The guests called at the home of Mrs. Hartman, where cherry blossoms added a charming note of spring and centered a pretty tea table presided over by Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Frederick Steiner.

It's a pity a man can't dispose of his experience at coast.

IF you'd make your feet look as pretty as could be with nice new pumps, a pair of pretty silk stockings above them, wouldn't it make you sore if somebody said you'd have to wear clumsy old service shoes? That's the way the girl women in the service of the navy department felt when Secretary Daniels issued this order against pumps and silk stockings with the uniform. The girl in the center of this group is wearing service shoes, the one at the left pumps, the one at the right oxfords. "Bad for discipline," says Uncle Josephus as he shakes his head.

No School Today.

Washington school is closed today and will not open until Thursday morning because of sewer repairs which are being made in the building. The overflowing of the mill race caused the flooding of the basement of the school house.

Nine hundred dollars, plus interest at 8 per cent from October 25, 1914, together with $100 attorney's fee is asked by the United States National Bank of Portland in a suit filed today against H. Rainfall Short This Month.

The rainfall this month registers 1.41 inches, which is just 61 inches short of the normal fall. As the record stands now, the rainfall for the wet season, which began in September, is short .72 inches. This is due to the dry autumn season of 1914, which closed the year with a shortage of 1.24 inches. It is the opinion of farmers, however, that the shortage will not injure crops, as the recent rains came at the right time. Other weather data for the month of March shows that .50 inches of rain fell March 18, and on 12 days there was .01 or more inches. There was a killing frost March 24-25. The maximum temperature for the month was 89 on March 29 and the minimum was 25, on March 25.

Redfern Corsets

"It Is Personality that Pays"

All other attributes capitulate before its compelling force. Personality is derived from poise, — style. The woman who feels herself distinguished in carriage and dress and figure will immediately acquire confidence in self, which is a distinguishing trait of Personality.

"Yes," you ask, "but whence comes this all-conquering Personality?" Unlike greatness, we are rarely born with it, nor do we have it thrust upon us. It is carefully acquired—thoughtful dressing contributes a large share to its success. Your contour is the first step, and it is made with the Corset. Upon it depends the effect of the dress—the corset is the cause. Now we come to the special type of corset and the answer is a Redfern. It fulfills the corset mission perfectly.
