

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Commissioner in Portland.
From Standfield comes G. L. Dunning with stories of big crops and bigger prices.—Portland Telegram.

Will Work in Water Office.
J. E. Beam today took over the books of the city water office and will hereafter act as cashier in place of Mrs. E. O. Parker, nee Edith Johnson, resigned.

Three Bad Checks Passed.
Three checks forged on the account of H. C. Dunn and made payable to J. E. Brown were received today by a local bank. Two of the checks are for $28.50 each and the other for $27.50. All were passed on local merchants.

Permit for Repairs Issued.
Mrs. A. A. Kimball was issued a permit to repair her dwelling at 313 Aurora today. The repairs will cost $200.

Is Spending Vacation.
David Swanson, who is employed at L. G. Frazier's book store, is spending a vacation at Long Beach.
He expects to remain away from Pendleton for a week longer.

Infantry Officers Interested.
Two officers in the 43rd infantry at Camp Travis, Texas, are about to be discharged and are interested in knowing of Pendleton's possibilities.
A letter from Lieut. James T.
Dismuke to the Pendleton Commercial Association, Secretary C. K.
Cranston sent them the desired information by return mail today.

Indians Interested in Berries.
When Dan Bowman, Mission merchant, returned from Walla Walla county Monday with a big load of huckleberries, he started something that nearly finished him. Word spread like wildfire over the reservation that the storekeeper had found berries and it was necessary for him to draw a detailed map showing the natives just where to go. Many parties have left in autos as a result of the find.
The berries were picked on Looking Glass creek, in the Elgin vicinity.

Edgar Smith in City.
Edgar Smith, president of the Antoria Flouring Mills, is in Pendleton today and is preparing to go to his ranch at Vansycle for a few days' rest.

Sues for Meat Bill.
The Empire Meat Co. today filed suit against George Vichas asking a judgment of $145.27, alleged due for meats sold the defendant. J. B. Parry filed the complaint.

Will Visit Towns in County.
Fred Bennion, county agent and Miss Ella Harmon, county demonstration agent, plan to visit Milton and Freewater next week in the interests of the county agent work.

Executive Meeting Tomorrow.
The executive board of the Umatilla county Red Cross will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Red Cross office in the federal building.

Returns to Pendleton.
John Kelsey, formerly a newspaper man here, returned to Pendleton today. He has been employed with the state highway commission near Echo for the past two months.

Visiting Adams and Athens.
Fred Bennion, county agent, and Paul Mohl, of O. A. C. agent in marketing work, are visiting Adams and Athens today in the interest of county agent work.

Working for City Engineer.
Ernest Crockett, returned Canadian veteran, has accepted a position with the city engineer department, under F. B. Hays. Mr. Crockett returned Sunday from Eugene where he spent six weeks in the summer school. He will return to the University of Oregon in the fall.

Fair and Warmer.
"Fair and warmer tonight and Thursday; continued warmer Friday; moderate winds, mostly southerly," is the weather forecast received today by W. W. Cryder, district Forest supervisor. The forecast comes from the government observatory in San Francisco.

Says Wife is Neglectful.
John Leuer today brought suit for divorce from Mrs. Julia Leuer, to whom he was married in 1912. He asks the custody of their two minor children. Mr. Leuer alleges that his wife is an habitual drinker and neglects her home and family. W. C. E.
Pruitt is Mr. Leuer's attorney in the case.

Returns Round-Up Pennants.
Four Pendleton Round-Up pen-nants, which traveled all over France on a flitter driven by the Rev. J. M.
Cornelson, were received in the mail today by Sheriff T. D. Taylor, president of the Round-Up. The pennants still show the Let 'er Buck, although considerable of the gold of the old world has accumulated on them.

Buys Truck for Wheat Hauling.
J. Thompson, who owns a farm ten miles out on the reservation, yesterday purchased from the Wallace Bro. and Overland Sales Co., a two ton Master truck to be used in hauling grain to the warehouse. The machine will be delivered tomorrow.
A body being installed today. J. E.
Chapman sold the truck.

Senator Acknowledges Wire.
Senator George E. Chamberlain yesterday acknowledged by letter the wire recently sent from Pendleton asking that President Wilson be invited to speak here on his coming trip to the coast. The senator promised to present the request to the president as soon as his leaving time is decided upon and his itinerary planned.

Will Repair House.
A permit was issued to C. F. Cole-worthy today for the repair of his new residence at 413 Jackson street. The repairs will cost in the neighborhood of $400 and will be done by Dunham, Brownlow & Payne. Mr. Coleworthy plans to move to the north side to live in the fall.

Sees Mother After 22 Years.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Boyce and three children have returned from a trip to Toledo, Ohio, the boyhood home of Mr. Boyce. He had not seen his mother, Mrs. Fanny Boyce, of Toledo, Ohio, for 22 years. Mr.
Boyce says it was interesting to note the many changes in Toledo. They returned here by way of San Francisco.

Will Represent Pendleton.
George C. Baer, president of the Pendleton Commercial Association, plans to leave for Portland tonight where he will represent Pendleton tomorrow at the welcome to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. It Alexander is already in Portland and holds credentials as a representative of the local association.

Crops Poor in Idaho.
George Urquhart of Spokane, was in the city today on his way home after a trip to Salt Lake. He reports that crops are poor in the Idaho region, with the exception of the Twin Falls section. He says the Snake river, which is used for irrigating, is dry in some parts of the state. Mr.
Urquhart is salesman for the J. L.
Owens farm machinery and has as his territory Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

Gypsies Stay But Short Time.
Open season on gypsy tribes has been declared in Pendleton, a second group having departed hurriedly from the city last evening at the request of city officers. Early in the evening about 20 nomads in four autos, began to make camp in Byers' grove but before they had prepared supper neighbors called the police and Officer Jim Hall delivered the ultimatum to move on. The unwelcome guests were given until 10 o'clock to find their way outside the limits and at the appointed hour they were gone.
