MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

ARCADE THEATRE

"Mickey is irresistible. She made a big hit at the Arcade last night.

Mickey nervously twisted a suspender of the overalls that partly clad her little figure. She lifted her eyes to Minnie Ha Ha—those wonderfully expressive dark eyes, which could mirror pain, sorrow, love, laughter, every emotion of humankind.

"I don't want to be sent away, Minnie," she said, dully, her pretty head drooping.

The Indian woman stolidly puffed at her corncob pipe, her broad, ugly face immobile. Only her twinkling eyes betrayed her feeling.

"Um! Um! go!" she muttered, in-cantically.

"But I don't want to leave my mountain! I'm afraid, Minnie. Oh, you rascal!"

The last remark was not directed at Minnie Ha Ha, but to a saucy squirrel who had suddenly crawled from one of her overalls legs. He winked impudently at the girl for a second, and then scampered away. With a little cry, Mickey leaped to her feet and dashed in pursuit of the bushy-tailed rascal, her hair streaming behind her.

A wild, untrammelled girl-Nature's own—and now they were going to send her to the confining, prisoned city.

"Heap bad!" muttered Minnie Ha Ha, shaking out her pipe.

But little Mickey was taken away just the same—to the home of a hypocritical aunt who thought she was an heiress, and who sent her to work as a "slavey" when she got informed to the contrary.

They couldn't down this little girl, however. She emerged triumphant from every misfortune—the same mischievous, lovable, wonderful Mickey—unforgettable Mickey.

Herbert Thornhill saw her and loved her. This wild, sweet, shy child, so complex despite her simplicity, attracted him as no other girl ever had, and he set out to woo her and help her escape her enemies—and even Mickey had these.

It is the film sensation of the hour, the pictured story of "Mickey" which opened at the Arcade theatre last night to crowded houses, and will continue today and tomorrow.

AMUSEMENTS

OREGON THEATRE

"Pollyanna" will be visualized in comedy at the Oregon Theatre, Friday April 18. The play, by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, is from Eleanor H. Porter's enormously popular "Pollyanna" stories that have brought gladness to hundreds of thousands all over the world. It preserves their incidents and the radiant optimism that teaches the joy of living. No character in fiction in many years has so gripped the affections of the public as Pollyanna Whittier, who is depicted in her radiant youth. There is so much sorrow in the world's affairs just now that the joyous optimism of this glad-hearted play is hailed with enthusiasm by playgoers who have been surfeited with morbidity.

Klaw and Erlanger and George C. Tyler, bring here a cast of unusual excellence. Viola Harper will play the title-role, and will be supported by George Allison, Herbert Froster, Blanche Douglas, Winifred Hanley, Master Blaisdell, Jack Morton and others.

"Pollyanna" has enjoyed the approbation of great audiences in the largest cities of the eastern sections of this country, and now ranks as one of the permanent successes of the dramatic stage.

PEACE MISSION ASKS SUPPORT OF FIFTH LOAN

Urges American People to Finish the Job by Taking the Victory Loan

Four members of the American peace mission in France, Secretary of State Robert Lansing, Col. E. M. House, General Tasker N. Bliss and Henry White, have sent this message to the American people urging support of the Victory Loan:

"TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE: "We have had the opportunity here in France to see and realize the magnitude of the accomplishment of our country in this war and the magnificent spirit with which this great task has been carried through to a triumphant issue.

"What has been done and what remains to be done before normal conditions are restored demand your continued and united support with the same spirit of self sacrifice and of determination as that which was manifested by the nation while the German armies faced our men at the Marne, and in the Champagne, at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne. We must not relax our efforts until every soldier of the republic is landed on the soil of America.

"To finish this mighty task imposed upon the government of the United States a great financial burden. The Victory Liberty Loan must thrive. If it should fail it would indicate that the Nation is willing to leave its task uncompleted.

"To secure the ideals for which Americans fought and died this great demand on national patriotism and united effort should meet a generous and universal response. Let us do our duty to the end.

"ROBERT LANSING,
"HENRY WHITE,
"E. M. HOUSE,
"T. N. BLISS."

NAVY BANDS WILL SPUR PATRIOTISM IN VICTORY DRIVE

Mare Island Commandant Offers Marines and Jackies to Aid Fifth Loan

Captain Edward L. Beach, commandant of Mare Island Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., who was in command of the United States dreadnaught New York in the North Sea at the time the German navy was turned over under the terms of the armistice, has offered three of the crack service bands stationed at Mare Island for use during the Victory drive.

One of the bands will travel on the trophy train which will tour all of the seven states in the Twelfth District and the other two bands will be used in cities within a day's journey of Mare Island. One of these bands is the famous sixty-piece Marine Band and the other is the forty-piece Jackie Band.

Paymaster Ralph Phelps, U. S. N., has been placed in charge of the itinerary to be mapped out for the two bands which will not travel on the train and any local committee desiring to make use of either of these two bands during the drive should communicate with him.

"Familiarity breeds contempt" does not hold true in a garden. A garden bears close acquaintance and the successful gardener is he who keeps in close contact with his crops throughout the growing season.
