Warmest Day so Far.
With the mercury at 93, Pendleton is today getting a saample of real summer weather. This is the highest temperature reached yet this season. The minimum is 44, with the wind in the northwest and the weather clear.

Book of Last Session Laws Here.
The first copy of the 1919 session laws, enacted by the recent Oregon legislature, was received by County Clerk R. T. Brown yesterday. The copy contains exactly 1000 pages and is one of the largest volumes ever received here of its kiknd. In a few days copies for use of all the county officials are expected.

Home Surveys This Week.
Home surveys of 150 farms in Umatilla county will be made next week by Miss Lorene Parker, county demonstration agent, to secure data which has been requested by the United States government. Miss Parker will visit the farms, taking with her the blanks which have been sent out by the government and which are to be filled with farm information.

Railroad Teams to Play Here.
The O.-W. R. & N. baseball teams from Portland and from Rieth will play on the Round-Up park grounds on Sunday, June 8, in what promises to be one of the feature games of the season here, it was announced today. The game will be a case of the smallest terminal against the largest, but the Rieth men promise to have a high class aggregation assembled and will give the Portland men a battle for supremacy.

Duncan and Gibbon Play Ball.
Baseball between the small towns on the railroad east of here was played for the first time Sunday when Gibbon sent a nine to Duncan that took a 12 to 6 game on the Duncan grounds. A return game has been arranged for next Sunday at Gibbon. Considerable interest was manifested by the rooters for both teams and the game promises to become popular for the summer pastimers in the shadow of the Blue mountains.

Mayor to Electrical Convention.
Mayor J. L. Vaughan will leave on No. 21 tonight for Portland to be present Thursday and Friday at the annual state convention of the Oregon Electrical Contractors, of which he is Eastern Oregon vice president. The convention opened today but tomorrow is to be the important day. A banquet will be held in the Hotel Portland tomorrow evening as a part of the entertainment for the delegates. The mayor will be gone until Saturday.

Indian to Wave Hearing.
Ned Harsche, young Indian charged with violation of the Mann act, was taken before S. A. Newberry, U. S. commissioner, this morning and the complaint against him read. He will have his first hearing tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the same office. U. S. Deputy Attorney Charles Reames of Portland, is expected to be here for the hearing. He is a brother of Clarence Reames, who was formerly U. S. district attorney at Portland.

R. N. Stanfield Will Take Stump.
R. N. Stanfield, who was in the city yesterday, is trying to arrange his business affairs so that he can take the stump for the reconstruction measure, the irrigation measure and the Roosevelt highway measure, all of which are to be voted on at the special election in June. As a member of the reconstruction committee, Mr. Stanfield is particularly interested in the passage of these measures, explaining that they are of vital necessity for the development of the state and for opening up latest resources.—Oregonian.

Voting on Railroad Disposal.
In order to commit the State Chamber of Commerce to a policy regarding the return of railroads by the government, that body is sending out a questionnaire to commercial organizations of the state with the various propositions to be voted on. Two of the board of managers of the Pendleton Commercial Association, who are all that have been approached so far with the questionnaire, favor the idea of returning the railroads to private ownership and management, with more extended regulation than before the war, but without government guarantee of the earnings. Only the board of managers will vote on the proposals as a special meeting is deemed unnecessary at this time.

H. J. Taylor in Portland.
Handling grain in bulk, instead of sacks, does not apepal to H. J. Taylor, who has been farming for 40 years nine miles from Pendleton. He says that anyone can sit down and figure out that handling in bulk is more expensive than the practice of using sacks. Also Mr. Taylor declares that with the guaranteed price of wheat farmers are no better off than when they were paid $1 a bushel, because of present increased costs. Mr. Taylor was one of the pioneers in the wheat growing of Umatilla county. He bought a homestead right for $300 for 160 acres, and the land is now worth more than $200 an acre. When he polled up the sage brush and plowed under the bunch grass the sheep and cattle men predicted that he would fail and that they would get his fences. It was known that when the bunch grass was plowed under it wouldn't come up again and the stockmen did not believe that wheat would grow. Mr. Taylor was one of the farmers who knocked this incredulity into a cocked hat.—Oregonian.

Local Boy in New York.
Charley Bowers, a Pendleton boy who left here with the old Troop D, arrived in New York yesterday and expects to be discharged and home in a fortnight, according to a wire received today by his father, C. L. Bowers.

Waits Eight Years; Tires.
Mrs. Jemima Slemp has waited nearly eight years for Clark C. Slemp to return to her but today she decided she was tired of waiting longer and she entered suit for divorce from him in circuit court. The couple was married in Walla Walla on March 31, 1908. S. D. Peterson is her attorney.

Baker to Vote Road Bonds.
Baker county is to vote on a $500,000 local road bond issue in connection with the special state election June 3, according to W. L. Thompson, who returned from a conference with Baker road officials this morning. There are a number of projects to be taken up if the issue is passed. The six per cent bonding limit bill and the reclamation guarantee bill seem to be favored by the voters, according to Mr. Thompson.

Man Who Accused Albers Here.
Deputy U. S. Marshal F. B. Tichenor, who preferred the charges against Henry Albers, Portland miller, which resulted in Albers' conviction, is in Pendleton today on official business. He was on the train at the time Albers made remarks derogatory to the United States government and was one of the chief witnesses in the case.

The Oscar Indians of our great Southwest are said to be the richest people per individual in the world. Ownership and royalty rights in immensely productive Oklahoma oil lands are the source of the wealth. Lo, the poor Indian!

In these reconstruction days men and women leaders are needed who literally have "iron in their blood." Peptiron combines iron-nux-pepsin in true medicinal form. Gives strength of iron to the blood, nerves and digestion, freshens the complexion, reddens pale cheeks, gives the good cheer of health, reduces danger from colds and exposure. Remember the name, Peptiron.
