MY STAR OF BLUE.

Bright was the star, when he left me,
 That I hung in my window at noon.
 How smiling the sky, and I did not sigh
 As I said: "He will come back soon."
 And I dreamed, in the sweet hours of twilight,
 As I gaze at my star of blue,
 Of the time we would meet, with victory complete,
 And start on our journey anew.
 How I hoped as I sang in the morning
 To my star, in its window place,
 That there it might stay till that glorious day,
 Of peace, for each land and race.
 But, alas for the hopes, alas for the dreams;
 Suddenly the world has grown old,
 And my star of blue, so brave
 'So true,
 Has changed to a star of gold.

that good team work cannot be had from a congress opposed politically to the president. It means strife and bickering all the time.

It is also known that Europe, friend and foe, will look upon the election of an opposition congress as a slap at the president. As Roosevelt said in 1898: "They will draw no fine distinctions; a refusal to sustain the president this year will in their eyes be read as a refusal to sustain the war."

Think this matter out soberly and clearly for yourself. Then decide whether you believe the politicians or believe the politicians and newspapers who now talk exactly opposite from what they talked in 1898.

"WHO DID IT?"

WHEN the United States began raising its army the medical corps of the army gave prompt attention to social conditions. It was pointed out by the army doctors that vice disease was more dangerous than enemy bullets to the soldier.

To Oregon's pride there were no "redlight" districts in this state. No Oregon town was ever quarantined for vice conditions as was Seattle. Our abatement law had abolished the old vice districts.

Who had brought that reform about? Those who some years ago profited by commercialized vice know who did it. They disliked him for it and his name was Governor West. He is the man who put through the abatement law and enforced it. He is the man who drove out the Portland road houses. He is the man who cleaned Copperfield when it had never been cleaned before.

Scores of men who sneered at West for his work in this connection now praise him. They know he did right. The army is better for it and our civic conditions are improved. No one will deny it. Oregon profited through having Oswald West as governor. It can profit by making him senator.

WHERE GERMANY WEAKENS

THE German army is being beaten but it is still powerful and able to fight. The weak point in Germany is behind the lines. The German morale is gone. The people are turning strongly against their rulers. The words of Woodrow Wilson have opened their eyes and they are at work for autocracy's undoing. The German breakdown behind the lines will greatly shorten the war. It will help save the lives of our two million soldiers. Yet Poindexter and various other shysters are yelling at Wilson and want him impeached for his good work. The charlatan is always with us even in war time.

The armistice terms should require that German prisoners, or former officials, be required to pick up all the unexploded shells in France and to touch off all the secret explosive traps they left behind them.

For months the republican congressional committee has been waging a nation wide and expensive campaign to elect an opposition congress. They have been shrieking sectionalism and misrepresenting the president every hour of every day. They are financed by interests that do not want to pay their share of the war tax or else have some other special privilege at stake. President Wilson did not "resume" politics. The campaign was started by the republican committee and had been on for many weeks before the president spoke.

Anti administration leaders are sanguine that they will be able to capture the senate Nov. 5 and turn it against Wilson. They may do it if the voting is light. No loyal supporter of President Wilson should fail to vote. Umatilla county may turn the tide in Oregon and control in the senate may depend upon who is chosen from this state.

The Turks, Austrians and Germans are now engaged in a marathon to see who can surrender first.

The proper field for bolshevik work is now in Berlinki; let the Hun reap as he has sown.

The Belgians, the French,

the Italians and the English see nothing wrong with President Wilson.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, October 28, 1898.)
 City council will meet tonight. H. J. Bean and J. A. Guyer are moving their law offices to rooms in the Pendleton Savings Bank building.
 Harry Folsom and O. P. Bowman shipped two carloads of cattle to the Sound yesterday via the O. and W. T. They have 120 head yet to ship.
 The church social held last night at the residence of Mrs. C. O. French was a pleasant affair and well attended.
 St. Scott and Miss Annie Harvey of Stewart creek, were married yesterday at the residence of Conrad Kohler by Justice Bishop.
 Joseph Vey, well known Bitter creek sheepman, has returned from a visit to his old home in Portugal.

Huns Carve Names of Boats Sunk by Subs In Bodies of Victims

PARIS, Oct. 29.—While pleading for peace and protesting she has reformed, Germany remains the Urahf Heep among the nations. Every village razed in northern France is utterly ruined, while the larger cities are mined and filled with gas before being abandoned. Never before was submarine warfare more brutal. A naval officer whose ship is being repaired in a French port, a torpedo having passed through her bow, says: "Recently a British admiral, addressing assembled allied naval officers, said that while the armies fight men, the navy fights a beast. This expressed the situation. Recently we found survivors of a torpedoed French sailing vessel left in open boats without water and without food, 100 miles from the coast.
 "The majority of these survivors were from 16 to 18 years of age, the captain had been torpedoed three times. Yet the Germans treat such gallant fellows as pirates. Many submarines now are heavily armored, carrying two eight-inch guns with which they shell open boats into which the crews of torpedoed vessels have taken refuge.
 "Gallantry has disappeared from the sea. Recently we secured some abandoned survivors, among whom were two young children killed by shell fire from the submarine.
 "But the most brutal tactics yet seen are related by the crew of a British tramp steamer whose members claim having found lifeboats belonging to torpedoed vessel and that the occupants of which were dead. In their bodies, the men say, the Germans had carved with knives the names of the destroyed vessel and the number of their submarines.

HUNS WORKING AT TOP SPEED TO MOVE MATERIAL

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 29.—German forces at Brussels are working incessantly to remove war material from that city, according to the Rosenwald correspondent of the Handelsblad. He says that many regiments of German troops are leaving the city and that there is much excitement among the people.

DEMOCRATIC IDEAS GROW IN GERMANY

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 29.—The democratization of Germany is spreading through the federal states, says a special dispatch to the Helsinki Times from its correspondent at Berlin.
 At a meeting of the crown council at Dresden yesterday the question of asking the socialists to join the government was considered. The Baden government met at Karlsruhe to consider the abolition of the three class franchise system, and introduction of the proportional franchise. Wurt-

The Best Seller

The reason the grocer has so many orders for Kream Krisp is that when you use Kream Krisp for shortening you save not only by using less of it than either butter or lard, but you eliminate the failures that often come from using inferior fats in your cooking.

Kream Krisp is made from selected peanuts and is a wholly pure vegetable product. Kream Krisp costs less to use than butter or lard.

Kream Krisp has no flavor of its own, and doesn't absorb flavors from foods, no matter how wide the variety fried in the same contents. For this reason you can use it again and again, simply by straining it after each use.

Kream Krisp heats quickly in frying, forming a crisp crust that keeps the food flavor in, and does not soak the fat, thus foods fried in Kream Krisp are not greasy and indigestible.

Kream Krisp economy starts with your first purchase of a can of it. Try Kream Krisp today and you will use it always.
