$5,000 IN OPIUM SEIZED IN RAID IN WYOMING TOWN

DENVER, July 3.—The largest quantity of smoking opium ever found by government agents in the Colorado-Wyoming district was seized Monday in Rock Springs, Wyo., when inspectors from the office of Internal Revenue Agent A. G. Dingley of Denver raided the home of Pete Burrill and placed him under arrest. Seventy-one pound cans of smoking opium, valued at more than $5,000 were seized by the internal revenue inspectors.

Inspectors H. V. Williamson and H. B. Westover of the Denver office, co-operating with the local sheriff, made the raid and the arrest of Burrill. Burrill probably will be held in Cheyenne pending action by the Wyoming federal grand jury.

Without a daylight saving law, however, almost any one can arise an hour earlier in summer and get special enjoyment out of life by so doing.
