

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

As a surprise and a farewell compliment to Francis Rose, who is soon to leave for Portland, a group of his friends called last night at the Rose home in Hamilton Court and spent a merry evening. Dancing and music formed diversions of the earlier hours and the mother of the guest of honor, Mrs. Walter Rose, later served a dainty supper. The party of friends to plan the surprise included Miss Ruth Enzer, Miss Edna Murphy, Miss Genevieve Phelps, Miss Marquerite Humphrey, Miss Marie Fletcher, Miss Mary Clarke, Miss Alberta McMonte, Claud Snow, Elvin Seibert, Ed McCook, John Simpson and Kenneth Tullock.

Mrs. Rose and her son plan to leave Sunday morning to John Mr. Rose who left a fortnight ago for Portland.

An informal neighborhood club has been formed by a small group of North Side folk who plan to meet around the card tables each fortnight, Monday evenings having been selected for the occasions. Mr. and Mrs. George D. Haslett were hosts this week at their home on Perkins avenue, and according to the plan of the club, four tables were in play. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenich were additional guests at Monday evening's meeting. The club is organized in a most informal way and no prizes are to be given. Mr. and Mrs. Haslett served a charmingly appointed supper at the conclusion of the play.

The personnel of the club includes besides Mr. and Mrs. Haslett, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tulloch, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morse, Mr. and Mrs. R. Simis, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Horne, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Snow.

Members of the choir of the church of the Redeemer are to meet at the church this evening for practice.

Members of the Thursday Afternoon Club are to be guests tomorrow of Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. R. L. Burroughs. They are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. Thompson.

Yesterday's honor roll of workers for the garment making department of the Red Cross include A. H. Cox, Mrs. T. J. Tweedy, Mrs. Ed Nelson, Mrs. K. G. Warner, Mrs. M. O. La Rue, Mrs. Ida Fowler, Mrs. Overturf, Mrs. N. H. McFarland, Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. Charles Norris and Mrs. E. E. Cleaver.

The birthday anniversary of Miss Jean Jacobs was last evening made the occasion of a charming courtesy on the part of Mrs. J. T. Richardson who asked a small group of friends to a 5:30 o'clock dinner, completely surprising the honor guest. The affair also afforded the guests the pleasure of meeting Sergeant Harley Richardson, the hostess' son, who is home from Texas for the holidays. Unique little mirrors outlined by "snow," bade the guests remain where they found their "faces" at a beautifully appointed table, and gaily colored bits and birthday candles lent their charm, while music willed the later hours of the evening.

A 7 o'clock wedding last evening united Mrs. Meralda Anne Means and Thomas Asburg Robinson, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, 400 west Alta street, with Rev. W. H. Cox officiating. The bride chose a becoming gown of blue silk. Twenty guests were in attendance and a buffet supper followed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will make their home in Pendleton.

NOT JUST TO ENFORCE PEACE.

PARIS, Dec. 18—"I am not only in favor of a league of nations, but believe the formation of such a league is absolutely indispensable to the maintenance of peace." President Wilson today declared, in denying the authenticity of a dispatch an American newspaper published, declaring he approved the plan of a league to enforce peace. He added that the "particular plan of the league to enforce peace was never directly or indirectly endorsed by me."

Salem Kiddies Look For Dad's Homecoming

SALEM, Dec. 18.—Speaking of peace and homecomings—who isn't?—a group of folk were much amused the other day by a quaint true story told them which had much of pathos in it, as well as amusement. You know of course, that the husbands of two of Salem's most charming young matrons heard the call of war simultaneously and being more patriotic than some young husbands and fathers promptly answered: "Here am I; take me!"

The wives with their children went home to live with their parents, and once again the two with their happy little families around them dwelt together under the same vine and fig tree. (This is figuratively speaking, of course, as the residences, while boasting of many rare shrubs and flowers, really have no vine or fig tree about them.)

Joyousness of course knew no bounds in these households when peace was declared, and after the news had been received but a few minutes the little daughter of the lieutenant and the little daughter of the other officer were discovered in converse on the lawn of one of the grandfathers' home.

"Do you remember that man around our place I used to call 'Daddy'?" asked the daughter of the lieutenant. "Well, he's coming back here again!"

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR, SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

A SMALL BOTTLE DESTROYS DANDRUFF AND DOUBLES BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully dry it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and you have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little danderine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson and Mrs. E. W. McComas, well known matrons of Pendleton, are in the city on a visit, and are at the Hotel Portland, Oregonian.

What Is The Reason?

THE following letter explains the reason why Foley Kidney Pills have such a widespread and constantly increasing sale. It is written by Mrs. Chas. Gray, 270 Sixth St., Detroit, Mich.:

"I must say I have gotten such good results from Foley Kidney Pills that I can sleep much better and the pain in my back and sides is a good lot better. I have never had the results from other medicines that I have gotten from Foley Kidney Pills."

Thousands of letters like the above have been received by Foley and Co. These letters tell how the writers have been benefited and helped to health. They explain the ever-growing demand for

Foley Kidney Pills

The kidneys are blood filters that pick out from the blood certain waste products which would act as poisons, together with enough water to dissolve them and wash them out of the body. When the kidneys are out of order, these impurities are not removed from the blood and they remain to poison the system, causing backache, swollen or stiff joints, rheumatic pains and even more serious complaints. Minor symptoms of kidney trouble are puffiness under eyes, floating specks, dry mouth, biliousness, weakness, and pale, waxy dry skin. When the kidneys give any indication of weakness or derangement, they should receive aid at once.

Foley Kidney Pills strengthen and invigorate weak, inactive sluggish kidneys. When the kidneys and bladder properly perform their functions, poisonous waste is removed from the system and sound, good health naturally follows.
