"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NEES, 1840 E. Hazard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY DAUGHTER OF WELL KNOWN POLITICIAN JILTED AT ALTAR

Flance Found in State of Intoxication Refuses to Marry Girl. The guests waited at the handsomely furnished Westphal home and the bride-to-be waited hysterically in her room, comforted by her dearest friend.

Then came the voice of one of the thugs over the wire. "We've found him with a cabaret singer in a downtown cafe. He's drunk as a lord and declares he will not marry your daughter."

So this was the end of his dreams, his scheme to attain social position, mused Westphal. He broke the news gently to his daughter, but, baring the humiliation and insult, the girl was happy for she had been the unwilling victim of her father's ambition, the detested Gorman.

ARCADÉ SUNDAY AND MONDAY FAIRBANKS' ONE AMBITION WAS TO ACT IN "ARIZONA"

When the opportunity came, Athletic Star seized it with avidity. The fact that "Arizona" was pictured four years ago by its author, Augustus Thomas, did not discourage Douglas Fairbanks from doing it himself and reviving the attractive character of "Lieutenant Denton." It will be shown at the Arcade theatre Sunday and Monday.

Ever since he first saw the play "Arizona" it has been his dream—his one great ambition—to produce it, and when the opportunity arrived to do it, it was a happy day for Douglas Fairbanks.

An all star cast was organized which includes Theodora Roberts, Marjorie Daw, Frederick Burton, Kathleen Kirkham, Frank Campbell, Marguerite de la Motte, Kate Price, Robert Boulder, Raymond Hatton and Albert McQuarrie. The latter appeared with Mr. Fairbanks in "He Comes Up Smiling" and "Bound in Morocco." This is said to be as fine a cast as has been assembled in any motion picture.

The salary list of this exceptional cast was amazing. Several members of the company were brought specially from New York to California, their salaries starting the day they left, and continuing until their return to Manhattan.

Bathing Girls Pass in Review Where Once Was Cactus Covered Desert

PHOENIX, Ariz.—The first bathing girl parade ever held in what formerly was cactus greenwood-covered desert was what Phoenix witnessed May 17. Atlantic City, on the eastern coast, or Venice, on the California seaboard never have exhibited more striking, colored bathing costumes than those which passed in review here. This, at least, was the opinion of those who

Lad of Twelve is Daddy of Family

ATLANTA, Ga., May 26.—A twelve-year-old lad, half clothed, weak with hunger, a few weeks ago led his mother and sister, also cold and ill-fed, to the gate of the Atlanta federal prison and asked Warden Zerkoff for permission to see the imprisoned father. Inside, with the warden present, the lad told his father of how a merciless landowner had turned them out of their little home in the North Georgia mountains and of the thirty-five-mile tramp in the cold, without a morsel to eat, to see his father. Zerkoff's eyes moistened, the hungry visitors were soon fed and the lad was given employment.

TOUCHET VALLEY TO HOLD FAIR

DAYTON, Mass., May 26.—The board of directors of the Touchet Valley Fair association has decided to hold a county agricultural fair and racing meet this fall. It is the first event of the kind to be considered since before the war, and there is enthusiasm over the prospects. Immediate preparations will be begun by the farmers for large exhibits of live stock, fancy poultry, cereals, fruits and vegetables.

MRS. GERARD HAS THE CAMERA'S EYE

Anytime Mrs. Gerard wants a job in the U. S. secret service she has it for it was Mrs. Gerard's excellent memory for faces that sent the only American soldier known to have turned traitor to prison. The traitor was Henry Bode, German born, miner in Butte, spy in Russia, soldier of fortune in Mexico and deserter from the American army at Fort Bliss. Bode made his way to Germany, where he won the Iron Cross and was sent to America to help stir trouble between the U. S. and Mexico. Before he left Germany he called at the American embassy in German uniform. After his arrest in California he was identified by Mrs. Gerard.

DOG WINS FREEDOM DOING ARMY STUNTS

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—If a little poodle dog can stand at attention, forward march, halt and cleverly execute army maneuvers, he is too intelligent to be confined with an ordinary society poodle. At least that is what Magistrate Grellis thinks, and so after Kelley, an intelligent white poodle dog, had given an exhibition yesterday in the 11th and Winter street station. Grellis acquitted Kelley of the charge of being a "lap dog" and released him and his Poplar streets. Haggart had been or master, J. Haggart of Pennock and rested because Kelley looked like the missing pet of a society woman.

His Substitute. She: Is he very bashful? 24 Diner: When he took me on the roller-coaster he told me to hold tight to the bar or I'd fall out.
