CLAY R. CATES WANTS TO STAY IN NAVY.

Clay R. Cates, Ematilla county boy in the navy, in a letter to Mr. R. Cheesman, expressed a desire to stay in the service until "freedom" all the boys home from France. He is in the navy and has made six trips to Europe. The Round-Up cards and Happy Canyon bills bring up memories of former Round-Ups. The letter, written from Newport News, Va., December 5, follows:

Your letter reached me yesterday and to say I was glad to receive it is putting it too mildly.

I have often thought of Pendleton and the Round-Up and wished I could be there. The sheet of bills of Happy Canyon and the past cards took me back to memories of former Round-Ups. You see, this is the first year I have missed it, and by "love" I would have been there this year if I could have obtained a furlough long enough to reach there.

I can't thank you enough for your interest in me and the way all of you have backed me up through the war. It was the people with their loyal spirit and support that made the victory possible.

I have made six trips across and will leave on another in a few days. I like the service very well and could not have got into anything that would have suited me better.

There are some of the navy boys receiving discharges now but I want to stay until we get them all home. I want to finish up the job, to speak some of the soldiers have sacrificed so much more than we that I think I owe my Uncle Sammy a few more months of my services.

I will be glad to hear from you and every one in Pendleton any time and would feel grateful for letters.

Thanking you again for your kind remembrance of me, I am

Your friend,
CLAY R. CATES,
U. S. Pastore, Care P. M. New York.

HAROLD COCHRAN IS A "GOB."

Harold Cochran, a former employee of the First National Bank of Pendleton, who is seeing service on a submarine chaser, No. 181, under date of November 15, writes an interesting letter to Cashier D. A. Hartman. He has been in Ireland and England for three months and before going there was for a short time at the Azores and in France. He mentions receiving a letter from Jim Bowler and seeing Harold Brock. The latter is on submarine chaser No. 82. He also tells of having had much pleasure in visiting old forts and historical places in Ireland.

"The Gobs" in the Saturday Evening Post, October 5, he says, was written where he is stationed. The letter closes with the request that he be mailed some pictures of the Round-Up. He wants to show them to some of the "gobs from Noo Yawk."

The Christmas letter now on the way from the Patriotic Service league will just fill the bill for Mr. Cochran.

The Farmer Receives More Than Five Thousand Dollars a Minute From Swift & Company

This amount is paid to the farmer for live stock, by Swift & Company alone, during the trading hours of every business day.

All this money is paid to the farmer through the open market in competition with large and small packers, shippers, speculators and dealers.

The farmer, feeder, or shipper receives every cent of this money ($300,000 an hour, nearly $2,000,000 a day, $11,500,000 a week) in cash, on the spot, as soon as the stock he has just sold is weighed up.

Some of the money paid to the farmer during a single day comes back to the company in a month from sale of products; much does not come back for sixty or ninety days or more. But the next day Swift & Company, to meet the demands made by its customers, must pay out another $2,000,000 or so, and at the present high price levels keeps over $250,000,000 continuously tied up in goods on the way to market and in bills owed to the company.

This gives an idea of the volume of the Swift & Company business and the requirements of financing it. Only by doing a large business can this company turn live stock into meat and by-products at the lowest possible cost, prevent waste, operate refrigerator cars, distribute to retailers in all parts of the country—and be recompensed with a profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to have any noticeable effect on the price of meat or live stock.

Mike laughed at the Judge for chewing Gravely.

The Judge came right back at Mike with a friendly chew—just a couple of little squares off his plug of Real Gravely.
Mike found that the chew stayed with him for a long while, and the more he chewed the better it talked.

"There's the real tobacco satisfaction," says the Judge: "and it costs nothing extra to chew this class of plug."
It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.

MORE RADICAL GOVERNMENT IS THOUGHT SURE

GERMANY A NATION WITHOUT A HEAD

Lack of Complete Anarchy Due to Character and Fear.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The spread of disorder in Germany is beginning to menace the stability of the present combination of moderate socialists. Bolshevism is not threatened, but a more radical policy on the part of the government is certain to result eventually. The Ebert-Haase group, now theoretically controlling Germany, has in practice little power, accomplishing practically nothing in the way of economic reform. Working on German industries, they are negotiating with employers who make promises one day and break them the next. Their present status cannot be improved until the constituent assembly determines Germany's future form of government.

No Head.
Germany is now a nation without a head and is in a condition of formal anarchy. That the usual anarchic conflicts do not prevail is due to an innate sense of obedience drilled for many generations into the German character, and also the fear that utter destruction might be Germany's lot if Russian conditions were duplicated. If the Germans withstand the Spartacus argument, present indications are that a moderate reform administration will be established after the constituent assembly meets.
