ADIRONDACKS IS SCENE OF BILLIE BURKE'S NEW FILM

Beautiful Lake Placid, in the Adirondacks Mountains in New York, was the background for many of the most charming scenes pictured in "The Make-Believe Wife," Billie Burke's new Paramount photoplay, which will be shown at the Alta theatre today. They looked ranged from eight to 13 which Miss Burke displays her talents as a comedienne to the best possible advantage.

In the story Miss Burke portrays the role of a young society woman who is engaged to a lawyer. She is hostess to a house party at her home in the Adirondacks. Her fiancé, a young athletic society man stray off into the mountains together and are lost! They are seeking their bearings when a storm comes up and they are obliged to spend the night in a cabin which they providentially discover.

The unusual situation is made the pretext for a demand upon the couple to wed, after they have been found by a searching party. They agree to this, for each secretly loves the other despite the fact that they are promised in other quarters. After their marriage the groom hastens away to China so as to permit his bride to obtain a divorce. But through the substitution of suitcases this plan goes awry and the couple are later reunited under dramatic and highly amusing circumstances, as the sequel proves.

Miss Burke is splendidly supported in this production, her leading man being David Powell, a favorite screen player. The picture was adapted for the screen by Adrian Gil-Spear and directed by John Stuart Robertson.

SHOOTS REFORMATION INTO TOWN WHICH OUSTED PREACHER

The strenuous methods of the late Colonel Roosevelt in achieving reforms are recalled in "Hell Roarin' Reform," a William Fox Screen production, having Tom Mix as its star, which is to be presented at the Arcade theatre today. The play deals with the evil spirits of Tarantula, a bandit-ridden town whose outlaw residents oust the preacher—and it is Mix's task to shoot religion and righteousness into the place. The Fox cowboy star is said to do this with the same degree of directness that Roosevelt used in tackling trusts, malefactors, molluscoides and undesirables.

Numberless new thrills are promised in "Hell Roarin' Reform," which is declared to be the liveliest western drama in which Mix has appeared. Among other things, Mix leaps on horseback from the upper balcony of one building to the roof of another, plunging through the roof with his horse; he rides down a steep mountain trail at a headlong gallop, routs a band of stagecoach robbers by firing three guns at one time, and shoots a pipe out of a man's mouth.

A JOKE ON THE POLICE

During the entire story of "The Lightning Raider," Pathe's new serial starring Pearl White, the working of Lightning's brilliant mind is cleverly brought out in the action, but in the seventh episode, "Meshes of Evil," she accomplishes the brightest coup of her entire career. Lightning is the cleverest girl thief in the world who is wanted by the police of many nations, but she has stopped stealing in order to help her friend, Tom Norton, secure an ebony block from his arch-enemy, Wu Fang. In the seventh episode Tom and Lightning have been cornered by Wu Fang, and his henchmen in a lonely house and are trapped in an upper room. They manage to phone for the police and when the bluecoats arrive Wu Fang and his gang of Chinese thugs take to their heels. Lightning then tells the officers that the fleeing girl is Lightning and her gang of thieves and asks for protection against them. So half of the squad of police chase Wu Fang while the remainder stay to protect Lightning from herself.

VERSATILITY OR STAR SHOWN IN DANCES

Nazimova, the great star of the Metro pictures, "Revelation," which will be presented at the Arcade theatre starting Thursday shows her ability as an artistic interpreter of classic dancing in this photodrama.

Dressed as a bacchant, a presiding of Bacchus, god of wine and revelry, with leaves in her hair, a garland of grapes across her shoulders, with a goblet in one hand, and a cluster of grapes in the other, she performs "La Danse Bacchante," typifying the exuberant spirit of revelry of a Parisian café.

The great Nazimova executed this dance with true artistry and poetry of motion in graceful movements which were ideal for registration by the motion picture camera. On the screen this dance is a revelation in accurate presentation of dance movements in motion pictures.

Will Denounce Paid Sunday Amusements, Dances and Tobacco

DENVER, May 28.—Paid Sunday amusements—theatrical performances, motion picture shows, baseball games and similar attractions to which an admission is charged—will be denounced by the Northern Baptist convention, now in session in Denver, in the opinion of Dr. Samuel Zane Batten of Philadelphia. Dr. Batten is a prominent member of the resolutions committee and he predicts that the committee will incorporate in its report a denunciation of all Sunday paid amusements.

Other matters which may be passed on by this committee include the Willard-Dempsey fight at Toledo, July 4, the new dances, including the "shimmy shiver"—and tobacco using.

STOMACH TROUBLES

AN IRRITABLE, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach troubles by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Try them. They only cost a quarter.

"I do not believe this Northern Baptist convention will start a crusade against tobacco, but I do think we will express our disapproval of the campaign of tobacco dealers to force a cigarette into the mouth of every American soldier," declared Dr. Batten.

Some of the new dances are "pretty rocky," in Dr. Batten's judgment.

The question of the Willard-Dempsey fight has not yet come before the convention, but a number of delegates believe the authorities should be petitioned to stop the battle on the ground that it will be a "brutal, demoralizing exhibition."

Without a Doubt the Greatest Star of the Age

Like the regular Ford cars the Ford Model T One-Ton Truck is a real farm necessity, just as it is the necessity of manufacturer, contractor and merchant. There is no question about it proving a money-saver right from the start. It is flexible, turning in a 46-foot circle; has 124-inch wheel base; the regular Ford motor with worm drive—and has proven as economical in operation and maintenance as the Ford Touring Car. The price of the truck chassis is $550 f. o. b. Detroit. We urge placing orders without delay in order to get reasonably fair delivery. The demand is big—come in and let us talk it over.
