In What Shape Are Your Affairs?

Many people die after a lingering illness of weeks; others again come to a sudden end. You may be the next, no one can tell, but it is well to be prepared and leave your business affairs in such a shape that they will not prove a burden to your relatives.

Our Trust Officer will gladly confer with you on such important matters.

Returned Soldier is Honored by Big Party

(East Oregonian Special) ECHO, Ore., May 9.—A very enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. George in honor of Guy Smith, one of Echo's returned soldiers. The evening was spent in dancing and games. The Echo orchestra was present and furnished some very good music. All reported a fine time. The Echo Auto Company received a car load of Fords this week. Bill Hoffnagle returned to Echo Wednesday from Camp Lewis. Several Echo people attended the high school play at Stanfield Wednesday night. It was said to be a success.

was served in the basement. E. P. Reip is building a neat residence on the alfalfa farm he recently purchased. The Japanese section crew at Muncie quit the first of the month and U. G. Shipley now has charge of the section. Pete Sheridan is in Pendleton this week attending the state shoot.

Postoffice at Gurdane To Have New Master

(East Oregonian Special) GURDANE, May 8.—Frank Jones and wife and daughter, Mrs. Roy Marcum of Pilot Rock, came up Saturday visiting with Mrs. Roy Montgomery, and after attending the picnic Sunday returned home that evening. Bill Selby left Sunday for his home at Pilot Rock after plowing for Chas. Ely the past two weeks. While drilling last week, Joe Corley's team became frightened and ran away with the drill, running over Joe, and breaking the drill. Joe only sustained a few bruises and scratches. Chas. Ely will resign his position as postmaster at Gurdane and Mrs. Charles McDevitt will take it for the summer, having been appointed as assistant postmaster, while Fred Heffner will take it early this fall, having taken over the office. Alpha Harrington has moved his family to the Banks' place, where Mr. Harrington and George Taylor expect to run the Banks mill. Pat Daugherty moved a new engine up last week and expects to install it in his sawmill. The engine is of 28 horsepower. Roy Montgomery and wife and the Corleys returned from Pendleton the first of the week after attending "Grandpa" Corley's funeral at Pendleton. Fred Horner, who has been working for Jones at the Campbell ranch left for Pilot Rock last week. Mrs. Pat Monaghan and son Lewis came up from their homestead Saturday, remaining over Sunday with her parents and attending the picnic. Mike and Pat Daugherty and families came up for the picnic Sunday. Harvey Taylor and wife of Pendleton came up Sunday and will visit awhile with their son, George Taylor, and family. Mr. Taylor's health is very poor and he is hoping the change will benefit him. Alpha Harrington made a business trip to Pilot Rock last week. Gurdane was covered with a blanket of snow and very cold but only lasted a short time. Monday morning it turned warmer. Iun Moore was at Gurdane Sunday. Pat Daugherty has started work on a fine big sheep shed on his ranch here. Frank and Ray Hinkle of Pilot Rock, came up Sunday for the Round-Up. Virgil Piquet was at Gurdane last week. Ora McLaughlin, wife and baby came up from Butter creek for the Round-Up Sunday. The Pat Daugherty place at Gurdane, formerly known as the Charita Cates place, was a scene of much merriment and excitement Sunday when the Gurdane vicinity gathered for a picnic at that place. The picnic was given after the closing of the school last week and a number of the boys rode wild horses and some steers.

Spanish Flu Closes Mountain School

(East Oregonian Special) WESTON MOUNTAIN, May 9.—Mrs. R. E. English's school on Reid and Hanley mountain is closed on account of the Spanish influenza this week. Joe Cannon has moved up to his farm from Athena and is seeding his home ranch on the mountain. W. L. Rayburn and Chas. L. May are shipping a car of seed potatoes to Sunnyvale Wash. Mary Lansdale was married in Pendleton May 2. On account of so much lost time through the winter, school will not until June 12. Mrs. John Hyatt entertains at dinner Sunday in honor of her brother, Private Clyde May recently discharged from the army. Mr. and Mrs. Roy May and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charley May and family and Mrs. J. W. Hyatt. Norval Ferguson had a lucky but narrow escape from a serious accident in returning from Pendleton Saturday night. The lights went out and in trying to cross the bridge just west of Athena they missed it with two wheels. The car turned over completely once and half way again. There were four in the car, Norval, Chester and Myrtle Ferguson and a cousin, Dorsey Sams. They did not receive even a scratch. Mrs. Robert Hopkins had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest and Mrs. Wroe and children. Mr. Chas. Schneider and family expect to return from Washington, where they have finished summer-following, to send their mountain farm this week.

Measles Are Prevalent Among Westland Folk

(East Oregonian Special) WESTLAND, Ore., May 9.—Tom Richards, the son of Glen Richards is seriously ill with measles. Mrs. Walden Rhea spent Monday in Pendleton. Mrs. U. G. Shipley left on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dorn at Inazo, Wash. She is accompanied by her daughter. The families of Arthur Luce, John McElroy and E. T. Jackson of Minnehaha are afflicted with Measles. Al Hiatt representing the Echo garage was a recent Westland visitor. The Westland school expected to have a May day picnic but owing to the storm, the trip to the river was postponed and the picnic luncheon

Cadillac Dependability

The Cadillac Car will give you dependability—the capacity to withstand hard usage day after day and year after year. Cadillac service ability may be compared with that of a faithful watch.

There is permanent peace of mind in the ownership of a car whose performance can always be depended upon—at all times of the year, under all conditions, which call for complete and absolute reliability.
