· She is suing Gustav Schirmer, millionaire music publisher, for $250,000, alleging breach of promise. Schirmer charges that Miss Fisher accepted $1000 from Miss Fisher accepted $1000 from him to "purchase his peace and prevent annoyance and scandal." He further alleges that she told him she was engaged to a Clevelander, and he also says that she has lived in New York under the protection of wealthy men. Now Miss Fisher demands that Schirmer tell right out in court who these men are and who he thought she was going to marry.
