COST OF LIVING SOARS IN ITALY

By HENRY WOOD (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

ROME, Oct. 5. (By Mail.)—From what was in all probability before the war the cheapest country in which to live, Italy has become unquestionably the most expensive. At least, no other country amongst the allies has been harder hit in the matter of the cost of living than has Italy.

Statistics just issued by the Italian government show that the average increase since the beginning of the war ranges from 25 to 125 percent. The smallest increase, that of 25 percent is in shoes, clothing and soap; the highest increase, 125 percent is in food not much used; while the next to the high increase, 126 per cent is on all the food stuffs of general consumption.

This astounding change in the cost of living in Italy is due to two principal causes. First, the great depreciation of Italian currency on foreign markets makes it necessary for Italy to pay almost double the regular price of everything that is purchased abroad. Secondly, Italy has been more dependent than any other of the allied countries on importation of all manufactured products.

As the government in order to prevent speculation and insure a just distribution of all foodstuffs available, has overtaken distribution and fixing of prices, it has likewise endeavored to increase the average income of each individual so that he can live under these circumstances. Laws have been enacted forcing employers to give increases in salary, but these very seldom have exceeded 35 to 50 percent.

Merchants generally have solved the problem by raising prices on everything that is not controlled by the government. Many classes of workmen and day laborers have been able to exact increased pay. In general, however, the disproportion still continues very great, and the Italian public generally is feeling the effects of war more in its daily life than that of any other allied belligerent.

PERSHING HONORS MARSHAL JOFFRE

PAUL, Nov. 15.—General Pershing, in the name of President Wilson, presented the Military Academy the Distinguished Service Medal to Marshal Joffre, the hero of the Marne. In his address the American commander-in-chief said:

"This medal is a symbol of our respect for your noble character and of our admiration for the great task you accomplished. Your name will always be associated with the conquests we have attained. Marshal Joffre, thanking General Pershing, said he was proud of the great distinction which he desired to draw after still closer to the American army and people. He added:

"I am proud to have been the god-father of the noble American army, which was the determining cause of our actual victory. I love the American soldier as though they were mine."

PRICE OF MEAL IN PARIS CUT TO $4

PARIS, Oct. 18.—(By Mail.)—There is a pitiable wall coming from the aggrieved Paris restaurant owners.

The French food minister is forcing them to serve a luncheon at 20 francs (about $4). And the restaurant owners are having meetings, conferences, consultations, and discussions. But the food minister is adamant-hearted. He says if they don't lower the prices in the better class restaurants so that it will be possible to get a luncheon consisting of soup, meat, vegetables, dessert, ordinary wine and coffee, for $4, he'll order them to serve table d'hote luncheons at fixing prices, which would be terrible—with the town full of Americans.

Of course, if the patrons of the restaurants insist upon ordering things not included in the "four-back" luncheon, the restaurant owner can get his revenge upon the food minister.

The general public that has to stretch an income of 20 francs note over a whole week's luncheons is wasting little sympathy upon the hurried restaurant owners.

Germany will be ready for permanent peace if it has now assured itself that Nietzsche, Treitschke, Bernhardi and the other apostles of force were Germany's false prophets.

Oregon Boy Pulls Quite a Stunt, Gets French War Cross

BAKER, Nov. 12.—Chaflin P. Lee, a member of the 27th company sixth Regiment, U. S. Marine Corps, an Oregon boy, has been decorated with the Croix de Guerre, by the French government and received special citation and a medal of bravery from the U. S. government for conspicuous gallantry at Chateau Thierry. The young man was corporal of a machine gun company of the Marines, and is a well known Baker county boy. He has been rewarded by a commission as first lieutenant and assigned to his old company.

In describing the incident to his father, Lieutenant Lee simply said: "I guess I pulled off quite a stunt, Dad."

LEON TROTSKY AT FRONT

Russian Commissioner of War Urges Men to Fight On

MOSCOW, Nov. 15.—Leon Trotsky, the commissioner of war, has been at the Czechoslovak front personally addressing troops and endeavoring to encourage a more general movement against the white guards and Czechs. Trotsky has issued several mandates criticizing officers of the red army who have not resolutely opposed the Czechs and declaring that commanders who show cowardice will be instantly shot. His mandates say the soldiers and sailors of the labor and peasant army are not cowards and want to fight. Their retreats, he says, are due to cowardly and treacherous officers.

STOMACH TROUBLES

AN IRRITABLE, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach troubles by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Try them. They only cost a quarter.

ROAD PAVEMENT TO CEMETERY IS NOW CERTAINTY CLEMENCEAU WOULD HEAR GERMAN PLEA

Provision of the funds for the early completion of the paved road from the west end of Webb street to the entrance of Olive cemetery is now assured. H. J. Taylor and D. D. Phelps as representatives of the cemetery committee today are circulating a subscription list to raise $1000 toward the work and will have the sum signed up before night. At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Taylor said $700 had been signed up and there would be no trouble to get enough more to make up the $1000. The cost of paving the road, which is about a mile, will be $3000. One thousand of this amount was voted by the city council with the understanding that the county would appropriate a like amount for the work, which the county court did Wednesday, and $1000 be raised by public subscription. While the road to be paved leads from the city to the cemetery, it also compensation,
