SERAJEVO, Bosnia, June 28 (delayed).—This little town, where the world conflagration had its origin in the assassination of the Austrian archduke Francis Ferdinand five years ago, celebrated the anniversary with a monster parade, the center of which was a flower bedecked hearse containing the remains of the student Prince, who killed the Austrian heir. The remains had been exhumed from the original grave in Vienna and were solemnly reburied today in the local cemetery.

LET BORDER STATES DECIDE THROUGH VOTE

Russian Bolsheviks Encourage Decentralized Government; Rule Divided.

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, July 15.—"Let the border states decide what government they want by means of plebiscites." That is the proposal the bolsheviks make regarding the small nations surrounding soviet Russia. Contrary to their policy in force now of dictating from Moscow, the bolshevik foreign office recommends a decentralized government for the country. The chief bolsheviks hope for a confederation of communistic Russian states.
