Harvest Returns
 Up to Predictions.
 Harvest returns from Oregon, Idaho and Waitsburg fully confirm the estimates made on the crop by The Journal several weeks ago, when close to 74,000,000 bushels were figured as the total 1919 output of the three states. Yields in all sections are coming up to all expectations of those forecasts and are far in excess of the estimates made by other parties. The Oregon representative of George Broomhall of Liverpool recently forecast a crop of 70,000,000 bushels for the three states.

Potato Crop Light
 At Weston Mountains
 The potato crop at Weston Mountain is not so heavy as last year, according to reports from that region. This is due to the dry weather as many of the vegetables did not come up because of the drought. The entire Pacific coast is likely to face an extreme famine of potatoes before many days, with consequent advancing of quotations in Oregon, Washington and California, according to crop reports. The situation just at present is a most serious one and there appears practically no relief in sight for the consumer. With a very huge decrease in the early planting of potatoes at practically all Pacific coast points, with the early crop of California cleared up for some time and the new crop there below normal and selling extremely high. Wonder is expressed by the trade as to where supplies will be secured for the immediate future.

Canned and Dried Fruits
 Will Be Higher in Price
 Canned and dried fruits will be from 25 to 50 per cent higher in price this fall than last year, according to word received by local dealers from wholesale merchants. The reason for the increase in price is said to be the great demand for canned and dried fruits for export trade. The increase in price will affect peaches, pears and other fruits.

Milton Corn Not

 Some complaint is heard from local merchants regarding the quality of green corn shipped here by Milton merchants. It is inferior in quality, it is stated, to the Yakima corn. The retail price for corn is 56c a dozen.

Newspaper Takes Serious View of Kaiser's Illness

BERLIN, July 24.—The Pan-German Deutsche Zeitung, which stands close to former royal circles, takes a serious view of the illness of ex-Kaiser William, calling it "deep melancholy." It is said that the one-time monarch is so depressed that his physician views his condition as critical. Count Hohenzollern is said to rarely leave his apartment and seldom see his closest friends. The paper says that he spends many hours in prayer and that when he does talk he wants to converse on religious subjects. The former emperor is said to show a "high degree of nervousness." The condition of the former empress is such, according to the newspaper, that she may have to return to Germany for treatment of her old heart trouble.

Nebraska Professor Gets Rare Decoration Founded by Napoleon

NEW YORK, July 25.—Prof. M. M. Fogg, professor of rhetoric in charge of Journalism in the University of Nebraska, who recently returned from service in the Army Educational Corps as director of the College of Journalism of the American Expeditionary Force University, Beaune, Cote d'Or, France, was decorated by the French Republic in recognition of his services as head of the college. The minister of public instruction, L. Lefferre, conferred upon him the Palmes Academique, the officer d'Academie. This decoration, which was established by Napoleon in 1809, and which has been given to but few foreigners, is awarded in France to heads of universities and colleges and to professors attaining high distinction in science or letters.

In the College of Journalism, one of the twelve colleges of the A. E. F. University, with nearly 10,000 students and a faculty of 682, 523 students registered in the seven courses. The faculty numbered seventeen, all practical newspapermen, three of whom were professors in American universities and fourteen of whom were drawn directly from the army.

National Prosperity

Period of Activity Coming

Excessive wages have been paid and in some lines excessive profits have been made. There will be an adjustment to lower levels, but the general economic conditions will not be effected thereby. The country is growing rapidly, export trade is expanding, home industry is active, building shortage is evident everywhere. There must come sooner or later, a period of great activity and good times, the country over.
