Dempsey Better Than Johnson. BY H. C. HAMILTON. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) NEW YORK, May 29.—In a recent statement Jess Willard is reported to have said that when he fought Jack Johnson he was hit so hard that his jaw bone was cracked and that Johnson punished him so severely about the body that three of his ribs were broken. Jess then added, according to this reported statement, that since Johnson had given him such a punishment and still did not win, there was little chance that Jack Dempsey would be able to hurt him.

much boxing. Undoubtedly the big champion deserves a great deal of credit for his nerve in carrying out the exhibition tour with three broken ribs and fractured jaw, but how he can compare Johnson's punching, even with the broken bones, with that of Dempsey puzzles comprehension. Dempsey is the greatest punching heavyweight since the days of Pitsimmons. Even should he lose to Willard, this fact remains.

State to Keep Roll of Liberty Loan Workers

PORTLAND, May 28.—For preservation in the archives of the state, Oregon now is bent upon the preparation of a roster which will comprise the names of more than 15,000 men and women who served in the five liberty loan campaigns and whose individual zeal and effort made possible the winning of national laurels. At the request of the state librarian who presented the necessity and propriety of making a permanent record of liberty loan workers, Robert E. Smith, state executive campaign manager of the liberty loan, has launched the work of compiling the roster in every county and city in the state. "The task is a huge one," said Mr. Smith last night. "County and town organizations have been asked to begin at once the compilation of complete lists of those who served in the five loans—managers, captains, lieutenants, and so on. . . It will be a roll-call of the unchallenged and unswerving loyalists who gave their time and their effort to the winning of the war through the success of the five big drives for funds." Copies of the roster, when complete, will be filed with the state librarian and with the Oregon Historical society. The work will be finished within a fortnight, it is expected. Work on Umatilla county's roster was begun a week ago.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast. Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it causes a throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, dependent, sick, feverish and miserable your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins. A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for a while, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal. Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons. Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush-out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning, never have any headaches or know a miserable moment.

EDITH CAVELL GLAD TO DIE FOR COUNTRY. LONDON, May 28.—"I expected my sentence, but I am glad to die for my country. In the sight of eternity, I know now it is not enough to love only your own country. You must love all, and not hate any." Those were among the last words of Edith Cavell, the British nurse who was executed by the Germans in Belgium. The church man to whom they were spoken, the Rev. H. S. T. Gahan, has just returned to England from Brussels, where with his wife he remained throughout the war. Aided by a German protestant military chaplain, Mr. Gahan received permission, he says, to see Miss Cavell in prison on the night before the death sentence was executed. "With the chaplain," Mr. Gahan said, "I went to the cell door and it opened, and Miss Cavell stood in the doorway. I had gone prepared for a very trying scene. There stood my friend—looking as calmly sweet as anyone could look. She was unchanged, except that she appeared better for the enforced rest in prison. The warden withdrew and we were not interrupted. "I remember practically all she said. She was thankful for the quiet time, as her life had been such a burden and rush in many respects. She was not sorry to go, for her life had contained so much trial that she was weary beyond endurance. "They have treated me very kindly here," she said. "The little communion vessels were placed on a chair, and after the service Mr. Gahan recited "Abide with me." Miss Cavell joining under her breath. "Then I felt," the minister continued, "that I must not stay much longer, for I had been there an hour. I stood up and said, "Goodbye," and we were face to face. She was looking slightly strained, but nothing more. We shook hands and smiled, and I added, "We shall meet again. Good-bye."
