Will Return Here.
J. C. Hawkins, who has been attending officers training school at Camp Taylor, Kentucky, was honorably discharged November 27 and will return to Pendleton on Sunday. He has been visiting for the past week with his parents at Sayre, Oklahoma.

Loose Wife and Baby.
Ed Crow, a farmer of the reservation, lost both his wife and baby within the past two weeks. Mrs. Crow died recently of Spanish influenza, while the five months old daughter of Mr. Crow died last night. The body of the child is at Brown's undertaking parlors awaiting funeral arrangements.

Miss Hildenstein Ill.
Miss Elizabeth Hildenstein of the sophomore class of the Pendleton high school is reported to be ill at her home with influenza.

A. H. Brown Here.
A. H. Brown, of Portland, representing the Oakland automobile company, is in Pendleton for a few days. Mr. Brown is at the Leuer auto company while in the city.

Students Greet Brown.
The students of the high school met Clell Brown at the station this morning in the formation of two military companies, one of boys and one of girls. Edwin Kirtley was in charge of these companies and was helped by a number of the boys and girls of the school. Other prominent students arranged for and hauled the open carriage in which the veteran rode.

Holidays December 21-January 6.
Pendleton people who are attending the University of Oregon will, with other students at the university, have from December 21 to January 6 for Christmas holidays. Registration for next term's courses is scheduled for Thursday, December 17, for all students, while new students must be at the university Friday, January 3.

Christmas Boxes Wanted.
Christmas boxes for soldiers at Camp Lewis are being solicited from the public by the Y. M. C. A. The association has sent out circular letters asking churches, Sunday schools, fraternal organizations and other societies to prepare boxes containing candy, cake, nuts and send them to the army Y. M. C. A. at Camp Lewis.

Miss Todd in Home Service.

Master Thomas Bishop is three years old on Friday, the thirteenth. To be three years old is an event in itself but when one is three years old on Friday the thirteenth, one must celebrate. Accordingly, Master Bishop's birthday this afternoon, at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, and while the affair is simple and informal, it is a truly delightful one.

Was Ready to Go Across.
George Goyl, 206 W. Mrs. W. S. Yates of this city, arrived in Pendleton Wednesday, having received an honorable discharge from Company C, 224 regiment. Goyl enlisted in Seattle and spent some time in training there before going to Camp Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Goyl, a corporal in his company, was drifting for the last time before going overseas when news of the signing of the armistice came.

Official Government Pictures.
A representative of the United States government committee on public information, Frank Coffinberry, was here yesterday arranging for the hanging here in the near future of the pictures depicting the things done by the American soldiers in France. There are over 5000 feet of film, every foot of which was taken by official American photographers showing what was actually done by the Americans in putting over the war.

Former Pendleton Man Dies.
Albert E. Elder, aged 42, formerly of Pendleton, now of Klamath Falls, died at his home yesterday of Spanish influenza. He did not regain consciousness long enough to know of the death of his wife, Mrs. Elder, a few days ago. Mr. Elder has been acting as attorney for the Klamath Falls Water Users' association for the past seven years. He is survived by two children, John, aged 5, and Mary, aged two, and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Duncan of Iowa.

Receives Bad News.
C. Stadfeld, Jr., dry goods man and window trimmer at Sayre's, left today for Dayton, Washington, in response to a telegram announcing the death of his father, C. Stadfeld, Sr. Mr. Stadfeld's family left for Dayton a few days ago. This is the second bad news Mr. Stadfeld received this week, for he was recently notified that his brother, Joe Stadfeld, was wounded while in France by the bursting of a 10 inch shell that hit him and the rest of his gun crew several feet off the earth. Stadfeld is with the 38th division.

Will Receive Allowments.
Unistilla county people who have not yet received their allotments will receive them not later than December 18, announces the Home Service section of the Red Cross here. Following is the telegram received at the local office: "It is positively stated by the Bureau that checks completing allotment and allowance payments for September and October, 1918, will be mailed by the Bureau by the evening of December 13." This will insure the arrival of the allotments here by December 18.

Decree in Divorce Case.
A decree has been issued by Judge G. W. Phelps in the suit of J. E. Bean vs. Nellie W. Bean granting the plaintiff divorce. The plaintiff is given custody of their minor daughter Eleanor Ione.

Boy Runaway Found.
Sheriff T. D. Taylor and Deputy Jake Marin yesterday found Leo Sparrow, an 11 year old boy, working on a ranch on Butter Creek where he had been working for two weeks. The boy is an escapee from the state training school at Chehalis, Wash.

Election To Be Held.
Ten representatives from Pendleton to the Ematilla County Red Cross are to be elected next Wednesday at a meeting of the members of the Red Cross from the Pendleton vicinity to be held at the County Library at 7:40 p. m. The meeting is called by order of Chairman W. L. Thompson.

R. W. Ritter Due Thursday.
R. W. Ritter is due to arrive in Pendleton next Thursday at noon. Mr. Ritter is a past exalted ruler of Pendleton Elks lodge and already plans are being made for a roving meeting of the lodge that evening at which Mr. Ritter will be the honor guest.

Was in Air Service.
Roy Baker, an instructor in the air service, visited in Pendleton today with W. W. Green, county school superintendent. Mr. Baker is returning to Monmouth where he was an instructor in the normal school before entering the army. He has just received his discharge.

Charles Campbell Dies.
Charles Campbell, Walla Walla resident and nephew of Dr. W. H. Campbell and of the late Thomas Campbell died today at Walla Walla, according to news received here. He was 25 years of age and is survived by a wife and two children, a mother, who lives in Portland and three sisters, Grace of Portland, Harriet of Los Angeles and Mrs. Elmer Yates of Seattle. All of the family lived in this county at one time.

W. A. Kearns Returns.
W. A. Kearns, who has been in Canada as a member of the Royal Flying Corps, returned today to Pendleton and will resume his duties in the office of H. W. Collins, on Court street. He has been acting as a pilot at the aviation school and expected twice to go across when the corps was quarantined.

Six Grades in Membership.
There will be six grades of membership in the Christmas Roll Call, Red Cross drive, which begins December 14 as follows: Annual member, $1; subscribing member, annual, $2; contributing member, annual, $5; sustaining member, annual, $10; life member, one payment, $25; Patron member, one payment, $100. Any of these memberships, with the exception of the first, include annual subscription to the American Red Cross magazine. It is not the intention of the Red Cross to see how much money can be raised, rather it is the intention to have every adult in the country a member.

Certificates for Returning Soldiers.
If the plan of Mayor Vaughan is adopted every Pendleton man returning from service in the army will be given a beautiful certificate of appreciation, signed by the mayor and recorder, as an expression of the appreciation of the citizens of Pendleton for their service to their country in the war. The number of these certificates to be given by the city will probably exceed 500.

Mr. McNary is Appointed.
SALEM, Ore., Dec. 13.—Governor Withycombe today appointed Charles L. McNary to serve as United States senator until March 4, when he will again be sworn in for the six year term.
