

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

Pastel colors in a gay riot of streamers and blossoms made the Eagle-Woodmen hall a charming scene for the annual spring dance given Friday evening by the girls and boys flower club of the high school. Floor lamps in each corner cast an attractive glow over the room and a profusion of the streamers fluttered before the orchestra. Dancing began at 8 o'clock with a grand march led by Miss Irene Spreckhaug and Jack Beck, presidents of the two clubs, with Miss Gladys Boynton and Hans Struve second in line. Program was presented to the guests by an attractive little couple, Miss Peggy Chessman and Glen Boynton. Punch was dispensed from an attractively appointed table by Miss Emily Dohmert and Miss Vera Hampton.

A delightful feature toward the end of the program was a solo Hindustani dance by Archibald Blakely in costume.

Members of the high school faculty were guests of the club and the patronesses list included Mrs. James Beck, Mrs. Frank Dohmert, Mrs. Jesse Sallins, Mrs. M. A. Ferris, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. B. Isaacs and Mrs. Emil Dohmert.

Mrs. J. S. Mathews, Mrs. J. S. Mathews, Mrs. W. A. Storie, Mrs. Hattie Smith and Mrs. Alta Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Estes and Mrs. W. N. Matlock motored to Walla Walla Saturday where Mrs. Estes attended a tea at the home of Mrs. Phillip Hoffman. The party returned to Pendleton yesterday.

Miss Gladys Hamley left today for Bellingham, Wash., where she will be the guest of Mrs. Janet Smith, general secretary of the city association.

Y. M. C. A. and of Miss Mathea Hanson, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Hamley was at one time office secretary of the Bellingham Y. M. C. A.

A remarkable portrait of Leopold Godowsky, the world famous pianist who will be heard here tomorrow evening, was recently completed by Haskell Coffin, the celebrated portrait painter and exhibited at a prominent Fifth Avenue Gallery. The painter caught the soul and spirit of Godowsky in a wonderful manner and it is interesting in this connection to read his impression of his "subject" written for a musical weekly.

"Having completed a portrait of Leopold Godowsky, I was requested to give my impression of him. Although I had heard him play many times I did not have the pleasure of his acquaintance, so naturally looked forward to our meeting with great interest. From among the crowd he came with unstretched hand and a manner so simple and sincere as to put us at once at our ease.

"No one can truly know Leopold Godowsky without both liking and respecting him. He is small of stature, but great of soul. A poet as well as a master musician of the finest order, he reminds one of a finely cut and finished cameo. I enjoyed my hours with him to the utmost, they were days of real pleasure, full of discussion of topics of mutual interest."

"A song his many fine characteristics most prominent and most rare, is his wonderful modesty. As he himself remarked: 'Why should one feel conceit when life is so very transitory and uncertain?'

"He is possessed of a most discerning taste and one feels that he not only has the courage of his convictions, but is true to them. To be able to paint a real portrait, it is necessary to penetrate even the soul of any subject, and my impression of Leopold Godowsky is not only that of a great artist, but of a man of fine and high character, whom we may prize as a sincere friend."

Mrs. Mary Hoch is in Pendleton as the guest of Mrs. A. B. Webber. After her visit here she expects to leave for Bingham Springs to spend the summer.

Mrs. M. J. Marsh, of Tacoma, Washington, arrived last night from Tacoma, Washington. After a few days' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lina Sturgis, she will be at the home of her son, C. H. Marsh of this city.

Mrs. W. R. Ellis wife of the late Congressman Ellis and a former resident of Pendleton is expected to arrive Tuesday to be the guest of Mrs. A. J. McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stangler and two sons, and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Draper, motored to the L. C. Frazier country home near Walla Walla Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday there.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson extended delightful hospitality Saturday evening at their home, 513 Madison street, the affair being complimentary to Frank Watson, brother of Mrs. Margaret McDonald, who recently returned from France, and to John Sollett, who arrived home last week from service on the Mexican border. The house was attractively decked with tinsel foliage and tables were arranged for "500." High score honors fell to Emil Dohmert while the consolation trophy was claimed by A. Thomas. After the hours at cards and preceding a dainty luncheon several musical numbers were enjoyed. Mrs. Alex Gibbs and Dr. Loretta Starba contributing instrumental numbers and delightful songs being given by Mrs. Dohmert, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Emily Dohmert. The party included besides the honor guests and hosts Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dohmert, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carden, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas, Mrs. Alex Gibbs, Dr. Loretta Starba, Mrs. Margaret Cronin, Mrs. William Shear, Mrs. Annie Nelson, Mrs. Margaret McDonald, Mrs. Mary Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. K. Cranston, Mrs. Sollett, Miss Pauline Dohmert, Miss Emily Dohmert, Miss Nellie Donahue, Miss Flora Mc-

Delightful as a musical event and decidedly interesting as a presentation of the direct class music work in the high school was the glee club concert given in the high school auditorium last evening. The successful affair was directed by Mrs. S. H. Forshaw with Miss Jean Olive Jacobs as accompanist. The auditorium was filled by an audience which thoroughly appreciated the program in its arrangement of chorus work with instrumental, violin and vocal numbers as well as readings; three piano, three voice, two violin and two public-speaking students assisting the club in the concert. Mrs. Forshaw has been receiving congratulations today on the delightful event. The club is composed of forty-nine voices.

NEWS OF PENDLETON
Small Wreck Causes Delay.
Train No. 17, west bound, was two hours late today because of the wreck of a freight train near Duncan, caused by the breaking of a wheel on the train. No serious damage other than the delay of No. 17 and of No. 8, which at 2 o'clock had not yet reached La Grande, was done.

WILL GRAY PURCHASES BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE

Will Gray, former Pendleton grocer and member of the firm of Gray Bros is evidently doing well in Spokane. He is now head of the Gray Manufacturing Co. and has just purchased one of the most beautiful homes in Spokane. The following story tiling of the purchase is from the Spokesman-Review.

Margorie Williams and Miss Majorie Kuchenthal, and cards at the table were also placed for Mrs. Hattie Davis and the hostess. An Easter motif was developed throughout the appointments of the party affair, a feature of which was a candle decked birthday cake.

What is said to be one of the most beautiful homes of its size in the city, the residence of the late George H. Huntley, West Twenty-second avenue, has been sold by Mrs. Mattie E. Huntley to W. J. Gray of the Gray Manufacturing company. The price is given at $11,500. The house was built three years ago by W. H. Bauer and was sold to Mr. Huntley about a year ago.

Takes Possession May 1.
The residence in a bungalow in the California style, containing eight rooms, all on one floor, and is entirely modern throughout. Mr. Gray is to take possession May 1. The house is in the Cannon Hill Park addition, near Bernard street, and has an asbestos roof, plate glass windows and is finished in quartersawed oak throughout and has hardwood floors. The bedrooms are done in French gray. There is a large bathroom in the basement. There is a fireplace in the ballroom as well as one in the living room and another in the den. The electrical fixtures are described as magnificent, the models being of hammered brass. The remainder of the lighting is of the indirect type. The den has built-in bookcases and the house has many built-in features.

Sun Porch a Feature.
There is an enclosed sun porch off the dining room and the dining room and the living room are both large. The den is separated from the living room by French sliding doors. The house has a hot water heating plant. The basement also contains a fruit room, laundry room and a garage. The main bathroom has tiled floors. The plumbing fixtures are of solid porcelain.

John Parsons of the Schiffner-Parsons company negotiated the deal.
