

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1919.

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl mopes and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physica are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN

The Perfect Laxative

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the War, by sacrificing profits and absorbing our taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 6 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

FREE SAMPLES

If you have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 404 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. If there are babies at home, ask for a copy of Dr. Caldwell's book, "The Care of Baby."

Much Cut Up!

One day recently a dilapidated, apathetic man entered the office of the Syracuse Medical College and offered to sell his body cheap, adding that he was out of work and almost discouraged. "You're almost discouraged, are you?" rejoined the superintendent, who always tried to change the determination of these unfortunates. "Why man, if you sold your body to us, the first chance our students got they'd take the heart out of you entirely!"—Cartoons Magazine.

Mothers' Advice

The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother. The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl. When a girl's thoughts become sluggish with headaches, dizziness, or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs and a desire for solitude, her mother should come to her aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities. Thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of this medicine, and what it has done for their daughters.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For 3 months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I did not know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. FINNAN, 316 Nancy Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

I NOW HAVE

50 Head Mules AND 100 Sets Harness

See them at the

Pendleton Horse & Mule Market

JOHN H. LUCK, Prop.

621 Aura Street

Telephone 516

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

ARCADE TODAY.

Mining Four Days' Doughboy Returns With Four Hun Prisoners.
Corporal Fred Fox of the 48th infantry, twenty-three years old, was recently reported in the casualty lists as missing. His regiment was one of the first to go "over the top" in the big offensive started at the Marne. Corporal Fox's sister was notified by the war department that her brother was missing with one week later she received another notification stating that Fred had returned to the American lines with four Huns, one of them a captain. No other details were given.

At the William Fox studio in Fort Lee, N. J., where the sister is engaged, the young woman proudly displayed the official telegram telling of her brother's deed. The sister is one of the actresses in "Why I Would Not Marry," a morality play now showing at the Arcade for three days, commencing today.

PASTIME TODAY.

Southerner Succumbs to Lure of the Bright Lights and Wanton Women.

Richard Shelton left his hometown of Myrtleville to seek his fortune and recover the family estates. On coming to New York, his charming Southern manners scored a hit for him and many of his chance acquaintances in the big town, and while he patronized the cafes and tea rooms, his little sister Betsy struggled over her expenses in the office of the financier of Myrtleville and often answered Dick's calls for help by a few pennies from her meagre salary.

But there was one who met him and knew him for what he was, a coward in spite of his suave Southern ways. Roger Enderleugh, a promoter of the get-rich-quick Wallingford type saw in young Shelton a man he might use to further his own interests.

And Shelton fell an easy victim to the wiles of this smiling grey-haired promoter, who on the surface was all charm and good breeding. How Enderleugh's schemes led Shelton to the very depth of federal prison and even worse, to a hangman's noose, and how he was saved by the supreme sacrifice of his own sister, Betsy, at the cost of her own happiness are thrilling scenes and episodes of this Triangle masterpiece of frenzied finance, interwoven with Southern life and courtship. "The Stainless Barrier" to be shown at the Pastime theater today.

ALTA TODAY.

Romance and Fun Are Ever Present in "Less Than Kin."

The romance and fun of the average Central American revolution are admirably brought out in "Less Than Kin," the new Paramount photoplay, starring Wallace Reid and featuring dainty Ann Little, which will be shown at the Alta theater today.

In this excellent picture Mr. Reid plays two roles—that of a "ner-do-well" who is discovered by his family and the other that of a man who has accidentally killed a man in defense of a woman, and who escapes from jail and finds refuge in Central America, where he drills a motley army of revolutionists. The resemblance between these two men is so startling that on the death of the "ner-do-well," the referee decides to assume his name and station and return to New York, where his imposture brings about many highly diverting situations. In the end, however, he is pardoned and finds happiness and love in a charming girl.

The photography in this photoplay is of exceptional merit and lends much to the attractiveness of the subject. The story was written by Alice Duer Miller and the screen adaptation was made by Marion Fairfax. Mr. Reid and Miss Little are admirably supported by fine screen players, chief among whom are Raymond Hatton, Gustav Seiffert, Charles Ogle, Jas. Cruze and Jane Wolf.

ARCADE TODAY.

What a grand and glorious existence life would be if we could only look into the future and mould our lives as is done in "Why I Would Not Marry," the William Fox production which opened at the Arcade last night.

The play concerns a man who was willing to put his daughter on the auction block of matrimony to further his own interests. An excellent all-star cast is seen and in addition to a real evening's entertainment the play teaches a moral. It will be shown again today and tomorrow.

GERMAN PRESS NOT FOR SIGNING TREATY

AMSTERDAM, March 21.—The German conservative press, according to dispatches received here, is continuing a campaign to induce the government to refuse to sign the peace treaty if the terms are "harsh." These newspapers urge the government to use the threat to let bolshevism overrun Germany with the resultant danger of its spreading to other parts of Europe.

Formal Notice

"What's the delegation?" "We propose to wait formally upon our landlady to tell her that the war is over and suggest that a reasonable amount of food supplies may now be released."—Kansas City Journal.

ALTA THEATRE

CHILDREN 10c

ADULTS 30c

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Jesse L. Lasky presents

Wallace Reid in "Less Than Kin"

A Paramount Picture

Living another man's life was a lot of fun for Robert Lee until the friends, the wife and the children of the real Lewis Vickers appeared. What a wife! What friends! He could accept the lot of them or go to jail! So he went to jail.

by Alice Duer Miller
Scenario by Marion Fairfax
Directed by Donald Crisp

Mack Sennett Comedy—HER SCREEN IDOL
Featuring Ford Sterling.

VAUDEVILLE

MISS HANSON
Comedienne.

KAHYAN & CO.
Magicians and Illusionists.

MONTANA BOOSTERS TO ENCOURAGE SETTLEMENT

HELENA, Mont., March 21.—It frequently has been stated in the Montana press that this state could support five millions of people, and might one day embrace that number. The Montana Development league, recently formed here is more modest; it aims to bring the population to two millions. It is now estimated at between 750,000 and 850,000.

The activities of the league are to cover a period of five years and it is planned to spend a million dollars. Only well-to-do immigrants will be sought—and these will come, not from foreign lands, but from other sections of America. To induce them to change their residence, by showing them the opportunities to advance in this state, is the central purpose of the league, of which W. A. Milne is to be executive secretary.

If reading the sun will help you to buy more wisely, isn't the task worth while?

ARCADE Thurs. Mar. 27

3 Days

Children 10c

Adults 25

William Fox Presents The Colossal 1919

Morality Drama

Why I Would Not Marry

The love trials of the most beautiful woman on earth

A FOX ALL-STAR CAST

How did you choose a husband?

What is a husband worth?

What causes divorce?

Tell Him No.

Are all men beasts?

Don't fail to see this wonderful drama