LONGINGS.

Ah! my heart is weary waiting—
Waiting for the May—
Waiting for the pleasant rambles
Where the fragrant hawthorn bramble
With the woodbine alternating.
Scent the deary way.
Ah! my heart is weary waiting—
Waiting for the May.
Ah! my heart is sore with sighing.
Sighing for the May—
Sighing for their sure returning.
When the summer beams are burning,
Hopes and flowers that, dead
or dying
All the winter lay.
Ah! my heart is sore with sighing.
Sighing for the May.
Waiting sad, dejected, weary,
Waiting for the May;
Spring goes by with wasted
warnings,
Moonlit evenings, sunbright
mornings,
Summer comes, yet dark and dreary
Life still slips away;
Man is ever weary, weary,
Waiting for the May!
—Denis Florence McCarthy.

LODGE IN 1906

IN 1906, when Roosevelt was president, the question of the relative powers of the president and the senate in treaty making arose over an issue with San Domingo.

This is what Senator Lodge, speaking on the floor of the senate chamber, said on Jan. 24, 1906, in regard to the respective powers of the president and the senate in the matter of treaties. (Congressional Record, page 1470):

No one, I think, can doubt the absolute power of the president to initiate and carry on all negotiations; and after a treaty has been returned to him with the ratification of the senate, to withhold it from ratification if he sees fit so to do. There is no doubt that the senate can by resolution advise the president to enter upon a negotiation, or advise the president to refrain from a negotiation; but those resolutions have no binding force whatsoever, and the action of the senate becomes operative and actually effective only when a treaty is actually submitted to it. WE HAVE NO POSSIBLE RIGHT TO BREAK SUDDENLY IN THE MIDDLE OF A NEGOTIATION AND DEMAND FROM THE PRESIDENT WHAT INSTRUCTIONS HE HAS GIVEN TO HIS REPRESENTATIVE.

Senator Lodge is the leader of the senate round robin brigade that has done exactly what Lodge in 1906 said should not be done. It is quite evident the Massachusetts senator reads the constitution one way when there is a Republican president and another way when a Democrat occupies the White House. He should not be taken seriously.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN EUROPE

ANY one who would seriously suggest doing away with daylight saving in Europe would be treated much the same as the man who would try to start another war is the view of P. S. Ridsdale, secretary of the National War Garden Commission of Washington just returned from Europe.

"I am astounded," said Mr. Ridsdale, who has just made a three months study of the home food production plan of the continent, "to find there are plans afoot to take away the extra hour of daylight from the millions of workers.

"Repeal of this law would be a backward piece of legislation. Any man who would seriously try to take away daylight saving in Europe would be treated much the same as the man who tried to start another war. They look on extra daylight as a great reconstruction asset.

"A gigantic food rationing system is being put under way on the continent. Authorities

HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN.

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ailments indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Pendleton women. Read what Mrs. James B. Jacobs, 300 E. Bluff St., Pendleton, says: "I couldn't speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have never found anything their equal. When I take a hard cold or over-do, it always seems to affect my back and kidneys. My back aches so badly I can hardly move. My kidneys also get out of order and I can hardly do my housework. After I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days, by kidneys act regularly. That awful misery in my back lets up and in every way I feel as well and strong as ever." Prices 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Jacobs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS" IS ADOPTED

ST. LOUIS, March 27.—The national woman suffrage association today became a league of women voters. The action resulted from a rejuvenating plan adopted by a jubilee convention in session here yesterday. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the old organization, proposed the change of name, declaring the other did not represent the women of voting and non-voting states.

Wilson called his regards to the convention, saying, "I honestly hope the suffrage amendment will soon be adopted."

ASSEMBLY TO TRY GUILTY
BERLIN, March 27.—The national assembly is establishing a special court to try General Ludendorff, former Chancellor Von Richthofen, Holweg and other officials alleged to be responsible for the war, a Weimer dispatch reported.

"GOING DOWN"

A remarkable picture showing Bombardier Wells, former British heavyweight champion, about to "hit the canvas" after a fight to the jaw by Beckett in the first round of their bout held recently at Holborn Stadium, England. Wells went down five times before the final knockout in the fifth round.
