EAST OREGONIAN SPECIAL NEWS OF UMATILLA CO.

Weston Ministers Organize Association

(East Oregonian Special.) WESTON, Jan. 22.—A Ministerial Association has been organized by the various churches of Weston with the following members: Rev. W. R. Storms, Rev. John Bonewitz, Rev. S. E. Powell, Rev. E. F. Wriggle and Laymen J. R. Adkins, John Beamer, J. W. Porter, G. W. Stagg and R. C. Beamer. Officers elected were W. R. Storms, president; S. E. Powell, vice president; E. F. Wriggle, secretary and treasurer.

S. L. Key was a visitor in Weston several days last week from Umatilla. Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, of Indian Valley, are visiting old time friends and scenes in Weston. They were residents of Weston away back in stage coach days.

Miss Ruby Price is the only influenza patient in the Weston vicinity. She is getting along nicely at their home a couple of miles north of town. According to the latest advices Sunday evening school will open in regular form Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

The directors of the Weston Mercantile company, at a meeting held last week, declared a dividend of 12 per cent as a result of last year's business. The capital stock was authorized increased from twenty thousand to thirty thousand.

George Schintzer has returned to his work at Wilkeson, Washington, after laying up in Weston for about a month with a crippled hand.

Jimmie Liouallen was in Walla Walla on Monday.

Fred Greer has gone back to Spokane to resume his studies in a gas engine school.

Frank Hilderbrand was a Walla Walla visitor on Monday.

Lyle Webb was up from Pendleton Tuesday where he is staying while receiving treatment for a crippled hand.

Charles Phipps was a Weston visitor from Pendleton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Webb has gone to Seattle to attend a daughter-in-law who is seriously sick.

R. G. Saling returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks stay in Portland. He was accompanied by his daughter Lois and his mother who have been spending a couple of months in the metropolis.

The continued chinook winds have melted all of the snow in this vicinity and taken frost out of the ground, and it is sure now a muddy country that we live in.

Pilot Rock People See Stubblefield Fire at Pilot Rock

PILOT ROCK, Jan. 22.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—The big stubblefield fire six miles from Helix Saturday evening was very plainly seen at Pilot Rock and appeared so near that some were of the opinion that it was the Jaques ranch home above the Jensen ranch.

Little Miss Gretchen Shock has been domiciled at the Carl Jensen home while her mother, Mrs. Julia Shock, who volunteered as a nurse to the sick of Pilot Rock during the recent epidemic, has been so engaged.

Miss Flora Housel, assistant principal of Union High School No. 2 at Pilot Rock is making her home with Mrs. Caroline Gill, while her mother is visiting in Idaho.

The many friends of Elbert Casteel will be pleased to know that he has so far recovered from the ravages of influenza as to be removed the first of the week to his home here.

Arthur Bond is again at his bench in the work room of the Bond Auto company garage in the city after a siege of influenza. Mr. Bond appears to have been benefited by his recent experience as he is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Knotts and family spent Sunday in Pilot Rock.

Mrs. Grace Macomber, who assisted in caring for the Bickfords during their recent illness, contracted the disease herself as a consequence was at the Grace hospital for several days has been removed to her home.

Miss Alta Boylen, who assisted with the nursing of the many flu cases here during the past two weeks, is taking a much needed rest at her ranch near Pilot Rock.

Among those who have very kindly volunteered their services in helping in many ways in combating the great epidemic here is Harley B. Rinderman, who has worked early and late in many capacities, with no thought of reward. That kind of citizens are worth 100 cents on the dollar to a community and he hereby tendered him. In this connection may also be mentioned the names of Carl Knotts, principal-elect of the Pilot Rock public schools, W. P. Poisson of the J. E. Smith Livestock Co. ranch, who have been acting in the capacity of nurses.

L. E. Roy, prominent and substantial citizen of this place was at the county seat on business Monday, returning Tuesday.

Julius Jaques has once more resumed his duties as "pilot" on the Pilot Rock-Union stage.

All the Blavic peoples seem self-terrified on self-determination.

GENERAL EDWARDS DECORATED HERO OF THE ARGONNE.

Lieut. Col. Charles Whittlesey and his men, surrounded by Germans in the Argonne forest, held out for five days without receiving food or ammunition, refused to surrender to the Huns and were rescued only after 75 per cent of the command had been killed. General Edwards is here seen pinning the Congressional Medal of Honor on the breast of Whittlesey.

BETTER AND SOFTER LIGHT

is assured by the use of some of these beautiful fixtures of ours. They give a light that illuminates the room perfectly, but that does not tire or strain the eyes. They are not expensive considering their extra efficiency and extra beauty. Why not at least see them?

DO YOU KNOW

That the Weston Country offers exceptional opportunities to the man who wants to engage in intensive and diversified farming? A few acres here will make any rustic a good living and leave a good margin for his bank account.

It is the only locality in the county where you can produce two good crops of alfalfa per year without irrigation, and just think of getting from 600 to 800 lbs. of beans per acre on your summer fallow and 40 to 60 bu. of wheat or barley on same land the next year.

Weston strawberries, cherries and other small fruits yield heavily and are unsurpassed in quality.

We sold two nice tracts to Pendleton people on first visit. They know a good thing when they see it. We have a few select tracts from 10 to 80 acres at right prices. Get busy while the getting is good.

Write us for particulars regarding the home you want.

FIRE STARTS FROM DEFECTIVE FLUE

(East Oregonian Special.) ATHENA, Jan. 22.—A fire yesterday morning, caused by a defective flue in the attic of the house belonging to Mrs. Lisle Wilmot who is at present in California, damaged the roof and attic to some extent. Mr. and Mrs. Beckham, who occupy the house, fought the fire for a while but it gained too much headway and the fire department was called out and soon had it under control before the furniture was damaged.

Mrs. Naomi Dickenson is spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Chandler, in Sand Hollow near Helix.

Omar Stephens returned Monday morning from Umatilla where he went to see his brother, Jeff Stephens who was critically ill with influenza last week, but is much better this week.

The weather the past week has been very warm with much rain and wind, a very wet snow having fallen Monday, but it all gone now, leaving the roads in a very muddy condition.

Miss Edna McAlexander returned to her studies at Columbia College after a few weeks' sojournment at her home in this city. Her sister Velma, accompanied her and will stay a few days until school opens here next Monday.
