SPOKANE, May 22.—Spokane, May 22.—Alleging that his war bride, Cleopatra McEwen, of Norfolk, Va., refused to live with him in dry territory Sergeant Glen McEwen, wearing a distinguished service cross, has asked for a divorce. The couple married at Norfolk in February and came west. It is alleged trouble started when Mrs. McEwen discovered that there was no "loophole" out here. The couple lived together but three days. McEwen won his decoration for rescuing wounded men under machine gun fire.

STARTING TO RELIEVE ARMY OF OCCUPATION

Uncle Sam is sending troops to relieve the Army of Occupation on the Rhine as fast as recruits join the new army. This photograph was taken on board the transport Agamemnon while a contingent of one thousand men was waiting to start for France. For some of the boys it was their first trip overseas. Others resented because they had been disappointed in not seeing service in France.

Beauties of Columbia Not Yet on Map, are Pictured in Magazine

The little-known beauties of the source of the Columbia River find recognition in the April number of the National Geographic magazine, which in a 19 page illustrated article by Herbert Gleason, entitled "On the Trail of a Horse Thief," describes the country of which no map has yet been made.

The winding shores of Lake Windermere, and of Upper Columbia Lake where the river finds its source, are described. In describing the trip up the Columbia, the article declares that the journey is one of ceaseless charm. Horse Thief Trail itself, along Horse Thief Creek, is pictured, as well as the eight distinct waterfalls that can be seen while the visitor is standing in one particular spot. Horse Thief Glacier is another attraction featured in the article.

Bets on Ponies, Fixes Own Fine, $50 to Charity

CHICAGO, May 22.—Judge Hugh R. Stewart in the South Clark street municipal court asserted that the American people have a large percentage of sporting blood in their veins; that if all the persons who daily placed "dollars on the ponies" were arrested it would take a Coliseum to hold them.

"What would you do about it?" the judge asked Patrick O'Malley, first ward politician and owner of a saloon at 763 South Clark street, charged with accepting a bet on the Kentucky Derby, run last Saturday at Louisville, Ky.

"I'll donate $50 to the Salvation Army," offered O'Malley. "Dismissed."

Girls Have Canning Club

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 22.—High school girls in Union have organized a cannibalized canning club and plan to buy a large canner and to obtain contracts for canning fruits and vegetables. A timber crew near Union has given the club a contract and other contracts are expected to be entered into soon.

The leader is Maude Spaine, state champion of the canning clubs in 1918. The membership is 20. The girls are in the work because they want to be and not because they were talked into it. A. L. O'Reilly, assistant state club leader, says.

Ford Farmers Organize

CENTRALIA, May 22.—The Ford and Waunakee Prairie Farmers' Protective association was organized at a meeting held on Ford's prairie. A. P. Hardy was elected chairman, A. J. Milen secretary and J. Nelson treasurer. Committees were appointed to draw up a constitution and by laws.

Cattle Sent to Belgium

LONDON, May 22.—Six hundred shorthorn cattle of the very best breed have been presented by the Royal Agricultural society of Great Britain to the people of Belgium, and 200 of them have already reached farms in the vicinity of Bruges. The remainder will follow in a few weeks.

The cattle, which are valued at $200,000, will be supplemented in the near future with additional gifts, after which more cattle are to be sent to Serbia and France to take the place of the livestock killed or carried away by the German invaders. Money for the gifts is being collected in all the English cattle-raising counties, and the leaders of the movement expect the fund to reach $1,250,000 within the next few months.

Raymond Man Badly Hurt

RAYMOND, Wash., May 22.—Martin Huter, of the firm of Brown & Huter, tailors, was run over by an automobile Monday night and severely injured. He was going home on his bicycle when John Roskie of Pe Ell ran him down. Roskie said he met another automobile and in passing it got on the wrong side of the road. Huter was taken to the hospital, where an examination showed a collar bone and three ribs broken. His spine was hurt and his back and arms lacerated. He was injured internally also and it is feared he cannot live.

Huter is one of the leaders of the Polish settlers of this vicinity and was prominent in Liberty loan drives.

We shall have another grievance from Berlin pretty soon, for the newspapers of Paris have ungenerally expressed the opinion that the ladies accompanying the Austrian peace delegation at St. Germain are far more attractive than the feminine element from Germany at Versailles. No League of Nations can deal with offenses of this description, as Senators Lodge and Knox have already assured us.

Diamond SQUEEGEE TREAD Tires

Every Tire some day must "Go West"

it will have run its course — have lived its life.

Men are measured by their deeds, nations by their accomplishments, and a brand of tires by its Great Average Mileage.

That's how we chose Diamonds. It isn't only the spasmodic burst of big mileage, but the steady, persistent rolling up of 5,000, 6,000 and 8,000 miles that keeps our customers happy.

When Diamonds "Go West," they say: "I've had my money's worth. Give me another like it." That's what keeps us in business. Our stocks are always complete.
