BIG STEAMSHIP LINES, AIR SERVICE

Many Hours Could Be Cut Off Schedule to New York by Flying Part Way

LONDON, Dec. 31.—Indications that airplanes are to play an important part in transatlantic competition with the resumption of normal conditions by the informal consideration among some shipping men here as to the possible use of airplanes to carry mails and passengers from the principal ports to London.

While some conservative shipping men have not given their entire support to the idea, The World correspondent learns that those who favor the possible development of aerial traffic in the future adhere to the belief that many hours may be topped off steamship schedules with the co-operation of air forces.

The chief point of competition in transatlantic traffic will be to cut down the time between London and New York. It is argued by air enthusiasts that business magnates will be able to cut off many hours by taking an airplane from Plymouth to London—in fact, cutting in half the former express train schedule between Plymouth and London. It is argued also that by the payment of additional postage fee certain classes of letters will reach their destination many hours sooner.

Such an airplane service is believed possible eight months in the year. Shipping men believe that the Germans intend using airplanes in connection with transatlantic competition in the future.

POLAND SEEKS BAR ON PRUSSIAN VOTE

ZURICH, Dec. 31.—Polish government has decided to issue an ultimatum to Germany demanding revocation of the prohibition against East Prussia's participating in the elections for the Polish national assembly, according to dispatches received here today.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no hawking, snuffing, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.

RETURN OF DECOLLETE

With the passing of war's shadows the formal evening gown comes out of retirement and the full decollete is once more in high favor. For almost two full seasons evening frocks have displayed some form of sleeve over the upper arm, though only a wisp of chiffon or lace, and bodices were tall or lace veiled discreetly. Jewels, and elaborate ornaments were taboo.

Now our national days of concern for our armies are past and women are blossoming out again in their loveliest gowns.

New evening gown of gold-colored baronet satin and gold silk gauze hanging from the shoulders. This is one of the new Moyer-gowns, a straight band around the bodice, and a close, straight-hanging skirt.

KING REVISED PLAN TO HUMBLE HAIG

LONDON, Dec. 30.—This week's Saturday Review without mentioning the king's name, intimates that his majesty vetoed plans for having Field Marshal Haig here when Field Marshal Foch and Premier Clemenceau recently attended the inter-allied conference, saying:

"The genuine warmth of Haig's greeting must have made him smile inwardly at the proposal made to him a few weeks ago. Field Marshal Haig, commander in chief of the British army, was invited by telegram to drive in the fourth carriage of the Foch procession behind Barons Orlando and Sonnino.

FEWER OF OUR BOYS AT FRONT SICK THAN IN PEACE TIME

COBLENZ, Dec. 20.—The percentage of sickness among the American troops of occupation is unusually low, according to the estimates of the 2d army medical officers. The number of cases in the eight evacuation hospitals within the occupied area is about 4,000, most of them being influenza.

Figuring the approximate number of occupying troops at 300,000, the sickness amounts to less than 1 1/2 per cent. In peace time the sickness among soldiers averages from 2 to 3 per cent.

The excellent condition of the men is due partly to good billets. The 2d army has five modern hospitals in Coblenz and two at Treves and one at Mayen.

Carranza's Power Extended

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 31.—Extraordinary powers in financial matters have been extended to President Carranza by the chamber of deputies.

This action was taken after the president had sent a message to the chamber outlining the necessity for such powers.

Under the new authority granted President Carranza is expected soon to issue decrees removing until June 30, 1919, import duties on foodstuffs, articles of primary necessity to the country and on agricultural implements and irrigation machinery. It is expected that duties on automobiles will be removed for a period of three months.

Enlistments to Be Resumed

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—Immediate legislation authorizing resumption of voluntary enlistment in the army and the repeal of provisions of the selective service act limiting enlistments to "the period of the war" was urged in a letter to Chief of Staff by the House Military Committee, without the legislation, Secretary Baker said, the army after the proclamation of peace would not have sufficient forces to perform essential military duties, including the policing of the Mexican border.

A bill embodying the desired legislation is to be introduced tomorrow.

BRAVEST POLICEMAN CHOSEN

Thomas J. Dohney Awarded Harrison Medal for Thrilling Arrest

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—When Policeman Thomas J. Dohney returns to duty next week he will bring back a first class set of discharge papers from the United States navy intelligence bureau and a shiny gold medal. The papers will bear witness to his faithful work for the government. The gold badge will be the Carter H. Harrison medal awarded for the bravest act done by any policeman.

This act was the arrest of four men whom he caught leaving a house they had robbed February 8, 1917. Although the men were armed, Dohney got the drop on them and compelled them to throw their weapons into the snow. He called a passing school boy to recover the revolvers for him and then sent him to telephone for a patrol wagon. All four men were safely landed and the plunder was recovered.

WANT HONORS FOR CROWDER

Taft and Members of Congress Say He Has Earned Recognition. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—

Former President Taft struck a responsive chord among members of congress today in voicing regret over the failure of the war department to include Gen Enoch H. Crowder, judge advocate general in charge of the draft during the war as one of the general officers entitled to special reward from congress. In effect Mr. Taft makes it clear that without the services of General Crowder, Pershing, Bullard and Liggett, the field officers named for promotion by congress to be "generals for life," could not have had an army with which to make distinction in active service.

On the other hand Mr. Taft also points out that to reward General March and General Bliss, the services of both of whom was largely in staff work, to the exclusion of General Crowder, would be even more of an injustice.

It is the struggle to keep up appearances that keeps some persons down.

"Always at your service"

If a "Want Ad" Can Do It for You, Don't Try to "Save the Expense"

WHEN YOU have use for a telephone, you use it—counting the cost as reasonable, almost trivial, perhaps, for the service rendered. You thus take the "short cut" to the result you want to secure.

When you have business that can be consummated BEST through using classified advertising, USE IT!

For the usual "want ad tasks" are such as can be accomplished satisfactorily ONLY through want advertising.

If you are harrowed by anxiety about the tenantless property, a "campaign of classified advertising" is the only BUSINESS-LIKE SOLUTION OF THE MATTER. This "campaign" may not need to extend beyond a few consecutive insertions of your "To Let" ad—and the expense of securing a tenant, and restoring the EARNING POWER OF YOUR PROPERTY, May be almost nominal.

IF THE FUTURE SEEMS ALL ASKEW TO YOUR VISION BECAUSE YOU ARE OUT OF WORK, A "WANT AD CAMPAIGN" BECOMES A "REAL BUSINESS PROPOSITION" TO YOU—ONE THAT SHOULD BE TAKEN UP WITHOUT AN HOUR OF DELAY.

If you have property to sell, and the "TIME ELEMENT" is important, a real estate advertising campaign is, probably, the most urgent business plan you have before you today. A series of "ads," published consecutively UNTIL THE PROPERTY IS SOLD, may involve so little expense, measured by the result, that it will hardly "count" at all!

IF YOU GET, FROM "WANT ADVERTISING," EVERY VARIETY OF SERVICE IT CAN RENDER YOU, YOU'LL FIND LIFE A GREAT DEAL SIMPLER AND EASIER.

The rates are shown in this advertisement. It's easy to write the ad just with the facts. Try an East Oregonian want ad today and start getting results. Telephone 1.

Your want ad in the East Oregonian will reach more readers than if placed in any newspaper in Oregon, east of Portland.
