SECRETARY HOUSTON VISITS GRANTS PASS

Head of Agricultural Department on Tour of Inspection, Investigates Road.

Ten Planes Could Carry Enough Lewisite to Wipe Out All New York City

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Ten airplanes could carry enough Lewisite, a coal-tar chemical product, to demolish New York city, Francis P. Garvan, alien property custodian, told the house ways and means committee. Mr. Garvan mentioned this point in emphasizing the importance of the dye industry as a means of national defense. Without a dye industry the United States would be at a disadvantage against other nations.

Mr. Garvan was cross-examined by Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, regarding the purposes and ramifications of the chemical foundation which is advocating the passage of a bill providing a license system of controlling imports of dyes. It is Mr. Moore's contention that the chemical foundation scheme tends to create a monopoly in the dye industry and that many of those connected with it are not as disinterested as claimed.

BERLIN FOOD PRICES TAKE SUDDEN DROP

BERLIN, July 18.—Prices on all foodstuffs have fallen with a crash in Berlin as a result of the lifting of the blockade. They began to show weakness when it was rumored that the embargo would be lifted, but the real drop came only when illicit dealers with huge concealed stocks brought them out in a virtual panic to unload before competing supplies entered Germany.

If the government's superb war organization was just beginning to function well when the war ended, it is a pity that it could not be transformed into a peace organization and kept in being. There are problems of peace as important as are the problems of war.

If there is still room in their cellars one must tentatively suggest to the experts that it could be well for them to store away a little coal.

Oklahoma boasts a $400,000,000 wheat crop. After mature deliberation one must concede that it is something to boast about.

There is far more pleasure to be derived from the pursuit of happiness than there is in catching it.

A bachelor may be an object of public derision, but a married man usually gets his at home.

SILKY AND SUMMERY

Crepe de chine, the soft, thin, alluring and washable material that wins its way to every feminine heart—is a favorite for summer frocks, that are clinging and graceful, in contrast to the extreme fluffiness of organdy. This lovely frock is of mauve-colored crepe de chine, richly braided with yellow silk soutache, and finished with yellow silk fringe. With it a creamy leghorn with yellow maline and some wheat sprays complete a costume charmingly artistic.

FOR A TINY "BEST FROCK"

The very smallest ladies should properly have the very prettiest frocks—and here is an example of what that "prettiest" is. For little maids from 3 to 6 years what could be more adorable than this simple confection of white handkerchief linen, pointed all about the hem with Vandyke points with white piped edges, and a background of lacy ruffie. A soft pink satin rash completes the picture.

MAY BE PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT OF MEXICO

VASQUEZ GOMEZ

Gomez looks like a good bet for provisional president of Mexico when the Angeles faction gets ready to name its choice. Angeles, who is now the military head of the Villistas, has said that no military man shall be named president. Gomez is a civilian, and was a strong Maderista.

"PRESTO!" THE TURBAN CRIED "BEHOLD ME NOW A HAT"

"They say it comes from Paris—in fact it is acclaimed as the latest creation of Paris milliners. Without attempting to doubt, we are tempted to suggest Africa, Arabia, or perchance Turkey, as its starting place, just the same. But whatever its origin, behold this, one of the oddest of odd new hat concoctions, designed by a Paris milliner-artist. Furthermore, England lends its support. London critics affirm that turban effects in hats have come to stay—that this is no "sport," botanically speaking, but is a real style. As for color, almost any shade of ribbon may be used. A hat for every gown is an easy requirement to fill, if one chooses to buy a few bolts of ribbon to match them.
