

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

A few friends from Helix gathered at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. ... Sunday evening to honor Mrs. Planting's brother, Mr. King of Astoria, who recently returned from service overseas. Victrola music was enjoyed and the evening ended with the serving of refreshments. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilson, Miss Grace Garrett, Letcher Norvell, William Johnson and Athol Layton.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gnaavaugh of Naches, Wash., are expected to arrive this evening. They were called by the death of Mrs. Ed Gnaavaugh, whose husband is Mr. Gnaavaugh's brother. During their stay they will be at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Newquist.

Announcing the betrothal of Miss Caroline Bonney to Roscoe Doane of Seattle, Mrs. Holman Perrin presided over a charmingly appointed supper party last evening. Covers were laid for twelve and marking her place each guest found a card bearing heart-shaped pictures of the honoree and her fiancé, accompanied by the date "August." Pink ribbons extended to a great cluster of La France roses, maidenhair fern and lilies of the valley which centered the table for the guests. Further developing the color scheme of pink and delicate green, fluffy strands of tulle drooped to the corners of the table from the electrolier.

The betrothal announcement preceded a shower of good wishes for the bride-elect, who has made many friends during her residence in Pendleton. She is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Bonney and they came here six years ago from Auburn, Maine. Miss Bonney becoming a member of the high school faculty. Mr. Doane was associated with the Pendleton Drug Co. until two years ago when he went to Seattle, later entering army service from which he was recently released.

Mrs. A. L. Schaefer, who has been delightfully entertained in Pendleton as the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. S. Rudd, departed today for Portland. Mrs. Schaefer spent several days of the past week at Pilot Rock as the guest of Mrs. L. C. Scharpf, and after a stay with relatives in Portland she and Mrs. Charles Hadden, who was also a guest in Pendleton recently, will enjoy an outing at the coast where they will be joined by Mrs. Rudd before Mrs. Schaefer returns to her home in Pennsylvania.

Miss Ruth Rudd upon the occasion of her fourth birthday anniversary, was yesterday a charming little hostess, her guests being asked to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rudd. Merry games preceded the birthday lunch, which was served at a table centered by pink sweetpeas and prettily decked with fluffy streamers and bows of tulle. Four pink candles gleamed on a great cake and the entire affair proved a genuine delight to Miss Sara Draper, Miss Marlan Draper, Miss Amy Aldrich, Miss Eleanor Aldrich, Bobbie Snow, Miss Eleanor Fletcher, Billie Fletcher, Maxwell Morse, Miss Janet Sims, Miss Hilda May Hobart, Miss Peggy Hester, Charles Heter, Miss Virginia Rudd and Ronald Rud.

Miss Melba Rude was the successful contestant for the silver medal presented after an interesting program at the Riverside school by the W. C. T. U. last evening. Her selection was entitled "Why Daddy Signed the Pledge." Seven girls and one boy entered the contest and the excellency of their readings caused much comment from members of the audience, many of whom motored out from Pendleton. Judges last evening were Mrs. Alex Manning, Miss Bessie Davidson and Miss Edith English.

Mrs. P. J. Hegeman and her niece, Miss Candice Dabson, are entertaining at a 1 o'clock luncheon and shower honoring Miss Caroline Bonney, whose engagement to Mr. Roscoe Doane of Seattle, was announced last evening.

Mrs. Ernest Knight and little Miss Genevieve Knight of Calgary, Alberta, who are being welcomed for a visit in Pendleton, are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Curt at their farm home.

Paramount among events of yesterday afternoon was an affair inspired by the presence in Pendleton of Mrs. John Ross Dickson of Portland. Mrs. F. E. Hayden, Mrs. Westbrook Dickson, Mrs. George Strand, Mrs. Richard Mayberry and Mrs. Frank Hayes were "at home" between the hours of 2 and 5 as a compliment to the visitor and hosts of old time friends called at the Hayden home to bid her welcome. Throughout the rooms bouquets of spring blossoms and artistic clusters of flowering cedar blended their pastel tones while decking the wide veranda, made homelike by chairs and rugs, were great baskets of wild flowers in brilliant yellow. Music by Fletcher's orchestra was an added pleasure as the guests mingled about the rooms greeting friends.

Mrs. George Hartman, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. Anna Herrick, Mrs. Willard Bond, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. S. R. Thompson, Mrs. W. C. E. Fruit and Mrs. Mark Moorhouse assisted the hostesses in welcoming the guests. Lunch was dispensed by Mrs. Fred Earl, Mrs. L. G. Frazier, Mrs. James Welch, Mrs. Al Slusher, Mrs. Ben Burroughs and Mrs. Charles Bond. In the dining room a charming bouquet of pink sweet peas centered a pretty table, where Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones and Mrs. N. Berkeley presided, being followed during the later hours by Mrs. Wilson D. McNary and Mrs. Frederick E. Judd. Assisting them in serving the guests were Mrs. James Sturgis, Mrs. Dale Slusher, Mrs. Guy Hayden, Miss Edna Thompson, Mrs. Harold Warner and Mrs. H. E. Chloupek.

Mrs. Laura Jerard and Miss Mary Johns returned today from Stanfield where the high school in which they have been faculty members for the past year, closed its spring session yesterday. A final event which marked the commencement festivities was a banquet last evening by which the faculty entertained the students of the high school and their parents. Another Pendleton girl to return will be Miss Alice Hudson who has been teaching in the grades in Stanfield during the year.

McPherson Circle, 44, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet in the club room of the library next Monday at 2:30 o'clock. Initiation will be a feature of the meeting.
