HE BROOKS NO LOSS

If this be all, what woe and woe of woe and woe and woe.
Has been the price of this poor show, upon life's changing stage?
If this, the play, be for a day, and then the curtain fall,
What grotesque jokes the jester, Hoax, has played upon us all!

The scene is laid and birth and death march hand in hand always.
A fee is asked of Man and Maid, while Fay, the piper, plays!
The aged go; the lights burn low; there is no curtain-call;
And none turn back along the track nor pass the switchman—Pall.

If this be all, what fares the plot, the price, the pain, the play?
Why such a plan, for mortal man for but one fleeting day?
Oh, that ye well, God broods us loss in his eternal scheme;
He'll lose no note of what he write in life's majestic theme.
—Grace E. Hall.

same is true of harbor patrolling.

The airplane has thoroughly proven its utility in war. It is but a matter of time until such machines will be in common use in civil life. The New York action is evidence this view is held in Gotham.

HAS THE SENATE BEEN CREELED?

RESIDENT WILSON has not yet expressed any views as to what he thinks should be done with the ex-kaiser. Neither has he announced whether or not he will eat frogs legs when he gets to France. As some of our rampant senators feared he is holding back the news and George Creel is no doubt at the bottom of the mischief. It is time for Johnson, Sherman, Reed et al to speak out in order that the nation may be saved? What has come over the vocal branch of our government? It has been several hours since any senator expressed fresh alarm over the President's behavior and the show is lagging.

CORDIALITY PAYS

THE comment is frequently made that Pendleton is cordial towards new people. The town is old but the spirit of the community is young. People here are eager for new opportunities when they seem of merit. New faces are welcome. There are no tightly drawn social lines; there is no blue book spirit. Wealth does not assure one distinction; to be poor is no crime. These conditions may be due to various causes. The fact Pendleton is quite a transportation point has something to do with it. Another cause may be found in the fact that few local people came here with any bullion in their trunks, consequently they do not require such assets from newcomers of the present day. But whatever the causes may be it is a fact that Pendleton is a sociable town, as compared with others, and it is equally true that a reputation for cordiality is a good thing in connection with community building. No one wants to live on an iceberg.

Germany inoculated Russia with the bolsheviki measles and now the epidemic is sweeping so strong towards Berlin that the new government has a serious problem in handling it. It is another illustration of the old saying that it is hard to play with fire without getting burned.

Portland is going to hold the rose festival next spring as in pre war days. It is a good decision, the rose festival is an asset to the entire northwest.

"What is this league of nations idea; I'm agin' it!" is the attitude of one class of Americans.

Have you tried one lately?

TODAY many an inveterate smoker, realizing that his nerves are entitled to greater consideration, is turning to mild Robert Burns.

Perhaps you, too, have said to yourself, from time to time, "I must stop smoking these oily duffers that scare away sweet sleep."

Don't deliberate any longer! Step into the first good cigar store you pass and ask the man behind the counter to page Robert Burns.
