Col. Meyer's Message Is Quite Out of Date

PARIS, Oct. 9.—(By Mail)—An American intelligence officer near Feren-Tordenis in the Vesle fighting against two traitors—and in a couple of weeks will have their family.
In a bit of woodland northward of Fere he captured a German messenger pigeon that had deserted, mated with a traitor French pigeon and was busy engaged in rearing a family. The German pigeon still had the message it started out with. Rolled up in a tiny metal tube on the bird's leg was a message signed "Col. Meyer." It was dated "9:30 a. m. July 19," and the message was merely "The situation is unchanged in the past hour."
On July 3, the Germans were in possession of the food where the pigeon was discovered. At the time the American officer found the de-

SLAVS TRY TO SAVE BABIES FROM FAMINE

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
ROME, Italy, Oct. 9.—(By Mail) Forty thousand babies from Austria's famine stricken provinces of Bohemia, Dalmatia, Herzegovina and Istria are being fed and cared for by the two more fortunate sister Slav provinces of Croatia and Slavonia.
Details of this latest effort on the part of the Slav provinces of Austria to sustain each other until an allied victory can insure them a national independence have just been received by The Associated Press, who represent the Slav provinces of Austria, signed at Corpal on July 26, 1917, the pact with Serbia providing for a single united Southern Slav nation following the war.
Croatia and Slavonia rank as two of the most fertile provinces of Austria, and despite the ever increasing scarcity of food that exists throughout the dual monarchy these two provinces continue to produce more than they need. Through their local diet they therefore proposed to the Austrian-Hungarian government that they be allowed to succor the other Slav provinces of Bohemia, Dalmatia, Herzegovina and Istria. The only condition they demanded was that in recognition of this they be exempted from military requisition of their food products.
The proposition was turned down by the Austrian-Hungarian government, whereupon the two more fortunate provinces of Croatia and Slavonia began immediately gathering together all the babies and little children from the other Slav provinces. No distinction was made either on religious grounds or grounds of diverse branches of the Slav race. The children likewise were distributed amongst the families of Croatia and Slavonia without religious or other distinction. Catholic children often being taken into orthodox families and vice versa. All are now being fed and educated towards the common end of saving the greatest number possible of the Southern Slav race, which has had the most disproportionate losses in the war, for the future independent Slav state.
U. S. FISH DRAFTED.
(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—American fish have been drafted to help win the war.
The fish aren't going to be used in pursuit of the fleeing Hun. Instead, they are to wage war against mosquitoes which, if left unmolested, are likely to kill more American soldiers than German bullets.
Mosquitoes are the greatest little germ carriers known. Modern science has found that many diseases are directly traceable to them.
An agent of the bureau of fisheries who has been conducting experiments near Camp Hazcock, Ga., has discovered that fish are useful in preventing breeding of the pests. Civililians will benefit as much as the soldiers by the discovery, although the experiments have been conducted primarily to benefit men in the service.

French Had Signs All Ready for Hun Roads

PARIS, Oct. 13.—(By Mail)—As the French and American troops pushed up through the St. Mihiel salient, detachments of the French engineers followed each regiment into the various towns with signs already painted to replace the German road signs that had adorned the crossroads and street corners for four years.
One French officer was plodding along the road toward Apremont with a bunch of signs under his arm when he walked into a party of Americans lying beside the road about a mile outside the village.
"Where are you going?" asked the American officer in charge.
"I'm going up to Apremont to post these signs," replied the French officer. "Better wait until we take it," replied the American, "it's still full of Germans."

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water
Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ash, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.
Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. Wash out the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.
Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, or who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get quarter point of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin phosphate internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.
Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because if skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while hot water cleanses, sweetens and refreshes the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.
