WAR QUESTION GOVERNS SEAS

U. S. HAD DOUBLE VIEW ON FREEDOM

Problem of Financial Advantage vs. Victory.

By J. W. T. MASON, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Frankness belittles powers that have seaports. It will be difficult to secure because every nation with a powerful navy has one set of interests to serve when belligerent and another when neutral. The widest meaning of "freedom of the seas" is that all blockades shall be abolished so that neutrals shall not be held in any way from trading with belligerent powers that have seaports. If this principle had been enforced during the present war, America and the allies could not have held Germany from getting whatever food supplies she desired from South America or any other neutral by direct trade. A less inclusive meaning is that while the blockade of a belligerent is permissible, no interference shall be allowed with the ocean commerce of any country bordering on the belligerent nation. With this rule effective, America and the allies could not have prevented Scandinavia from acting as Germany's agent, importing for Germany's use whatever foodstuffs for the Teutons they could.

America Had View.

America had the unique experience of having been neutral and belligerent in the present war, considering both view points. As a neutral, the United States opposed any interference with the desires of American traders to sell products to Holland and Scandinavia, but, immediately after America became belligerent, public opinion would not have permitted its government recognizing freedom of the seas to the end that a neutral world could have fed Germany through Dutch and Scandinavian ports. Had this been done the war would not now be determined but would have been prolonged to the great destruction of America's young manhood and financial strength. If war is abolished, freedom of the seas will come automatically. The ultimate question is whether the financial advantage during a period while neutral outweigh the possible defeat when war comes.

HOUSEHOLD

MISCELLANEOUS RECIPES

Drop Doughnuts.
Drop doughnuts—Two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half cup of sugar, one-half cup milk, one egg. Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Mix into hot fat. This makes two dozen drop doughnuts.

Chocolate Potato Cake.
Chocolate Potato Cake—One-fourth cup butter or other fat; one-half cup sugar; three-fourths cup dry flaked potato; one egg; one-fourth cup milk; one-fourth teaspoonful salt; one square chocolate melted or grated; three teaspoonfuls baking powder; three-fourths cup white flour. Cream the butter, add the sugar gradually, then the well beaten egg, and warm potato. Beat well. Sift flour, salt and baking powder then add to the first mixture with sufficient milk to make a cake. Dough bakes about 25 minutes in a moderate oven.

Mepelite Fig Drops.
Mepelite fig drops—One pound of figs; one pint white syrup; one teaspoonful mepelite; one teaspoonful vinegar and water. Seed the figs and stuff with any nuts desired. Roll the syrup, vinegar and mepelite until it forms a little ball when dropped in cold water. Remove from the fire and cool slightly. Dip the stuffed figs in the syrup several times and lay on buttered plates to harden. Dates may be used in place of figs.

Creamed Codfish.—An occasional dish of well prepared codfish is most wholesome, and eaten with a baked potato and a green salad, a meal for an epicure is provided. To have the fish at its best, shred and let stand for a short time in water to cover. Let heat in the same water until the water looks slightly milky; then drain. Melt a tablespoon of butter substitute, add a tablespoon of flour and rub smooth with a little cold milk. Pour on gradually a cup of milk, stirring until well mixed. Fold in yolks of two eggs, well beaten, and stir until smooth and glossy. Add the fish to the hot sauce. (To heat the fish to the boiling point renders it tough and tasteless.)

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble, which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my trouble."

so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIS BOYD, 1221 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes these are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

PENDLETON MAN HAS NEW GEAR FOR FORDS

Charles Stanton, Pendleton man, is in the east arranging for the manufacture of an automobile attachment patented by him over a year ago. It is an extra transmission gear for Ford cars. It gives an intermediate and extra low speed making four speeds instead of the two speeds as the cars come from the factory.

Before Mr. Stanton departed, Lewis M. LaDow, 218 Beauregard street, made drawings and blue prints of the invention, and it is now brought out in such a way as to show the possibility of the practical working of the mechanism. It is a very simple arrangement of gears that looks good to auto mechanics who have examined it. Mr. Stanton expects to arrange for the manufacture of the new attachment in Cincinnati where he has been negotiating. He thinks he will be able to put it on the market at not to exceed $50, which is much less than any other attachment of like character now known.
