On August 25 a trainload will be made up from consignments from the Desert Sheep company and the Shockley Sheep company.

Houser Corrects

Wrong Impression.
The wrong impression has been given out to farmers concerning the "hoarding" of wheat, according to a letter issued today to all newspapers by Max M. Houser, second vice president of the United States grain corporation.

"The sole object of the United States Grain corporation is to see that the guaranteed price on wheat's maintaind, and that no farmer shall get less than that amount." Mr. Houser stated. Mr. Houser expressed displeasure over the reports that farmers would be held as profiteers who kept their grain in storage for a short time. The misunderstanding is said to have arisen out of the following statement in General Bulletin No. 7, recently issued by the grain corporation. "No storage premiums would be added to basic prices at the present time, nor until these accumulate in the grain corporation's hands a sufficient reserve of wheat to insure a measure of protection for future home requirements."
