

UNCENSORED DISPATCH SHOWS CRISIS IN BERLIN NOT PASSED, GOVERNMENT SHORT OF TROOPS

Germany Being Converted to Sovietism, Plan Proclamation Next Month.

HATRED FANNED BY EXECUTION ORDERS

New Legislative House may be Provided for in Constitution.

(Note.—In the first uncensored dispatch received from Berlin since the Spartacus uprising started. Correspondent Taylor shows that not only has the government failed to crush the Spartacan rebellion but that radical elements are combining to take advantage of the government's exhaustion, proclaiming a soviet republic in April.)

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

BERLIN, March 17.—German radicals heartened by the failure of the government to completely stamp out the Spartacan uprising, are planning to proclaim a soviet republic next month. While the cabinet continues to struggle with the Spartacans and tries to untangle the apparently hopeless food, industrial and political problems, all radical elements are uniting in perfecting their revolutionary program. Even government officials are beginning to admit the cabinet's position is seriously threatened despite optimistic reports of the official press bureau. Although the government has by no means suffered a military defeat it's troops have not succeeded in surrounding the Spartacans who have escaped from various nets into the suburbs where they are resisting desperately and cleverly.

Germany is rapidly becoming converted to sovietism, as the result of radical propaganda and agitation. The government so far has been unable to muster enough troops to capture the Spartacans and simultaneously guard the large Berlin area. Newspapers are filled with advertisements calling for volunteers to fill up the republican regiments, but the responses are negligible. It is evident a large number of Spartacans who escaped from Berlin are stirring up further trouble in outlying districts. Their hatred has been fanned by Noske's order to execute all who resist the government. They regard this as a sign of weakness and final degeneration on the part of the government.

Propose New House. It is now proposed that the Bundsrat (upper legislative house) be abolished and a new soviet congress established in its place, representing all working groups. This would provide representation for the people according to their social status, while the reichstag would represent them according to localities. Supporters of such an organization are growing rapidly. The government may provide for it in the constitution, hoping thus to avoid the April revolution.

Radicals believe it is necessary for the workers to exercise direct control over all industries, and it is feared that otherwise the industries may remain idle since capital is not eager to reopen the factories in view of their pending socialization.

Noticed. We need 108 copies of the Daily East Oregonian of issue of Friday, March 14, and will therefore pay 2-2 cents for each copy of this issue returned to this office at once in good condition.

DISTURBERS CAUSE RIOT. SEVILLE, March 17.—Two were killed and several wounded during a riot today following a political meeting in the hall here. Police charged the disturbers creating a panic. Many arrests were made.

SUPERVISORS AND ENUMERATORS WANTED FOR TAKING NEW CENSUS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17.—The act providing for the Fourteenth and subsequent decennial censuses was signed by the president on March 3. The enumeration, which will be made in January, 1920, is now less than ten months distant and the census bureau already has under consideration the selection and appointment of not to exceed 400 supervisors who will have charge of the 30,000 enumerators. The supervisors' districts will in most cases, except in the large cities, have the same boundaries as the congressional districts. The supervisors under the law, are to be appointed by the secretary upon the recommendation of the Director of the census.

DISAGREEMENT ADDS FIRE TO LEAGUE FIGHT

BY ROBERT BENDER (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Apparent disagreement between President Wilson and Foreign Minister Pichon as to whether the League of Nations covenant could be embodied in the first peace treaty completed with Germany added fire to the league fight today. Administration officials are obviously confused at the situation arising in Paris. It had been the view here that the first or "preliminary" treaty with Germany would be only an extension of the armistice, not subject to ratification by the senate, and therefore not necessarily containing the league covenant. United Press dispatches, however, indicate the preliminary treaty will be subject to senate ratification, and will cover most of the peace treaty articles including those for reparation, indemnities and the arranging of boundaries. In view of this the president will certainly carry his fight to a finish for embodiment of the league in the first treaty.

APOLOGY REQUIRED FOR INSULT TO FLAG

SPALATO, March 17.—As the result of an incident March 8 when the Jugo-Slavs compelled an Italian warship to haul down its flag, British and American destroyers arrived here and required the Jugo-Slavs to apologize to the Italian commander. The apologies were made about an Italian destroyer in the presence of allied officers.

PRODUCTION IS URGED REGARDLESS OF SALE

AKRON, O., March 17.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield in an address here today urged American businessmen and manufacturers to relieve the prevailing condition of unemployment throughout the country. "This country must keep plugging on production for which there is no present market in order to keep its people at work. A market will be created by the conclusion of peace which will absorb any product which cannot be sold now," Redfield said. He upheld the industrial board, created to relieve the unemployment situation, toward which newspapers have found cause for dissenation.

HENRY JUDD OUT OF ARMY IS HOME AGAIN

Henry Judd is home again, a private citizen but a heavier one than when he left here for army service that took him overseas and to 70 days of fighting on the western front with the 65th Artillery C. A. C. Young Judd was given his discharge from the army two weeks ago and had been visiting in Portland until yesterday when he left for Pendleton accompanied by his mother, Mrs. P. E. Judd. When he entered the army Judd was a student at the University of Washington, having shortly before finished the Pendleton high school. He is uncertain as to his future plans but expects to work for a time and probably reenter school in the fall.

40 TEACHERS MEET AT HERMISTON INSTITUTE

Forty teachers were in attendance at the district teachers institute at Hermiston Saturday. Music was furnished during the day by the Hermiston high school orchestra. The Parents-Teachers society of the school town served the teachers with a free lunch that met with much praise. Following is the program of the day: Discussion of the new school laws, W. W. Green, county school superintendent; discussion of the Oregon state text books, and the adopting of resolutions recommending changes in the arithmetic and language series; talk by A. C. Voelker, superintendent Hermiston school, on normal education; the Rev. H. H. Hubbell discussed citizenship; and Messrs. of P. E. Austin, superintendent of Pendleton schools. The district teachers institute will be held next Saturday at Pilot Rock.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—"All is quiet in Tientsin and no further trouble is anticipated," says a state department cable from Consul General Hintzeman today.

MOB KILLS HUN COMMANDER OF FLANDERS ARMY

General Von Armin Clubbed to Death by Infuriated Peasants in Bohemia.

FOLLOWS SHOOTING AT TRESPASSERS Dispatches Report Murder Followed by Pillaging of Castle.

COPENHAGEN, March 17.—General Von Armin former commander of the German armies in Flanders, was clubbed to death by a mob of infuriated peasants in Lech, Bohemia, dispatches today report. The murder followed his firing a shot at peasants who trespassed his grounds. The peasants afterward pillaged the castle.

WANTED: PEACE COUNCIL FOR 66TH SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 17.—So many internal tempers have been stirred up for the sixty sixth congress in advance of its meeting that it appears as though the first day's session will end the services of the peace conference. The storms include: A contest between representative Mann and Representative Lonsworth for control of the Republican organization; a contest between Champ Clark, backed by a large number of Democrats, and an anti-Clark faction determined to beat him for Democratic leadership of the next house; a contest between senate progressive Republicans and "regulars" for control of the upper house, and a contest of progressives against Peacock as chairman of the senate Finance committee. Anti-Mann forces say they will have an organization of 60 which will insure against Mann's leadership.

EAST OREGONIAN WILL HOLD PLEBISCITE TO DETERMINE VIEWS ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

At the request of many people who wish to see Unatilla county tested on the subject of the League of Nations the East Oregonian will conduct a plebiscite for the readers of the paper along the same lines the Oregon Journal is conducting on a state-wide basis. The adoption or rejection of the League of Nations is a matter of such intense and vital concern to all that expressions are wanted from the people. It is conceded that public sentiment will be an extremely important factor in securing the adoption or the failure of the league. Therefore all men and women of voting age are requested to cast a ballot in the East Oregonian plebiscite. Votes may be mailed to the League of Nations Editor, Care East Oregonian, Pendleton, Ore., or dropped in ballot box on the business office counter. Do not refrain from voting in the East Oregonian plebiscite because you may have already voted in the Journal test. Express your view here also that the sentiment of the city and county can be secured. If you have not yet voted in the Journal plebiscite do so at once so as to help put the state on record. The ballots in the plebiscite will be counted each day and the results announced. Whether for or against the League of Nations, express your opinion. A heavy vote is wanted so as to make a thorough test of sentiment.

DO YOU FAVOR A LEAGUE OF NATIONS to prevent future wars, such as President Wilson and Former President Taft are working for?

Enclose this coupon in an envelope addressed to "League of Nations Editor, Care The East Oregonian" or bring it to East Oregonian business office and drop it in the ballot box. Only persons of voting age should send in a ballot.

CARNIVAL COMING TO TOWN AND ROUND-UP BAND BOYS WILL SOON BE WEARING NEW TOGS

Contract has been closed between the Wortham's Greater Alamo Shows and the Round-Up Cowboy Band of Pendleton for the week commencing Monday, June 2, and ending Monday, June 7. The shows will be in Pendleton under the auspices of the Round-Up band, which will receive a commission for the uniform fund. The Wortham shows under the contract guarantees 10 shows and four special ride features. The shows include a menagerie of trained animals, tank or diving mermaids Lolita, the smallest mother in the world, Havatan village, and a number of others. The rides are a Ferris wheel, larger than any other ever in Pendleton, the whip, carry all, and giant airplane swing. The last is something new in the way of a swing. It gives all the sensations of riding in an airplane. There will also be a large number of concessions. The band hopes with the money received from the shows to be able to pay for all the uniforms needed. These will be the cowboy character uniforms and parade uniforms for other occasions. The shows have a military band of 15 pieces and while here the Pendleton band will play with them, making a 40-piece band while here. The committee looking after the interest of the band in dealing with the Wortham company is composed of C. G. Beach, Earl Sawyer, Ralph Folsom, J. H. Estes and C. D. Drake, chairman.

MAKE PENDLETON A FLYLESS TOWN IS SPRINGTIME SLOGAN

Pendleton a flyless town. This is the slogan of a move that sets underway today and which if successful will result in a cleaner and more pleasant conditions in the business and residential districts of the city during the coming summer. At the library a meeting is being held this afternoon between 13 women representing the different precincts of the city and officers of the civic club and home demonstration workers including Miss Lorene Parker, Mrs. Edith Salisbury, assistant extension worker from Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Jessie D. McComb, state leader in home demonstration work. Mrs. McComb and Mrs. Salisbury did not come to Pendleton for the meeting but being in the city are helping the cause along. The plan is for the precinct representatives to make a survey, each in her own district, and to report thereon. Various plans for eliminating insect conditions are in readiness and hope is held out that through cooperation and education the fly menace can be virtually removed from Pendleton.

ITALIAN GOV'T WILL REDEEM FARM LANDS

ROME, March 17.—The Italian government will pay the expropriated Italian landowners in the invaded territory, it is announced today.

SUCCESS OF AUTO SHOW INSURES ANNUAL EVENT

Saturday night proved a grand finale for the Pendleton auto show. The attendance for the three days of the show proved to be far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the backers of the enterprise. The feeling is that the show has proved a great benefit, not a disaster, participating in the show and reports increased business as a result. All dealers, both in cars and accessories told the same story. The sale of 45 cars was reported during the show. When the auto show was first proposed the fear met with considerable opposition on the part of many dealers, but once decided that the show would be held all got into the harness to make it a success, and so well pleased are they that it will now become an annual event. The decorations made for Happy Canyon will be stored and with additions the pavilion will be even more beautiful next year than the closing show. Saturday night after the close of the show the association held a link at the Eagle-Woodman hall on Courthouse street. It was a stag affair and from the stories of the next day it proved an enjoyable one. Tonight the Pendleton Auto Association gives a jazz dance at Happy Canyon pavilion. Decorations have been left in the pavilion for the occasion, and with the auto men as hosts this will doubtless prove fully as grand an affair as did the show itself.

FIRST TREATY IS PRACTICALLY THE FINAL PACT

Not Effective, However, Until Ratified, Requiring at Least 40 to 60 Days.

AMERICANS STAND PAT FOR LEAGUE

Pichon's Present Claim Against Inclusion is Surprise.

PARIS, March 17.—While the forthcoming treaty with Germany is termed preliminary it is to all intents and purposes final. It fixes the country's military and naval status, defines its boundaries and discloses the questions of reparation and economic freedom. It will not be really effective, however, until it is ratified by all or a fixed percentage of the signatory nations. The period for ratification by the allied nations may be at least 40 to 60 days. This will give the opportunity of calling a special session of the American congress enabling the senate to act.

Statement Denied. PARIS, March 17.—Foreign Minister Pichon's claim that the league of nations will not be included in the preliminary peace treaty was emphatically denied in American official circles. Wilson and other American commissioners standing pat on its inclusion, it is stated today. Surprise is expressed that Pichon's views should be contrary. The president tends to make a strong fight for the inclusion of the league. He feels that France and Britain need the league more than America. Hence Pichon's statement astounded and somewhat plied the Americans. Wilson desires an early peace. It is stated, and he holds that inclusion of the league in the past is vital to America. He is said to be especially surprised at Pichon's action in view of the fact that the French, along with the others, signed the league's resolution in January for the league's inclusion.

Preliminary peace, according to Pichon, will end the state of war but will not permit Germany to resume full relations with other countries. The blockade will not be lifted completely before the final treaty.

GRAIN GRADING SCHOOL OPENS 4-DAY SESSION

The grain grading school is in session at the county library building this afternoon. The program is being carried out as announced Saturday by the East Oregonian. The school is to hold for four days, closing Tuesday evening. The subjects taken up in the school are of interest to elevator managers and directors and are to deal with matters coming in their work, but at the same time the subjects are of interest to grain farmers also. The sampling and classifying of wheat and the discussion of mixtures and their relation to grain grading are things that come in the discussion. Smut and dust explosions, and mill and elevator fire prevention are also subjects receiving attention. Parties who will have places on the program during the week and who are
