BIG ATTENDANCE EXPECTED WHEN SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 2

Two weeks from today hears the call to school sounded for 1500 Pendleton boys and girls. After a vacation extending from May 16, a record number of youngsters are expected to plod their heavy-hearted way to the city's five schools on Tuesday morning, September 2.

With all new text books to study and all the city schools in first class repair, the year will open auspiciously for Pendleton's youth. The buildings have been under repair for several weeks and will be ready for a banner year when the doors are opened to the students.

While there will be no change in the Principalships of the local schools, only 18 of the old grade teachers will back. Ten new teachers have been added and if estimates of the school authorities are exceeded by the registration, more teachers may be found necessary. The principals who hold over from last year are: Field school Miss Neva Lane; Hawthorne, A. C. Thompson; Lincoln, Miss Della Rush; Washington, Miss Laura Shaw. H. E. Talow returns as principal of the high school.

While 1094 children were enrolled in the grades last year, between 1100 and 1200 are expected this year. The high school had 294 last year and at least 300 are looked for this year. Many students from out of town would come to Pendleton for their education if persons could be found who would take children for room and board.

The housing situation is important from the teachers' standpoint also. P. P. Austin, city superintendent, says, "Only four persons have responded to his appeal for lists of those who will furnish room and board either to teachers or to school children from out of town. There are still several teachers to be placed in boarding places."

A high standard of excellence has been required of all new teachers employed by the Pendleton schools this summer and, with the veteran staff hold over, a successful year is anticipated. Last year's work was seriously hampered by long vacations due to influenza but no such trouble is looked for this year. The adoption of new texts will work to better the standards of learning, Mr. Austin believes.

Advice to parents or students either within the city or from out of town regarding high school courses and requirements for entrance will be given by H. E. Talow, high school principal, daily. He will be at the high school from 9 until 4 each day and can also assist any high school graduate considering entering a university.

Loaf Cake.
 Eight ounces of butter, eight ounces of sugar, eight ounces of flour, one-half cup of milk, four eggs, one teaspoonful of baking powder and lemon flavoring.

Work the sugar and the butter until very light and creamy, add the eggs one by one, and the flavoring. Then fold in the flour and mix lightly. Bake in moderate oven in mold lined with paper.

When baked, let cool, remove the paper and cover with white frosting.

And while we're on the subject of cakes, here's the recipe for War Sponge Cake.
 Use one cup of sugar, four eggs and half teaspoonful of soda, five ounces of white flour and four ounces of corn flour.

Work the sugar with the butter and add the egg, molasses and sour milk. Mix well. Sift the soda with the flour and mix well with the rest. Add last the fruits. Bake in mold in moderate oven for about an hour.

With these few cakes we close the column until tomorrow.

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN MINE.
 TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 19.—Eighteen miners were killed in Monday's explosion in a coal shaft near Lavaca. The bodies of 12 have been recovered. The remaining six have been located.

Evanston's ingenious professor, who has produced red, white and blue corn, would confer an even greater favor by inventing some way of obtaining the common yellow variety at a reasonable price.
