaganda efforts.

After 40 years of experience in this work, Germany can show but little fruits for its labor. On the other hand, America, with a record of less than four years, can credit itself with being the most successful of all the belligerents in spreading propaganda.

Col. John Buchan, director of intelligence of the British ministry of information, has said in a German propaganda is "on the whole effective" and declared that "when history comes to decide which country was the most successful in its propaganda campaign, it won't be Germany—it will be America."

"We have had occasion to study the extraordinary records of the German machine which Germans had been building for forty years," said Col. Buchan. "On the whole its product has been rather ineffective because of its lack of psychological acumen."

"The Hun heads too much and underestimates the peoples against whom his campaign is directed—as, for instance, America."

"He makes queer slips. At the beginning of the war, the kaiser sent an address to the Mohammedan chiefs of India in which he invited them to join him. It was their real friend. The address was elaborately gotten up, engrossed on the finest vellum. But it was bound in pigskin."

"There was an instance of the Hun's tendency to overlook important details for the sake of an animal the Mohammedans regard with horror."

Huns Waste Their Cash.

"The propaganda scheme of the Germans was most elaborate, but it has been overdone. They have spent at least $75,000,000 annually since the war began, some of which went to produce most absurd publications. Also, they printed too many. The scheme might be described as 'kolossal but stupid.'"

"American propaganda has been conducted with a rare instinct for publicity."

"Take the American Red Cross in Italy, France and Russia, as well as the work of the Y. M. C. A. This was practical propaganda. In sending the sick and wounded the American Red Cross proved America's sympathy to the allies."

"The committee on public information in Washington appeals to the intelligence of the world. The American secret service is a fine organization and has some splendid men in it. They managed to get hold of most valuable documents which were published at exactly the right time."

"America is very much alive to the value of news in propaganda, and the right kind of news. She has been blessed, like the other countries in Europe, with secrecy. The soldier—professional soldier—is always inclined to make a mystery of his work. It is not always easy to get a response from him to an intelligent question the answer of which may be of no value to the enemy but may be of great value to the people."

Nations Are Essential.

"A war of nations can't be an anonymous war. The people must be taken into the confidence of their government. They want to know something of the organization of their armies and the generals who command them."

"Take for example, the Official Gazette of the United States which on July 17th told of the organization of the American army and gave the names of the commanding generals. That's common sense."

"America has just established propaganda agencies in all allied and neutral countries. Their policy is the same as in America. There is no jealousy. They put all their interests in the common stock."

Col. Buchan is reluctant to boast of his own country's efforts at propaganda. But German newspapers recently have paid it the highest compliment in concentrating a campaign of "hate" against Lord Northcliffe, for what they term Great Britain's "perfidious" propaganda.

Cherished Relic of Bride of Two Weeks is Stolen As Her Funeral is Held

PORTLAND, Oct. 21.—It was only a red fox fur that he was detailed to find but when Police Inspector Hyde reported at police headquarters Thursday night that the stolen property had been recovered he did so with a week ago the fur was worn by Mrs. H. V. Bills, a bride of two weeks. It was a wedding present from her husband, a shipyard worker. Before their marriage they had admired the fur many times. And the wedding day her husband presented her with it. It represented $100 of the money he had earned as a builder of ships, but to the happy couple it represented far more than its intrinsic value.

A few days after the wedding the young bride was taken sick with pneumonia. The honeymoon met with a tragic end on Monday last week, when she passed away.

It was while the young widow was attending the funeral Wednesday afternoon that somebody entered his apartment at 375 1/2 Grand avenue and stole the fur, the one heritage left him by his bride of two weeks. Frantic with grief, Mr. Bills appealed to the police bureau.

Police Inspector Hyde was following out a clue when the fur was recovered in a mysterious manner it disappeared. Tears of joy streamed down his face as he reported it had been found. And Police Inspector Hyde was right.

SECRET NEWSPAPER WORRYING HUMS

Mysterious Sheet Regularly Adorns Breakfast Table of German Governor of Belgium.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—Von Falkenhayn, German governor general of Belgium, is looking for a German Sherlock Holmes.

Every morning when this dignitary sits down at his breakfast table he finds there a copy of "L'Ann Belge" (the Belgian soul), a second clandestine paper of mysterious origin. Its contents almost invariably spoils Von Falkenhayn's breakfast and he is rapidly developing chronic indigestion.

Innumerable suspects have been arrested—but the paper always comes out; and always with a pert little message that no matter what the Kaiser's detectives do they'll never find the editors. "You may seize a body, but not a soul," the last message read.

Cut Out Rice Shower at Wedding Festivities

"Don't throw rice—save food and help with the war."

This notice has appeared in one of New York's leading hotels where weddings are frequent. Rice is too precious to waste in throwing it after the departing bride and groom, according to tradition.

The following recipes will give two ways of using it as a substitute for rice or other desert demanding wheat.

Rice Bavarian Cream.

- 3 cups milk
- 1-2 cup rice
- Saltproof salt
- Nutmeg
- 1-2 cup sweetening
- 2 tablespoons or 1-2 box granulated gelatin
- 1-2 cup cold water

Whites 2 eggs 1/2 cup cream.

Wash the rice thoroughly with sugar and salt. Boil until thick and soft. Stir frequently in order to break up the lumps. Soak gelatin in cold water and then dissolve it in the hot rice mixture. Season to taste with nutmeg or salt in preserves or orange or pineapple marmalade and a little vanilla. Cook until nearly done. Beat with a Dover beater and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs or one egg of thick whipped cream. Turn into a mold lined with cold water. Serve cold with plain or whipped cream.

Apple Snowballs.

- 1/2 cup cup of rice fifteen minutes or steam till tender. Wrap small pudding cloths (one-third of a yard square) out of hot water, and lay them over a small halfpint bowl. Spread the rice one-third of an inch thick over the cloth. Core and pare apples. Put an apple in the center, filling the cavity with rice. Draw the cloth around till the apple is covered smoothly with the rice. Tie tightly and steam half an hour. Remove the cloth carefully and serve with sauce. The amount of rice will be four or five balls. These are more wholesome than apple or fruit dumplings, made with a flour crust.

Wheatless Loaf Bread.

Tried out in the laboratory of the United States Food Administration.

- 1 cup milk
- 4 tablespoons fat
- 4 tablespoons syrup
- 2 eggs
- 6 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 cups corn flour
- 1 cup buckwheat
- Nuts or raisins if desired.

Add to the milk the melted fat, syrup and slightly beaten eggs. Mix the dry ingredients together and combine with liquid ingredients. Bake as a loaf in a moderate hot oven for one hour or until thoroughly baked. Make narrow loaves. They are easier to eat.

BOHEMIAN REPUBLIC GIVEN FAVOR IN HUNGARIAN MEETING

BUDAPEST, Oct. 19.—At a meeting of delegates held at Budapest recently, Deputy Daseznaki, a Pole, openly announced that he favored the establishment of a Bohemian republic, with Professor Renat Denis of Paris as president, the Ag Ujag of Budapest says.

The majority, however, favored a monarchy, headed by Prince Maximilian of Hohenberg, son of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, whose assassination at Sarajevo in June, 1914, gave rise to the ultimatum to Serbia which resulted in the outbreak of the war. It is said the Duke of Comynagh was the second choice.

EXPLANATION RECEIVED.

MADRID, Oct. 19.—The newspaper El Liberal announced that an allied note sent to all neutrals explaining the allied war attitude has been received by the Spanish government.

Returned From Funeral.

T. F. O'Brien and C. P. A. Longman returned last night from La Granda, where they attended the funeral of Joseph Corbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Corbett, who died recently of pneumonia in New York. Young Corbett who was 19 years of age and a member of the navy, had made seven safe trips across the seas before meeting his death by disease. Mr. Corbett, who is assistant superintendent

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN

Women Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Health Restored.

In almost every neighborhood in America are women who have tried this standard remedy for female ills and know its worth.

Athol, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a world of good. I suffered from a weakness and a great deal of pain every month and nothing brought me any relief until I tried this famous medicine. I am a different woman since I took it and want others who suffer to know about it."—Mrs. ARTHUR LAWSON, 659 Cottage St., Athol, Mass.

San Francisco, Cal.—"I was in a very weak nervous condition, having suffered terribly from a female trouble for over five years. I had taken all kinds of medicine and had many different doctors and they all said I would have to be operated on, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me entirely and now I am a strong well woman."—Mrs. H. ROSSKAMP, 1447 Divisadero St., San Francisco, Cal.

For special advice in regard to such ailments write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its many years experience is at your service.

of the O. W. I. & N., accompanied by Mrs. Corbett, started east at the news of the boy's illness, but he died before they reached his bedside. The funeral was held with all the usual military ceremonies.

NEVER HAD HIS CHANCE AT HUN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE. AGE 31.—(By Mail.)—All bandaged up, he sat on a rock near the dressing station, waiting for the ambulance, looking as miserable as a man can be. He refused the cigarette and wouldn't be consoled when assured that his wound was not serious, and that he need not worry.

"Don't that," he said, "it's the way I got hurt. I've been in France less than two months now, and was just getting up where I could bet a boche when I got thrown out of a truck, and got scratched up. I don't mind getting wounded, but that's the heck of a way to do it, and anyway I never got a chance at a boche."

BECHTOLD'S SCOPE IN WAR MATTERS IS MUCH ENLARGED

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 19.—Germany's federal council has accepted the proposed amendment to the constitution, making it read: "The Danish federal council and the Reichstag is required for a declaration of war in the empire's name, except in case where imperial territory has already been invaded or its coasts attacked."

Another action was amended to read: "The Danish federal council and Reichstag shall deal with affairs coming under the competence of the imperial law-giving bodies require the consent of the federal council and the Reichstag."

LATIN-AMERICA'S HEART IS RIGHT

PANAMA, Oct. 19.—Speaking for Latin-America at a Liberty loan meeting here last night Ernesto T. Lefevre secretary for foreign affairs, said: "The people of Latin-America are so convinced that the United States is an unselfish and altruistic republic that from Patagonia to Mexico all are proud of the victories won by the American armies on the shell-torn fields of Europe. Whatever gains have occurred in the past in Panama, a wave of cordial and sincere friendship is today sweeping from one end to the other. Our hearts and souls are with the soldiers in France."

BOND SLACKER GIVEN COAT OF YELLOW PAINT

WENATCHEE, Wash., Oct. 17.—Twelve prominent residents of Cushman, Wash., face a jury trial here charged with having coated Anderson Drake with yellow paint because he is alleged to have refused to buy Liberty Bonds or contribute to the Red Cross. A large delegation of Cushman residents accompanied the defendants to this city hearing, manners inscribed "down with the slackers."

LEADING GERMAN PAPER IS SHUT DOWN FOR UTTERANCES

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 19.—The Deutch Zeitung, one of the principal pan-German newspapers, has been suppressed for three days, according to the Gazette of Essen. This action by the German government is said to be probably result of the newspaper describing the German reply to President Wilson as a "disgraceful document."

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, getting rid of the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 70c and 95c per box. All druggists.
