Here's A Gentle Laxative For Elderly People

A daily free movement of the bowels becomes a serious problem as you step from middle-life into old age, and much dependence can no longer be placed on nature herself. The bowels find artificial aid necessary.

The stronger the physique, as old people soon learn, the greater the contraction of the bowels thereafter, and so the wise purposely avoid salt waters, pills and other harsh purgatives. Many have learned to place absolute reliance on the gentle but positive action of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It produces an agreeable movement as nearly natural and free as high pharmaceutical skill can make it. Thousands use it regularly, in the small dose prescribed, and keep themselves in fine health and good cheer, and entirely free from constipation.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS
In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the War, by securing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 25 years. Two sizes—5c and $1.00.

SILVER STRIPES

(EDGAR A. GUEST)
Pendleton.

When we've honored the heroes returning from France And we've mourned for the heroes who fell; When we've done all we can for the homecoming men, Who stood to the shot and the shell, Let us all keep in mind those who lingered behind. The thousands who waited to see— The brave and the true who did all they could do, Yet have only the silver to show.

They went from their homes at the summons for men, They drilled in the heat of the sun; They fell into line with a pluck that was fine. Each cheerfully shouldered a gun. They were ready to die for old glory on high. They were eager to meet with the foe; They were just like the rest of our bravest and best. Though they've only the silver to show.

Their bodies stayed here but their spirits were there, And the boys who looked death in the face For the cause, had no fear for they knew, waiting here, There were many to fill up each place. O, the ships came and went, 'til the battle was spent, And the tyrant went down with the blow! But he still might have reigned but for those who remained, And have only the silver to show.

So here's to the boys unafraid, Let us give them their due; they were glorious, too, And it is not their fault that they stayed. They were eager to share in the sacrifice there, Let them share in the peace that we know. For we know they were brave by the service they gave, Though they've only the silver to show.
