FAMOUS ORLOFF DIAMOND HAS LONG HISTORY

The Orloff diamond which has disappeared from the Russian Imperial scepter, has like the Koh-i-noor, a strange history, of which there are several versions.

It once formed the eye of an idol in a temple near Trichinopoly, whence a French deserter from the Garrison stole it, carried it to Malabar, and sold it to a ship's captain for 2,000 guineas.

A Jew next bought it for 12,000 guineas and sent it for sale to Catherine the Great. That sagacious lady would not buy, but left it to a courtier, from whom she received it as a gift.

He was enabled for his pains, and gave his name, Orloff, to the jewel.
