Weston Mountain Men Back From Pine Valley

(East Oregonian Special.) WESTON MT., July 17.—L. H. Dowd, Will Hall and Chas. L. May returned from an outing to Pine valley and Eagle valley, Oregon Tuesday. The trip was made in Mr. May's car.

Wilbur Gettings and wife and little daughter visited relatives on the mountain this week. Mr. Gettings sold his farm near Elgin recently and motored across the mountains.

An excellent program was given at the church Sunday by the Sunday school children under the capable training of Mrs. Allyn. After the program a basket dinner was served in the grove and preaching in the afternoon.

R. F. Lee came up from Pendleton Saturday to visit his little daughter, Hazel.

Albert Gould has a Cadillac and Robert Hopkins a new Overland car.

John M. Wroe went to his farm at Wenewick, Wash., Tuesday to move his header to the mountains to use this summer. Several of the farmers are going to the valley for harvest work.

Miss Hilda Larson, sister of Mrs. Roy Hyatt, will teach the Weston Mt. school this year.

Albert Gould and Ernest March left with their headers and box driver for Helix Wednesday for a three weeks' run with Walter Adams' steam thresh-er.

Ralph Lansdale and Henry Dowd are with J. N. York's machine.

It has been very warm on the mountain this week. The thermometer registered a little above 90 degrees. It is not thought that the grain is damaged any yet and is looking fine for this time of the year.

Potatoes will not be near a full crop as it has been too dry for them to come up.

NEVER SUCH TAXES AS U. S. HAS RAISED

WASHINGTON, July 17.—"I do not think in the history of world finance," said Senator Gerry to the senate, "there has ever been another country that has raised by taxation so large a percentage in payment of war expenditures."

Senator Gerry, who is a member of the finance committee, said the expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, amounted to more than

ABYSSINIA SENDS GREETINGS—THE GREETERS

Rather an unusual group, but they come from the little known land of Abyssinia to congratulate America on its part in the world war. And wherever they go in the national capital they get attention. Gentlemen of high station, these, as the prefix "Ato," indicates. Left to right they are: Ato Sinkae, Ato Herouy, Kantiba (mayor) Gabrou, Dedjazmach Nado, chief of the mission, who is a duke of the royal Abyssinian family, and Capt. Paul R. Morrissey, U. S. A., who is detailed to attend them.

$12,500,000,000, including loans to our allies of $4,551,000,000. Of the remaining $8,123,000,000 more than 50 per cent or $4,174,000,000, was raised by taxes.

In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, actual expenditures were somewhat over $18,500,000,000. Loans to our allies were $2,400,000,000, leaving $15,900,000,000. The treasury estimated $6,000,000,000 was raised by taxation, or 40 per cent.

"Taking the two years together," said the Senator, "the total debt remaining amounts to just a little over $13,000,000,000, and the amount raised by taxation was nearly 44 per cent of the total expenditures."

"The country now faces a deficit of $22,000,000,000," replied Senator Smoot. "Of this, $10,000,000,000 was loaned the allies, leaving a clear deficit of $22,000,000,000. The rate of taxation has been increased 2000 per cent while that in Great Britain only advanced 1600 per cent."

GIRL AGED 13, STUBS LONDON ART CRITICS BY HARE GENIUS

LONDON, July 17.—London art critics express astonishment over the drawings now being exhibited at the Leicester Galleries by a thirteen-year old girl, Pamela Blasco. She was born in England and now lives in Italy.

Musical child prodigies, it is pointed out, are not common, but it is doubtful whether other instances of such precocity in drawing as Miss Blasco's are on record. Already, the critics say, she has a strongly marked individuality which is revealed in all her work. A large frets and two large decorative female heads are among her pictures on exhibit. Her power of design on a large scale is regarded as remarkable. Another picture of hers is of a children's page celebration, and the expression of the children's faces is so good that the experts are amazed.

THE FUNNYBONE

A Gentle Rebuke "Pardon me for mentioning the matter," said the amiable old gentleman on a crowded trolley car.

"Well," said the little man. "I mean no offense whatever, but your elbow which is now planted in the pit of my stomach has a rotary motion which I do not believe is entirely due to the swaying of the car."

Nothing in the Head "He has water on the knee." "I presume it comes from that crack in his back."

West Milwaukee. Judge Blenski speaks Polish, German, English and French, but he can't talk West Milwaukee. He tried to understand it in court and he made a bad failure.

A brakeman was being tried for assault and battery on a switchman. The brakeman was on the stand and testifying:

"Judge, I high-balled the hoghead to slip the rattlers over the transfer and this pie-eyed geek—"

"Hold on!" exclaimed the Court. "What kind of language do you talk?"

"The same as every person in West Milwaukee," answered the brakeman. "Is there an interpreter present who can speak West Milwaukee?" asked the Court.

There was and the trial proceeded.

Hoovers. "The luxury tax will bring in a lot of money," said Congressman Hull of Tennessee, that there will be a lot of grumblers, no doubt. Too many people talk about war, and war economies but when it comes to a showdown they hate to give up any money or go into the trenches.

"A great many are like the rich man I encountered at the country club the other day. I was just in time to hear his candle ask:

"Shall I make a high tee, mister?" "No," said the rich man, "we've got to economize, and they may need it for sand bags."

town owned a dog that could make more music than a college yell. It was at night that he particularly shone along that line. Jones, who lived next door, went without sleep as long as possible, and then, rambling over to the partition fence, he told Smith that unless Fido were suppressed there was going to be a sound in the back yard like the discharge of a gun. That night, when Jones returned home, Smith met him at the gate with a smile that glowed like the setting sun. "Just a minute, Mr. Jones," interjected Smith. "I thought you would be interested to know that I have disposed of that dog."

THERE are good reasons for Firestone Truck Tires carrying more than half America's truck tonnage. Look at the trucks in this city that are mounted on Firestone Tires. You'll find that they run faster, have fewer accidents, stand up better with less repairs, are operating with the lowest possible quantity of gasoline. Our own service here in the city co-operates with Firestone policy. Our tire presses, with power equal to many tons pressure, and our other machinery make it easy for us to change truck tires quickly. And you know that the paying truck is the truck in the streets hauling your goods. When a truck's laid up a day for tire change, you lose far more than the cost of the change. Let us reduce tire-change time to the fewest possible minutes.
