Happy Canyon pavilion will this evening be the scene of a band dance when the Pendleton band will entertain, marching to the pavilion at 8:30 and playing first as a band and changing after the first few numbers to orchestra music. The band members compose two complete orchestras and the music will be made a special feature. The event is being given as a hand benefit and will be a "dollar" affair.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Sylvan Cohn for a tea on Saturday afternoon, adding another anticipated number to the post-Easter week affairs.

The wedding of a charming Pendleton girl occurred in Portland yesterday when Miss Gladys Flanagan became the bride of William T. McHatten and a guest at the service was Mrs. Cora E. Lane, mother of the bride, who left Sunday to attend the affair, concerning which the Oregonian says:

A charming event of yesterday afternoon was the wedding of Miss Gladys Flanagan of Pendleton to William T. McHatten. The marriage was a simple affair at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, 523 East Twenty-fourth street. Rev. Oswald Taylor officiating at 4:30 o'clock. The ceremony was read in the library of the Bishop home, and it was gaily decked with bouquets of pink-petaled apples.

blossoms, Ghisella roses being used in the dining and drawing rooms.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Cora E. Lane of Pendleton and she has been in Spokane for several months taking the nurse's training. She is a popular girl with hosts of friends in Spokane as well as Portland.

The bride's only attendant was little Elizabeth Jane Bishop who was ring bearer.

Mrs. John R. Dickson, formerly of Pendleton, now of this city, sang two songs preceding the ceremony. Only the immediate families were present, with a few close friends. Mr. McHatten is a Portland man and he is a graduate of the University of Montana, in the mining engineering department. He is associated with the Mendota Coal company of Aberdeen and Centralia.

The Artisans last evening enjoyed a dancing party in Eagle-Woodman hall where the decorations were of a patriotic design, with flags and streamers of red, white and blue. The affair was in charge of J. W. McGee and Fletcher's orchestra played for the dancing.

the owner of a cat which last week killed 48 gophers and is proud to state that the little animal does not come the nobility of catdom. It was raised at the horse barn at the state pentonary, and no doubt that is the reason why it is so adept at catching the festive gopher. It probably had good training by guards at the state prison or somebody who has had experience with them.

But City Clerk Willis speaks seriously of this cat's achievement. He feels that cats of this kind are of inestimable value to the community. Forty-eight dead gophers, means a great deal of garden truck will be saved and that there are 48 gophers that will never again undermine the lawns of the city. And he says, this is but one week's record.

He is proud of the cat, for he holds that it is the most industrious cat in town. That is why it catches the gophers. It simply watches to see
