MAY HAVE DRY LAW BUT NO ENFORCEMENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Opposition to the laws for enforcement of nation-wide war prohibition will probably prevent their enactment this session. Unless some enforcement act is passed before July 1 when prohibition is effective, the country will have a dry law but no means of enforcing it, congressional leaders stated.

Borrowed Painting Slashed by Fanatic

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Young Women's Christian association is threatened with a division into two societies by reason of action over the fact that smoking is permitted by women in some branches and forbidden in others. A number of members of the English branch, in buildings of which smoking is permitted, have withdrawn and joined the Irish Y. W. C. A., which prohibits smoking.

The Manchester Guardian quotes a Y. W. C. A. worker as saying that 60 per cent of the women's auxiliary military organizations and a large proportion of the women munition workers smoke.

The authorities of Newham college, Cambridge, recently granted women students permission to smoke in the buildings of the institution. Some of the students had been agitating in favor of smoking for some time.

British Y. W. Near Break Over Weed

OMAHA, Feb. 21.—A painting valued at $4000, borrowed by the Omaha Friends of Art from a New York collection, and on exhibition at the public library, was mutilated by what is believed to have been some fanatic objection to the nude.

The picture shows cupid fanning the spark of love in the breast of a woman. The central portion of the painting is marred by a ghastly crimson made with some blunt instrument which did not tear the canvas. Two or three other scratches mutilated the background.

LOOK OUT FOR CHANGES IN CONSULAR SERVICE

PARIS, Jan. 23.—(City Mail)—President Wilson is getting a great "close-up" on a portion of his diplomatic service abroad. And it might be said that some of the negatives on the pictures aren't altogether satisfactory. It has been the president's first opportunity to see what some of the embassies and consular officials actually amount to in active service—and if the experiences of the presidential party enroute and in Paris are to be taken as any criterion, there will be shake-ups on this side of the water.

It is no secret that to have something done promptly in the way of having passports arranged and so forth, the British have it all over the American officials in Europe. The British have a way of slashing red tape, which up to the present at least, seems a lost art so far as the American officials here are concerned.

On the trip to Rome the American consul at Milan threw up his hands in disgust when called upon to get an automobile to take Mrs. Wilson to the train.

Easy.

Some people have such a pleasant way of putting things.

"Now let me propose you as a member," says Smith.

"But suppose they blackball me?" replies Brown.

"Pooh! Aloud! Why my dear fellow, there's not a man in the club that knows you even!"

"American bolshevik" is a contradiction in terms.

CANDIDATE FOR WEST POINT NAMED FOR SECOND TIME

PORTLAND, Feb. 24.—For the second time within three months Russell McGee Colwell, 19-year-old son of Mrs. Eleanor T. and the late Elmer D. Colwell, has been named as a successful candidate for the final entrance examinations for West Point. The examinations will be held in March and young Colwell will take his examination in France where he is now serving with the American Expeditionary Forces.

Russell Colwell enlisted in May, 1917, in Company A, 116th Engineers, going overseas November 26, 1917. His previous appointment was made in November, 1917, but examinations could not then be arranged for.

Others named by Senator Chamberlain and Representatives McArthur and Hawley as successful candidates in the preliminary examinations for entrance to West Point include: George C. Mergens, W. C. Day, John A. Gaudin, Clyde H. MacFarland and Robert O. Morrison.

CHAMPION SWIMMER WHO SAVED SHIP AND WON MEDAL

Ensign Tedford H. Cann has proved that swimming is not a "non-essential" sport. When as an amateur he was winner of championships in the colors of the New York Athletic Club he did not dream of the valuable service his ability as a swimmer was to be to Uncle Sam. He now wears the Congressional Medal of Honor for saving the U. S. S. May. When that vessel sprung a leak Cann dived into a flooded compartment and plugged a hole. This photograph was taken when he arrived recently in New York.

"So you're after the consularship to Tokyo, eh?" a friend said to him.

"Yep, with both feet," the chap answered.

"Is a consularship hard work?"

Thieves Busy in Douglas.

Candy Sales to Increase.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—When liquor goes out candy will come into its own.

Such is the view of W. K. Louis, secretary of the Western Confectioners' association, which was in convention yesterday at the Palace hotel.

"There is a chemical affinity between the two," said Louis. "When a man is deprived of alcohol he always turns to sweets. This will result in a big increase in our business. Furthermore, the soldiers who return from France are coming back with first-hand knowledge of the food value of candy. That will help us, too."

Tagore—Nationalism.

Tagore—Nationalism.

"A nation, in the sense of the political and economic union of a people is that aspect which a whole population assumes when organized for a mechanical purpose." It is in this sense that Rabindranath Tagore finds the nation inimical to the good of humanity. India offers a concrete example of humanity suffering under the mechanical efficiency of the nation. His criticism is not directed against the British nation as such but against the ideal of the "west nation." He distinguishes between the spirit of the west and the nation of the west. The spirit of the west has much to give to the east that would be willingly received. The western nation is held responsible for the world war."

The first lecture in the book, "Nationalism in the West" was delivered as a lecture in Portland, Eugene and various other western cities during the winter of 1918-17. Coming as he did when the world was still confused as to the issues of the war, Tagore's lecture created a profound impression. At the present time while the big nations of the world are trying to remove future causes of conflict among themselves, Nationalism contains ideas of value to us.

"To inspire and assist the millions of ambitious, clean, forceful, diligent young men who are lending their energies to make their way in the world to become useful, constructive citizens," is the author's excuse for this volume. Lane, according to the officers, says he obtained $10.

Mallheur Escapes Scare.

PORTLAND, Feb. 24.—William L. Finley, state biologist, declares that the assembly of Mallheur lake reservation and the promoters who are fighting to drain the lake won a victory at Salem Saturday when house bill 375 was recalled and amended through the efforts of Representative Gallagher of Mallheur and Harney counties. "It has been amended exactly to suit their needs," said Mr. Finley.

"By the manipulations of Representative Gallagher," said Mr. Finley, "the Mallheur bill was recalled and the original section stricken out concerning the Thompson act and another section inserted. Here is the joker: The bill formerly sought to save Mallheur lake reservation; now it seeks to destroy it. If it now passes, the state of Oregon, through the attorney-general's office, must start legal battle with the federal government by contesting the executive proclamation issued by President Roosevelt, August 18, 1905, establishing the reservation."
