Orders For Seats Pouring In To The Round-Up Offices

"Never in the seven years I have been handling seat orders have I received so many requests for Round-Up reservations through the mail as this year," W. C. E. Pruitt, director of publicity for the Round-Up, said today.

All the hundreds of letters asking for tickets and reservations which pour in to Justice H. Marsh, secretary, and to the Pendleton Commercial Association are listed by Mr. Pruitt. One week from Tuesday all these requests will be filled by the mailing out of the tickets for the three days, Sept. 18, 19 and 20.

Bert Mason, a live wire real estate man of Ione, writes that he is endeavoring to interest between 125 and 150 citizens living on the Heppner branch to come over by special train for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 19 and 20. He would include the towns of Heppner, Lexington, Ione, Morgan and Cecil.

In 1916, Mr. Mason promoted a train for a one day's visit to the Round-Up and attracted 125 from the Heppner branch. Many have asked him to try to promote a two day trip this time and he hopes to make it a go. He has asked about reservations for the two days, in a letter received by the Round-Up association today.

NEW INTEREST IN LEAGUE AROUSED

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Revived interests in the league of nations and proceedings at the peace conference have resulted from President Wilson's testimony before the senate foreign relations committee.

The allies' concealment of secret treaties has strengthened Wilson's moral position, says the Manchester Guardian, which wonders why the president didn't use his position more fully.

The paper supposes he was forced to make a difficult choice between the acceptance of some very unfavorable point or the possible breaking up of the peace conference. It hopes the price of these concessions, paid in return for the league of nations, won't be lost.

The Daily Graphic declares there is one aspect regarding the difficulty over article ten which should weigh heavily on America. Had it not been for the allies' endurance and sacrifice, the editorial declares, the Monroe doctrine would not be much today.

besides a sweet memory controlled by Germany. "That being the case," the paper asks, "why shouldn't America make some sacrifices in return for the allies' services?"
