Crocodiles Do Not Worry Pearl.
 Pearl White, heroine of Pathe's new sensational serial, "The Lightning Raider," is called upon to face monsters of the ocean and jungle in this remarkable serial. Not satisfied with pitting their star against a giant octopus in the second episode, the Pathe scenario experts matched their heroine against a score of crocodiles and as many pythons in "The Cave of Dread," the eighth episode and, as might be expected, Miss White in her role of The Lightning Raider faces the deadly denizens of the South American forests. Lightning and her friend, Tom Norton, have penetrated the deepest jungles of Brazil in their search for the secret of the ebony block and are closely followed by their enemy, Wu Fang, who has bought their native guides so that they will help to destroy the boy and girl. Finally the native guides roll a great rock across the mouth of a tunnel which Tom and Lightning have entered. With one entrance blocked, they have to go ahead towards the other end, but between them and a safe exit is a great pool filled with crocodiles, while giant pythons swing themselves from the trees on either side. For a moment it seems as if the pair are trapped, but Lightning points towards the overhanging branches of a great tree over the pool and she and Tom swing themselves on it and thence proceed over the pool to safety.

WHY

do the business men of Detroit use more than 500 Acason trucks, when they can have their choice of a dozen other well known trucks made in their own city?

In Detroit the buyers are motor-wise. So will you be wise if you buy an Acason truck.

COMEDY
"SHORTY LICKS THE GREASERS"

Like the regular Ford cars the Ford Model T One-Ton Truck is a real farm necessity, just as it is the necessity of manufacturer, contractor and merchant. There is no question about it proving a money-saver right from the start. It is flexible, turning in a 46-foot circle; has 124-inch wheel base; the regular Ford motor with worm drive—and has proven as economical in operation and maintenance as the Ford Touring Car. The price of the truck chassis is $550 f. o. b. Detroit. We urge placing orders without delay in order to get reasonably fair delivery. The demand is big—come in and let us talk it over.

CHINA'S NO PLACE FOR LITTLE GIRLS

"You can put your babies here," is what the Chinese characters mean on the box in the picture in the circle. These "baby boxes" are still used in certain parts of China by parents who wish to get rid of their children, and also by those who want to find some to adopt. But one must look for girls only, boy babies are never, never given away. Out of its budget of $105,000,000 for rebuilding the world, the missionary centenary of the Methodist Episcopal church will use $7,501,588 in China.

CHARLES RAY FARM BRUDGE AND POET IN "STRING BEANS"

Toby Watkins is the all-around drudge on his uncle's farm—a twenty acre patch of black mud entirely surrounded by mortgages. This is the opening sentence from Julien Josephson's scenario, "String Beans," which serves to introduce Charles Ray in his next Paramount picture which will be shown at the Alta theater today. In highly condensed form it presents a vivid picture of the story's scenes.

Toby Watkins is the sort of country boy, brave, humorous and thoroughly human, that all Charles Ray's admirers like to see him portray. It is the sort of character that has made the Ray Pictures sure-fire offerings from the exhibitor's point of view. But Toby Watkins is no ordinary boy. He is imaginative and somewhat dramatic, and every night when his day's work is done he goes to his room and takes out a book that he has bought by mail, "What Every Young Post Ought to Know." For Toby is ambitious to be a writer.

The scenes of the story change to a country newspaper office where Toby goes in search of opportunity. This part of the story is developed with realism and charm by the author, Julien Josephson, who was formerly a country editor himself, and who writes of that life with delightful sympathy.

It is stated, that Ray's handling of the role of Toby Watkins will rank as one of the best screen portraits. Excellent support is provided by Jane Novak, John P. Lockney, Donald MacDonald, Al Filson and Otto Hoffman. Victor Schertzinger directed and Chester Lyons was the photographer.

Many Meet Death In Theatre Fire

VALENCE-SUB RHONE, June 4.—Fire broke out yesterday during the performance in a moving picture house here and a large number of persons were killed or injured. Early last evening the list of dead had reached 80, the bodies of 53 children and 21 women having been found at that hour. The injuries of most of those taken from the building were slight. There were some 100 of these.

Four thousand spectators were in the theater and when the fire broke out in the operator's cabinet there was a mad rush for the exits. Many children were trampled on.

Discharged Soldier May Obtain Liquor Is Judge's Opinion

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—United States District Attorney Henaley, in a letter to Excise Commissioner Lewis today, placed a construction on the law relating to the selling of liquor to men in the uniform of the army or navy. He holds the law permits sales to men in uniform if they have been discharged from service.

Henaley said that he desired to cooperate with the Excise Commissioner and other officers in the enforcement of federal laws. He explained that the act of congress under consideration referred only to men in the military or naval service and who were in uniform, so that to constitute a violation of the federal act the liquor must be sold to a man who had not been discharged.

The correspondence between Henaley and Lewis resulted from a visit to St. Louis last Monday of Maj. Fraser, in charge of law enforcement as it affects soldiers, sailors and marines in a district in which St. Louis is included. Maj. Fraser in an address to 25 saloonkeepers told them they would violate the law if they sold liquor to men in uniform even if they had been discharged from service.

On Halks, Man Swears.
KANSAS CITY, June 4.—A new and costly way of herding cattle has been discovered by L. D. Kibbee, a dairyman on the Kansas side. Kibbee was arrested, charged with discharging firearms within the city limits. I Judge Herrod's court Kibbee said he shot a cow because she wouldn't go through a fence. "They are my cows and I can shoot 'em if I want to, judge," he told the court. "One heifer wouldn't go through the fence and so I shot her twice with some No. 5 birdshot."
