

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Agent on Field Trip.

Fred Bennon, county agent, is in Milton today on a field trip in the interests of county agent work. He will return tomorrow.

Miss Kimman Has New Position.

Miss Evelyn Kimman, for the past 15 years employed at Alexander's department store, will in future be employed as a saleswoman in The Style Shop, owned by the Carrier Millinery.

Lyman Rice to Portland.

Lyman Rice, of the First National Bank, left this morning for Hood River. Mrs. Rice and little son, Lyman Junior have been spending the summer in Hood River at the home of Mrs. Rice's parents.

Here for Examination.

Charles Lovelace, of Athena, is in the city to undergo examination by a local physician in regard to claims for disability caused by injuries received during army service. Lawrence Green of Hermiston, underwent a similar examination yesterday.

Three Permits Granted.

Upon recommendation of the fire committee of the city council last night, permits were issued today to the Eagle Woodmen lodge, the Pendleton Building Association and the Odd Fellows lodge for building repairs within the fire limits. The first named will make alterations to cost $300, the second alterations to cost $400 and the third the remodeling of a store.

258 Men Fed at Canteen.

Two hundred and fifty-eight men, as Casual Company 1002, passed through Pendleton yesterday at 4 P. M. and were fed at the Red Cross canteen. The men were all overseas veterans of the 2d and 4th Divisions, Army of Occupation, and were from Oregon and Washington. They are going to Camp Lewis from Camp Merritt. Lieutenant C. A. Sherrill, of South Carolina, was in charge. Other officers include: Lieutenant Neale, field artillery; Lieutenant Whyke, sanitary corps; and Captain Lusk, permanent army officer. The men expect to be discharged immediately.

Gown Man Has Tonsillitis.

Guy H. Johnson, manager of the Tri State Terminal Co. in Pendleton, is confined to his home today with tonsillitis.

Will Touch Near Milton.

Mrs. Anna Coghill has contracted to teach the school in District No. 9, near Milton, for the coming year beginning next month. Mrs. Coghill resides at Proewater.

Libraries Honor Carnegie

The county library in Pendleton and the libraries in Hermiston and Milton are closed today because of the funeral of Andrew Carnegie, who gave gifts to the three institutions. Flags are at half mast.

Louis Anderson Is Here.

Louis Anderson, well known former Umatilla county farmer who has interests here yet though he lives in the Willamette valley, is in Pendleton on a visit.

Merle Ferrell Here.

Merle Ferrell, former employe of the American National Bank, stopped off in the city from train No. 17 today en route to his home at Sacramento from a trip to Chicago. Mr. Ferrell is with the Burroughs adding machine company, having charge of the Sacramento field. His wife was formerly Miss Blanche Haddley of this city.

Bank Designer Here.

E. T. Aigne, of Portland, designer of the interior of the Inland Empire Bank, arrived this morning from Portland to supervise the installation of a series of new check desk lights. He is installing new fixtures in a bank at Proewater and will go to the east end this afternoon, proceeding from there to Tacoma Saturday.

Capt. "Archie" Is Recovering.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Capt. "Archie" Roosevelt, at Presbyterian hospital with trench fever symptoms, passed a good night and his early recovery is hoped for. Physicians said that he would probably be able to leave in a few days. Captain Roosevelt arrived in Chicago Sunday from Oyster Bay to begin his new work with the Sinclair Refining company.

Ukiah Ranger Is Here.

Walter Allison, Ukiah forest ranger, who is in the city today to confer with W. W. Cryder, Umatilla forest supervisor, says that the fire in the Big Creek region, Whitman forest, is well under control, although for a time it menaced the Umatilla forest. The fire is 20 miles from Ukiah and three men are in charge as fire fighters. Mr. Allison reports that the range is unusually dry but that sheep and cattle are not suffering.

Will Relocate in County.

Se Williams, who was a prominent Pendleton high school student 12 or 13 years ago, arrived this morning from Alberta where he has been farming. Mr. Williams' sole title to his ranches in Alberta and is planning to rent out two more he has there. He is looking for a house in Pendleton and plans to secure some Umatilla county farming land.

Rube Beckwith Where It Is Hot.

Ruben Beckwith, Pendleton boy now on the vaudeville stage, is in Richmond, Va., at present, a letter to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Beckwith, says. He declares that it is several degrees hotter there than Pendleton ever thought of getting. He has engagements in the south until Sept. 1, after which he will go to New York. He has a contract to play at the Hippodrome, New York City, beginning this fall.

File Articles of Incorporation.

Walter G. Royce, W. E. Saylor and Stephen A. Lowell are incorporators of the Ideal Propulsion Co., articles for which were filed with the county clerk today. They plan to do a general business dealing with motors and motor vehicles with the home office here. The capitalization is $25,000.

Ordinance Does Not Stand.

The ordinance regulating limits for the sale of gasoline from filling stations, passed by the council last night on the deciding vote of Mayor Vaughan, does not stand, according to an opinion from City Attorney James A. Fee today. The charter requires that where a tie vote results the mayor's deciding vote shall only be cast after a poll of all the councilmen has been taken. Inasmuch as Councilmen Ralph Polson and Manuel Friedly were absent last night, the ordinance must come up for vote again next Wednesday.

Reserve Board Grants Permit.

The federal reserve board has notified W. L. Thompson, president of the American National Bank, of the granting of his request to be allowed to serve as president of the local bank and also as vice president and director of the First National Bank of Portland. Under the terms of the Kern amendment to the Clayton act no person may serve as officer and director in more than one bank having total assets of $5,000,000 or more, without special permission of the federal reserve board. The granting of this permit allows him to continue in his official position with both banks after Sept. 1.

Will Teach in Alaska.

Miss Arlie Rouanoin, who has been employed as a teacher in the Pendleton schools, will leave on Saturday for Alaska, where she will teach in the grammar school at Thane a mining town near Juneau. Miss Rouanoin has been at Milton visiting her parents, and arrived in Pendleton today to remain until Saturday. She will sail on the Canadian liner Princess Alice. Miss Rouanoin's brother, Frank Rouanoin, is employed in the mines at Thane, which is the location for the Alaska Gastineau gold mines. The Thane school employs two teachers and Miss Rouanoin will have charge of the lower grades.

The deer season throughout Oregon will open September 1st this year and will continue opened until October 21st, according to an announcement made by Carl D. Shoemaker, State game warden, today. The only exception is in Union and Wallawa counties where the season will open on September 10th and close on November 10th. Heretofore, the season has opened on August 15th in District No. 1, which consists of all counties west of the summit of the Cascade mountains. The season this year is uniform in both districts except in the two counties heretofore mentioned. The bag limit is two deer with horns which is the same as last year.

building to cost $250.

Earl Newquist On Melville.

Earl Newquist, who will be remembered as one of the Round-Up riders, has been stationed aboard the U. S. S. Melville and since the recent explosion of the boiler of the ship which caused the death of 17 men, anxiety as to the fate of Newquist is felt by his sister, Mrs. J. H. Eggers, of this city. Mrs. Eggers has not heard from her brother since the accident. The Melville was on its way home after a trip and Newquist expected to get his discharge soon after reaching the United States. Mrs. Eggers has a sister in Washington, D. C., who is attempting to get news of the Melville through the Red Cross.

MAZOLA

The Perfect oil for cooking and salads

THE most discriminating epicure cannot say whether it is Mazola or imported olive oil in mayonnaise or French dressing served him. Italians who know real olive oil are enthusiastic about Mazola.

Your grocer sells Mazola at about one-half the price of the best olive oil.

Make This Delicious Mayonnaise Dressing Today

- 2 Eggs, Yolks only 1 pint of Mazola 1 teaspoon of Mustard
- 1 dash of Pepper 1 teaspoon of Salt 4 tablespoons of Vinegar

HAVE all ingredients and mixing utensils cold. Mix dry ingredients. Add egg yolks and when well mixed, add 1/2 teaspoon of vinegar. As soon as the mixture thickens, add the remainder of the vinegar a little at a time. Now beat in the remainder of the Mazola gradually until all is used. The mayonnaise should be thick enough to hold its shape. Put in a glass jar and cover close. Place in the ice box to be used when needed. It will keep for weeks. Do not stir it when you open it; take out as much as you need with a tablespoon, and close the jar.
