Willbur Beard, son of James Beard of Nolin, broke his wrist yesterday and is at St. Anthony's hospital.

Little Daughter Born.
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell are the parents of a little daughter born yesterday.

Has Tonsils Removed.
Paul Oliver of Echo, is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital. His tonsils and adenoids were removed yesterday.

Returns from Hospital.
Carl Fransen, who has been suffering from an attack of tonsillitis at St. Anthony's hospital, has recovered and left the hospital yesterday.

Woman Searching for Husband.
Postmaster Tweedy today received a request from Mrs. Eula Evans of Havre, Montana, to help find her husband, N. S. Evans, who is thought to be in Pendleton or vicinity. Mrs. Evans says that their little baby boy is very ill and that she wants Mr. Evans to come to her. Her address is Box 844, Havre, Montana.

Little Daughter Hurt.
Little Elizabeth Steiwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Steiwer, was knocked unconscious by falling off a bus at Seaside Tuesday and is now recovering from her fall. Mr. Steiwer had word of the accident last evening saying that the little girl was not injured seriously. Mrs. Steiwer and children are spending the summer at the beach.

Officials Out of Town.
Sheriff T. D. Taylor left today on an official trip to cities in the east end of the county and Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakeley went to the west end. Both will return this evening.

Birthday Present is Premier.
Earl Gillanders, of the firm of Gillanders & Burroughs, celebrated Mrs. Gillanders' birthday anniversary this week by presenting her with a new Premier chummy roadster, purchased from Wallace Bros., local agents.

Telegraph Operator Weds.
James Ernest McLaughlin, a telegraph operator at La Grande, was issued a license to marry Miss Charlotte Buesing, of Umatilla, today. McLaughlin is a native of Pendleton and is 23 years of age.

Will Leave for Coast.
Carl Fransen, who has been in St. Anthony's hospital recovering from a bad attack of tonsillitis, is back at work and plans to leave Saturday evening for his vacation. He will spend most of his time on a fishing and hunting trip in the Nehalem valley in Clatsop county.

Band Concert Draws Well.
One of the largest crowds of the season attended the weekly band concert last evening in Pioneer Park. Hundreds came in autos and children swarmed over the lawn and frolicked to the lively airs set up by the band. The cool breeze made it pleasant for the crowds and the concert was thoroughly enjoyed.

Repair Bids to Be Opened.
The school board is scheduled to meet tonight in the office of the clerk to open bids for the repairs to the city's school buildings. About $5000 in contracts are to be let.

Weather Report Says Cooler.
"Tonight, Saturday and Sunday fair; cooler; moderate westerly winds," says a weather forecast received today by W. W. Cryder, district forest supervisor. The report comes from the government observatories at San Francisco.

Referee Allowed $100 Expenses.
T. C. Frazier, of Milton, referee in the case of Adelia R. Smith et al vs. Frank H. Hines, et al, was allowed $100 as expenses in an order signed by Judge G. W. Phelps today. He is also ordered to apportion the money from the sale of property to those in the case who are entitled to it.

Bank Awnings Being Hung.
Awnings above the windows of the first floor of the Inland Empire bank were hung and lowered today for the first time. Later small awnings for the second story were placed. The awnings are of an attractive material and incidentally serve to keep the banking room much cooler.

Sale of Land is Confirmed.
A nunc pro tunc order of confirmation of sale was signed by Judge G. W. Phelps today in the case of L. A. Dickenson vs. John C. Williams and the Bank of Echo. The order confirms the sale of the northeast quarter of section 22, township 2 north, range 29 east, made by the sheriff last April.

Restraining Order Issued.
An order restraining Aaron Mint-horn from disposing of his auto truck at Athena, his five head of cattle or any of his land, was signed by Circuit Judge G. W. Phelps today. He was further ordered within one week from the dating of the order to pay to the clerk of the court $250 for attorney's fees for his wife, Anna Mint-horn, who is suing him for divorce, $100 for suit money and $50 a month maintenance money during the pendency of the suit.

Grain Fire Adjuster Here.
G. F. Kerchem of Portland, arrived today to appraise the damage done by the big wheat fire on the E. W. McComas ranch at Tutuilla Wednesday. He represents both the Pacific States and National companies and may also appraise the damage on the E. J. Burke place adjoining. After deciding on the local losses, Mr. Kerchem will go on to Milton where he will estimate the damage to Von-derhae Bros' place which had a fire at the same time Wednesday.

Praises Work of Synod.
The Rev. J. Francis Morgan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who with Mrs. Morgan returned recently from Eugene after attending the Oregon State Presbyterian Synod, says that the meetings and lectures were excellent. Among the speakers were Dr. Evans of Occidental college, Dr. Landon, San Francisco Theological school, and Dr. Fracker, who is one of those in charge of the New Era movement. The Rev. Mr. Morgan praised the University city and also the Willamette valley.

Leave for South Dakota.
Mrs. P. E. Boyden, accompanied her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hegeman, when they left at 1:15 this afternoon for Brookings, S. D. They are going to their old home there in response to word that Mr. Hegeman's sister is ill. Mrs. Boyden will return in about a fortnight but her parents will remain for an indefinite time. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Sparger will occupy their home at 603 Raleigh.

Zacharias Settles for $812.50.
H. H. Zacharias, Freewater farmer, agreed with Commissioner G. L. Dunning on a price of $812.50 as damages for allowing the state highway to pass through his orchard, in a meeting Wednesday. H. A. Anspach, offered $1425 for his damages, took the offer under consideration. Both offers were a compromise between what the county at first offered and the farmers demanded.

Bakersfield Is Cool at 105.
H. G. Blydenstein, who formerly ran Blydenstein's mill here but who now makes his home at Bakersfield, Ore., says it is rare to the East Oregonian that it is 105 in the shade there and plenty of shade. He misses Thorn Hollow water most of all, he says, and has to put ice in the Bakersfield variety in order to swallow it at all. Mr. Blydenstein has gone into the soft drink business there.

May Send Delegates.
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church may send a delegate to the Seabeck conference at Seabeck, Washington, July 20, to August 10, according to a decision reached at a social and business meeting held last night at the home of Mrs. Nellie Horton. The 25 members of the society who met made plans for the coming year and decided that during the summer months, the meetings will be held out-of-doors, on Sundays at 7 p. m. They are planning to have the meeting a week from Sunday in the form of a basket dinner at some grove near Pendleton.

Good Wheat Bucks Scarce.
Wheat bucks, known also to the uninitiated as warehousemen, are scarce this year, say the grain men. The scarcity of first class wheat bucks is something of a problem. The old fashioned buck who could juggle 140 pound sacks from sunrise to sundown has disappeared and those who have attempted to take his place do not have the staying qualities. Experi-
