

SATISFACTION

What a world of meaning is bound up in that one word, and how much depends on it! It is not enough that you should find the merchandise you need at this store. It is not enough that you should meet with a hearty welcome or should be given the best of attention. Satisfaction embodies both these essentials and goes still further. It means that at no time in the future shall you have cause to regret any transaction ever made at this store. And this is the kind of satisfaction we insist on giving to our patrons, day in and day out, throughout every month of every year. MAKE THIS STORE YOUR STORE.

EAST OREGONIAN, SPECIAL NEWS OF UMATILLA CO.

Visiting Teacher Plan Proposed at Umatilla

(East Oregonian Special)

UMATILLA, May 21.—The Umatilla schools have adopted a plan whereby the teachers take visiting trips to other rooms in the building and in that way make helpful suggestions and plans in furthering the progress of the school. A teachers visiting day is to be observed in the school during the coming term and all teachers plan to visit some other school in the county. Another innovation suggested is "Go to School Day" which will bring many patrons to the school to observe the regular work. Owing to the time lost throughout the year, all available time has been devoted entirely to regular school work.

A short program is to be given at the close of the term.

Umatilla high school is the receiver of a copy of the "Beaver" published by the O. A. C. student body.

The government dam above Umatilla is a rendezvous for Sunday picknickers and fishermen of late. Among those who visited the place lately are J. A. Stephens and family, Mr. Ed. W. and a score of others.

As a highlight between Boardman and Umatilla Sunday resulted in a visit for Boardman, Leslie, Pringle, Umatilla, travel with Boardman, Albert Logan, is the possessor of a diploma given by the American Penman. Harvey and Irons, the restaurant boys have moved into a new location. Jeff Stephens and family plan on attending the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb in Pendleton, Thursday.

Umatilla's principal is having some repairing done on the Bullock house in which his family will move in a few weeks.

W. R. Nugent is in Pendleton taking treatment for the injuries sustained some weeks ago when he was struck by a switch engine.

The health crusade carried on by the pupils has resulted in many improvements along the line of sanitation.

The Umatilla school has some interesting material and facts along the line of gardening from Ruby Peterson of Parma, Idaho, and Ruel Chandler of Ridgefield, Washington. They are the State Industrial Club winners in gardening in their respective states.

Kansas Man Delighted With Umatilla County

(East Oregonian Special) MILTON, May 21.—H. D. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes of Kansas are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Simmons near Proewater. Mr. Hughes has been traveling for several months in different parts of the west and is emphatic when he says he believes Umatilla county is the best section he has yet seen.

The Rev. F. A. Ross and Miss Irene Reynolds left Tuesday afternoon as delegates from the Christian church Sunday school in Milton to the annual State Sunday school association which convenes in Baker today. Miss Jessie Brinley, who was a member of the Milton high school faculty last year, has returned to her home in Stanfield to spend the summer vacation.

Mrs. Kate Russel who has been visiting relatives in Milton and vicinity has returned to her home at Sprague, Washington.

Mrs. T. H. Mellory is seriously ill at her home on Grover street, threatened with an attack of influenza.

W. A. Ingram has moved from Proewater to Milton and opened a shoe repair shop in the building formerly occupied by the late J. G. Welch.

It. E. Marvin, wife and boy have moved to Milton from Enterprise and are making their home in the Frank Lamb residence on Elizabeth street.

J. W. Terwilliger a former Milton resident now making his home in La Grande, came over yesterday to get his automobile and left last night for the Grande Ronde valley, going the Toll Gate road.

Henry a Barrett of Athena who owns a large wheat and stock farm southwest of Umatilla was in Milton Tuesday transacting business and visiting for a few minutes with friends.

Miss Effa Griffin left yesterday for Washtucna where she expects to visit for several weeks.

A delegation of Milton "Dokkies" was present in Pendleton Monday night when more than 20 strangers were phoned across the morning sands in the initiatory work of this order.

They report a grand time, a fine banquet and did not get home until 2 o'clock in the morning. Among those going from here were: N. J. Vankko, R. T. Mostey, Robert Lee, G. R. Cockburn and Grant Steen.

Members of Milton Lodge No. 94 A. F. & A. M. visited Walla Walla lodge Monday night and conferred the third degree of the Masonic order on a large class of candidates. About 20 from here were in the visiting party.

They report a fine evening entertainment and a bounteous repast at the conclusion of the work.

S. H. Woods, chief ranger of the Forestry department in the Ukiah district was in Milton Sunday and Monday visiting friends and looking after business interests. He took with him on his return a couple of trained saddle horses for use in range work in the Ukiah district this summer.

RATE INCREASE IS DEEMED NECESSARY

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—Freight rates must be increased 15 per cent if railroads are to be saved from bankruptcy. Samuel Dunn, editor of the Railway Age, told the American iron, steel and heavy hardware association here. He said an increase is necessary whether the railroads are operated by the government or private owners.

MARSHAL FIELD, THIRD, JUST OUT OF UNIFORM HIMSELF, HELPING TO FIND JOBS FOR SOLDIERS

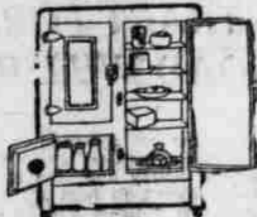

Captain Marshall Field, third, one of the wealthiest young men in the country, who recently was discharged from service to find a job, is seen here interviewing a soldier just released from service to find a job. Field has been active in the outside of his official capacity in federal employment bureau in Chicago finding jobs for soldiers and sailors.
