TAKE BELGIUM COLORS.
 PARIS, May 12.—Belgium has issued an official protest to the allies against the German republic's plan to use Belgium's national colors for its new flag. The Germans wished to replace their present flag, red, white and black with the old federation flag of red, gold and black. Gold is not practical for a flag so yellow was substituted, making it coincide with Belgium's national colors for its

JACK JOHNSON NOT WANTED BY MEXICO
 (By United Press.)
 MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Jack Johnson, ex-champion pugilist, who came to Mexico about a month ago to stage a series of "boxing matches" in meeting with a cool reception here, Johnson's first refusal was when a delegation of guests at the best hotel in the city, where he put up, informed the management that his presence was objectionable. He left.
 The second, when city officials politely but definitely informed him his exhibitions were "scandalous, immoral and degrading in the highest degree to public morals, and would under no circumstances be permitted."
 Drug stores and restaurants, where the black pugilist and his wife sought refreshments, have refused to serve him and to ease the climate, Johnson's frequent controversies with men from New Orleans have resulted in many invitations to fight—with Cuba Johnson's presence here is distasteful to the city officials as well as the populace.

Let of Mrs. M. F. Gelles, 8748 Union avenue, while the latter was shopping in a 5 and 19 cent store in State street. From the moment the policeman seized the alleged pickpocket there was fast action.
 Miss Brown turned like a flash, and there was a ripping of clothing, crumpling of hats, and the carefully dressed hair of both was quickly disheveled. Women shoppers screamed and urged about the battlers who finally fell to the floor, pummeling each other with might and main in the good old-fashioned free for all style.
 Finally Mrs. Faubel, wrenching an arm loose from the grasp of Mrs. Brown, extracted a revolver from her handbag, and pressing it to the side of her assailant, shouted to her to submit to arrest. The sight of the gun had the desired effect and both women arose, while the audience, having learned the nature of the trouble, applauded loudly for Mrs. Faubel and her pluck. Some one had turned in a call to the police and a patrol auto held.

ARTFUL DODGER HAS NO CHANCE

Put a few drops on that old touchy corn then lift it out without pain

This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. A delightful surprise awaits all who try this.

He says freezone is a sticky substance which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone which will cost very little at any drug store, is said to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

Policewoman Stages Fast and Furious Battle With 15 Cent Store Pickpocket

CHICAGO, May 12.—It was a fast and furious fight while it lasted and the marks of queensberry rules were thrown into the discard this afternoon when Mrs. Alice Clements-Faubel, policewoman captured and arrested Margaret Brown for picking the pocket of Mrs. M. F. Gelles, 8748 Union avenue, while the latter was shopping in a 5 and 19 cent store in State street. From the moment the policeman seized the alleged pickpocket there was fast action.
 Miss Brown turned like a flash, and there was a ripping of clothing, crumpling of hats, and the carefully dressed hair of both was quickly disheveled. Women shoppers screamed and urged about the battlers who finally fell to the floor, pummeling each other with might and main in the good old-fashioned free for all style.
 Finally Mrs. Faubel, wrenching an arm loose from the grasp of Mrs. Brown, extracted a revolver from her handbag, and pressing it to the side of her assailant, shouted to her to submit to arrest.
