Rain Takes Snow at Ukiah, Leaving Mud

(East Oregonian Special.)

UKIAH, Jan. 21.—A hard wind at most reaching the velocity of a gale began blowing Tuesday night, which lasted all day Wednesday and Wednesday night, and Thursday morning rain began falling, accompanied by a strong chinook wind, which has taken off all the snow in the valley and now we are in the mud, for the time being. It has been a number of years since Camas Prairie has had a winter like this.

Mrs. Warren Gibbs of Portland arrived Tuesday evening for an extended visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Gibbs expects to be here the first of next month.

Frank Chamberlain and L. R. Lawrence left for Pendleton Thursday morning, returning Friday.

Richard and Crista Allen of Long

Creek were guests at the Ukiah hotel Wednesday night, en route to Pendleton.

Albert Settle of Long Creek, who has been at Camp Lewis, has received his discharge and was a guest at the Ukiah hotel Tuesday night on his return home.

Fred Grooms left Tuesday morning for Grant county on a business trip, expecting to be gone several days.

J. D. Kirk received a telegram Friday morning from his son, Walter Kirk, who has been in France, saying he had landed safely in New York and would be sent to Camp Lewis at once to be mustered out.

Earl Martin, wife and two children, who have been ill for the last ten days are all able to be up and around.

Mrs. J. D. Kirk will leave in a few days for Racine, Wisconsin, to visit with her mother for an indefinite time.

Elmer Hinton has been absent from school for a few days on account of illness.

Grace Gibbs, who has been ill with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Vestil Jones and son, and Charley Metteer, mother and son, were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Shipp and daughter, leave soon for Portland for an extended visit with her parents.

John Lorenz was a Ukiah visitor Friday.

Gordon Mettle and Frank Shipp are sawing wood for Mosie Brothers.

Mrs. E. B. Gamboa of Portland, came in Friday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. J. H. Mettle and Miss Sarah Mosie.

Mrs. Hector of Ritter, is ill at the Ukiah hotel and Dr. De Vaul was sent for Friday.

W. H. Kiser of Sand Hollow was in town Friday.

John T. Griswold was out from Pendleton Saturday, visiting his parents.

Mrs. Francis Caff of Milton, is a guest of Mrs. D. D. Dale this week.

H. E. Rose was a Walla Walla visitor Saturday.

Earl Ghornaky is home from Gulfport, Miss.

Railway Operation to Close

PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—Operation of the Pacific & Eastern Railway will cease January 30, at 6 p. m., in accordance with an order issued by Judge W. H. Weston yesterday in federal court. No trains will be operated after that time and no business will be done other than that necessary to closing up the affairs of the company and care of the property during the receivership and foreclosure process. Notice to this effect will be posted today at Medford, Butte Falls and stations along the line of the short railway.

Gurdane Farmers Are Pleased Over Rains

(East Oregonian Special.)

GURDANE, Jan. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. French took their son Jesse to Pendleton last week for medical treatment. Jesse has not been well for years and last winter was taken to the doctor and seemed to be improving, but he has been gradually growing worse since cold weather. Mr. and Mrs. French think of going back east, hoping the change in climate will benefit him some.

Orville Corley, who has been on the sick list is better at present.

Chas. J. and Chew came down from the mill the middle of the week as the hard rain prevented them from working, but went back the last of the week.

Mrs. Day Wymore is cooking at the mill while Dave is working there.

Mrs. Ray Montgomery received word that her brother Clay had landed
