A Great Overcoat Show

It isn't that we have so huge a stock of fine overcoats; the stock's big enough. But if you're going to buy an overcoat, you don't care how many hundreds we have, if we have just the one you want.

You may want to look through a lot of them, and choose; it's nice to have plenty to choose from. We'll show you some wonderful overcoats; imported and American fabrics; all-wool strictly. They're

Crombie's From Scotland

The material, made by J. J. Crombie, Ltd., of Aberdeen, Scotland, is world famous. With their silk quilted yokes, to keep the back and chest warm, and their inside windshield sleeves, these coats are a comfort and a joy to motorists, and other men outdoors in cold weather,.... $25.00 to $55.00

Blanket "Easy-slip-ons"

The convenience and usefulness of this overcoat accounts for its great success. It is made with a convertible collar to hug the neck in cold weather—both single and double breasted styles in a wide range of blanket fabrics that look well and wear even better. These are very good values. $20.00 to $50.00

Chesterfield Dress Overcoats

Overcoats that are stylish and dignified—the kind that are dressy on any occasion. This single breasted overcoat has long been the favorite of conservative business men. It is made in a wide range of fabrics to suit every taste and purse, $25.00 to $45.00.

TEA APRONS

Another good gift for the housewife; pretty little affairs trimmed with lace and embroidery. Each 55c to $1.50
