

SATURDAY NIGHT SET FOR LIFTING OF INFLUENZA BAN IN PENDLETON; MAYOR REAPPOINTS CITY ATTORNEY, SUPPORT OF POLICE COMMITTEE FAILS TO WIN COUNCIL TO REELECTION OF CHIEF, VOTE 4 TO 3, ONE ABSENT

MAYOR HOLDS LID; NO DANCES

Vaughan Given Authority to Close Town or Any Part Without Calling Meeting.

SCHOOL TO OPEN ON NEXT MONDAY

Dances Remain Taboo, but Picture Theatres Will Reopen.

The mayor's official proclamation, issued late this afternoon, says: "Therefore, by authority in me vested, I do hereby order and direct that all schools, churches, Christian Science organizations, religious associations, lodges, pool halls, bowling alleys, picture shows, banks, stores, opera houses, libraries, barber shops, restaurants, eating houses, salarages and other places of business and of religious worship in The City of Pendleton, from and after the hour of five o'clock p. m. on the 1st day of February, 1919, be and they are hereby permitted to resume business and conduct said institutions and religious worship on the same basis as prior to the issuing of the influenza ban, and all restrictions thereon are hereby removed, but dance halls, public and private dances, social gatherings, gymnasiums and athletic associations are required to observe the rules and regulations heretofore established and to obey all the provisions of the ordinances of the city relating thereto until further order."

Sunday morning, February 2, has been set by Mayor Vaughan as the day for the lifting of the influenza ban in Pendleton. According to the mayor the ban will be lifted permitting churches to hold meetings without restrictions; schools will be opened in full Monday; all influenza restrictions which have been in force for business houses, cigar stores and pool rooms, will be removed; picture shows will be allowed to resume, with an admonition against allowing excessive crowding. The restrictions against dances, however, will be continued for a time. This will be the substance of the mayor's proclamation to be issued today.

Mayor Given Authority. At the meeting of the city council last night the mayor was given authority to suspend operation of any part of the influenza ordinance that he deems advisable. At the same time he is given power to declare quarantine or to close the town or any part as seems best in his opinion to safeguard the health of the city.

The purpose of the new ordinance is to permit the lifting of the ban without the calling of a meeting of the council, and to allow the enforcing of such restrictions as the mayor and board of health see the need.

For three months the fight against influenza in Pendleton has been at its most continuous, with but three weeks of that time as an open time. The ban was first put on on October 12 and was not lifted until December 1. Three weeks later the ban was again put on, December 21, and has been continuous since.

The picture shows will be open within a few days. They will probably reopen Sunday, although Guy C. Matlock, manager of the Pastime Co., today stated he was not prepared to make a positive statement to that effect.

Myrton Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore, has been heard from and he is safe and happy with the Army of Occupation in Germany, unharmed. Two letters from young Moore were received today by Miss Gressie Baker of this city and they brought the first news received here as to this soldier since the armistice was signed. One of the letters was written November 25 and the other on December 29. The last letter was written from Ebernhahn, Germany, where the former local boy is with his engineering regiment.

U.S. MAY WITHDRAW SUPPORT IF RUSSIAN FACTIONS FAIL TO ATTEMPT CONCILIATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The United States threatens to withdraw support from Russian Republican factions unless they immediately endorse President Wilson's plan for ending Russian strife through meeting with the bolshevik and allied delegates, according to diplomatic information today.

WITHHOLD RECOGNITION. The recall of American troops from the Archangel region and Siberia, an embargo against exports to Archangel and Vladivostok, and the withdrawal of United States recognition of diplomatic representatives of the Russian constitutionalists at Washington, would be the most significant features of the step. Similar action could be expected from the allies, leaving Russians to "fight it out among themselves."

HUNGARY REJOICES IN ALLIED POLICY

BUDAPEST, Jan. 30.—Hungarians yesterday conducted enthusiastic demonstrations throughout the country, cheering the United States and the allies, as a result of the peace conference note warning that claims to territory occupied by force will receive no recognition at the peace table. The Hungarians regard this as directed particularly at the Roumanian Jugo Slavs, who, they say, have been encroaching on Hungarian soil.

SISTER ARTISTS WIN LAURELS ON N. Y. STAGE

Two Pendleton girls, Miss Doris Reber and Miss Jean Reber, daughters of Dr. D. N. Reber, are winning success on the stage in New York and Chicago. Miss Doris Reber sang recently at the Metropolitan, and Scott, who was present, pronounced her voice remarkably good for its beauty and its dramatic qualities. Miss Jean Reber, since leaving this city, has been dancing in New York, at present with the "Cocoanut Grove," a Shubert production which ran for two years in London. She is studying for operatic ballet, and the two sister hope some day to appear together in opera.

DESERTED LAD, ILL, IS UNDER CARE OF R.C.

A boy, 10 years old, who gives his name as Bert Lodgett, is being cared for by the local Red Cross at St. Anthony's hospital. The boy was found at the O.-W. R. & N. depot Monday by Health Officer Breach. He is in the last stages of tuberculosis, and says that he came here from Portland. His folks seem to have deserted him, as he was stopping at the Eureka rooming house, where they had left some food in his room. He did not know where they had gone, nor can he tell a connected story. It is not thought he can live more than two or three weeks.

PAL TELLS OF HERO'S DEATH

Additional news of the death of Sheldon Ulrich, U. S. Marine, and the first Pendleton man killed in action, came today in a letter from Corporal Walter L. Hanan, 8th Machine Gun Company, 5th Regiment, who says that Ulrich was instantly killed November 10, at the battle of Sedan. Corporal Hanan says that Ulrich did not suffer as death was instantaneous. Hanan entered the service at the same time as the local hero, and the two had been together, up to the time of Ulrich's death.

NO SUCCESSOR, MATTER RESTS

City Physician, Recorder and Street Commissioner Renamed by Vaughan. POLICE QUESTION UP AT NEXT MEETING. Several Suggested for Successor, Estes Urged Roberts.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

The council last night by a vote of four to three decided against the re-appointing of Al Roberts as chief of police. Failing to agree upon a successor the matter was laid over until the next meeting, and Roberts continues in the office until his successor is elected and qualified. Lieutenant Alger Fee was renamed city attorney, Judge Fitzgerald as recorder, Dr. H. J. Kavanaugh as city physician and John Heathman, street commissioner. Roberts was nominated for the police committee. The nomination was seconded by Joseph Ell. The police committee was unanimous in his support, while the rest of the council was just as strong against him. Those voting for Roberts were: Estes, Ell and Friedly; against, Penland, King, McMonies and Taylor. Folsom was absent.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

In recommending the appointment of Roberts, Councilman Estes said that in his former experience as an officer and also recently on the other end as chairman of the police committee he is of the opinion the best man available for the place at this time is Al Roberts. He said he did not think it possible for a man to fill the place and not make enemies.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

Councilman King stated he could not vote for Roberts, and that his election would be the cause of great dissatisfaction. That there would be strong opposition to him for the office; that this opposition would come strongly from the churches and from the W. C. T. U.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

The other councilman speaking in opposition to Roberts was Penland, who led a movement during the fall in an attempt to remove him from the office, stated that he is opposed to Roberts on the standpoint that he is not qualified for the office, not doing his duty and failing to come up to the requirements of chief of police.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

Following the vote, Councilman King brought up the name of Tom Gurdane, former chief in the administration of Fee, Murphy and Best. Mention of the name of Gurdane brought forth the ire of Councilman Taylor and his name did not go to a vote.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

Following the police committee got together and recommend another name. Chairman Estes did not think it hardly fair to ask the committee to name another man after so completely sitting on the recommendation of Roberts.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

Up to the point of naming chief of police the business of the meeting proceeded without a ripple. It was the first meeting of the year attended by Mayor Vaughan, who had been confined to his home by sickness. The making of appointments had been held over on this account.

RECOMMENDING APPOINTMENT OF ROBERTS

Three appointments were made by Mayor Vaughan and immediately confirmed by the council. The first named was Lieutenant Alger Fee, city attorney, who during the past year has been in the army and still is in the service. When he will be able to return to Pendleton is not known, but Lieutenant Fee's father, Judge James A. Fee will continue to act in his place. Dr. H. J. Kavanaugh was re-

EARL GALBREATH TELLS HOW WHIZZ BANG GOT HIM

How a "whizz bang" hit him and shattered the bones of his leg is described by Private Earl Galbreath, Pendleton man who was wounded in action, in a letter to his sister, Miss Hazel Galbreath, of this city. Following are extracts from the letter, written January 4 in Base Hospital 115, France. "It was a whizz bang that hit me and it was a piece as big as my thumb and an inch long. You know they are a big shell and when they burst the shrapnel flies in every direction and it is red hot. It hit right below my knee and slid along the bone about half way down to my foot and broke the bone. I can tell you lots more when I get home. "The morning I was hurt, nine men around me were blown to pieces, so you see I was lucky. It would take 40 tablets and a typewriter to tell you about the front line trenches. No one knows what they are like unless he has been in a battle and then he sure does. "It is hard to write in bed and if I sit up too long my legs hurt. I am long time afterwards, it is rather weak yet and awfully sore but I am getting better. I will be out about June but don't know when I will be sent to the states. "I think I can get up in another month. I had a pretty bad leg for a while. For a long time I was awake 20 nights straight when I first got hurt. It bothered me awfully but now I can sleep pretty good. The bones were all broken to pieces but they have knit and it is straightening out now. "I sure would have liked to get the Christmas box but I am glad you sent it, anyway; some of the boys probably got it. Everything is awfully high here and we don't get paid very often. We can buy tobacco now if we have the price. When I was in the trenches in front lines we couldn't get anything to eat or drink; a sliver of a chew sure tasted good."
